Huge Coal Steals Are Uncovered.

Six Leading Indianapolis Fuel Dealers Are Involved.

Crooks Quail and Confess When Confronted by Accuser.

Bribed Engineers of Big Plants to Connive at Short Weights.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After a desperate battle of conflicting emotions, selfish reservation and sense of honesty, a struggle continuing for almost a year, Mrs. Jeanette F. Stern, a stenographer in the employ of the Eclipse Coal Company of this city, yielded to her better promptings, as she thinks, and has given to the police startling information which has already resulted in the arrest of six men, said to be involved in the most gigantic coal graft scheme in the history of Indianapolis and the State.

Six big coal companies are concerned in the alleged steals. The men arrested tonight are: Charles James Jackson, senior partner of the Eclipse Coal Company; Edward R. Gross, junior member of the firm; Rhodie Jackson, clerk; John H. Hanrahan, engineer at English's Hotel; Fred J. Voss, engineer at Claypool Hotel; Charles Edmonson, engineer at the city hospital.

GOT AWAY WITH BIG LOOT.

The men are charged with grand larceny and their alleged crime has to do with a conspiracy which took possibly hundreds of thousands of dollars out of the pockets of hotel proprietors and the city of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Stern, who caused the arrests, has been in the employ of the coal company about a year. A searching detective campaign of a year came to an end this afternoon in the office of Superintendent of Police Hyland, when Mrs. Stern confronted each of the six men arrested and accused them directly of conspiring to rob Henry Lawrence, proprietor of the Claypool Hotel, W. E. English, proprietor of the Hotel English, and the city of Indianapolis, besides several other corporations, of the sale of coal short in weight many thousands of pounds.

CANNOT FACE HER.

One by one the men were compelled to face the woman, who, backed by a coterie of policemen and detectives, finally caused them to quail and confess.

The scheme by which the Claypool Hotel was robbed of about $3000, English's hotel of probably $2000, and the city hospital of at least $1000, was a simple one. It necessitated only the agreement — a verbal one — between either Gross or Jackson, of the Eclipse Coal Company, and the engineers employed at the institutions.

According to the confessions on file at police headquarters, the Claypool Hotel has been robbed systematically for a year, and probably longer. The agreement between the coal merchant and Edmonson is of more recent date.

A report that Mayor Shank and Capt. English were involved directly is apparently untrue, though the city administration is concerned.

HONOLULU, April 8.—The Pacific Mail liner Manchuria, with quite a large list of passengers from the Orient, is being detained here on account of smallpox on board the vessel. The Manchuria left Yokohama on March 30 and was immediately placed in quarantine upon arrival here this afternoon. The cabin passengers have been sent ashore, and the ship probably will be thoroughly fumigated before it proceeds to San Francisco.

"SILVER MINING KING" IS DEAD.

THOMAS F. WALSH SUCCUMBS TO LUNG TROUBLE.

End Comes Peacefully After Unsuccessful Trip Through the South for Health, Which Was Impaired by Accident While a Miner in Colorado. Incidents of Active Career.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Thomas F. Walsh, the millionaire mine owner, died at his home here tonight at 11:30 o'clock. Death was due to a growth in the lungs as the result of an injury received years ago when Mr. Walsh was a miner in the West.

Although the "silver mining king," as Mr. Walsh was known, had been sick for three months, the end came suddenly and peacefully. He died in his Massachusetts-avenue home, whither he returned several weeks ago after a tour through the South in search of health. He was surrounded when the end came by the immediate members of his family, his wife, daughter and son-in-law, Edward B. McLean, and by three physicians.

Mr. Walsh will be buried in Rock Creek Cemetery, in this city, by the side of his only son, who lost his life in an automobile accident in New England several years ago. At his own request the funeral ceremonies will be simple. They will be conducted by the Masonic orders, and will be held Sunday afternoon.

Thomas F. Walsh was born in Ireland in 1851. He was educated in the public schools, and in early life was apprenticed to a wheelwright. When he was 19 he came to the United States, going almost directly to Colorado, where he made his fortune in the development of mines.

In 1879 he was married to Miss Carrie B. Reed. He was named as one of the commissioners to the Paris Exposition in 1900, and had been otherwise signally honored by the government.

Mr. Walsh, always a genial host and fond of good company, was a member of a number of clubs and belonged to several scientific societies. In the immediate past he developed a keen interest in aviation, and was the leading figure in the effort to have the international aviation meet held in Washington.

When the Colorado silver miner built his magnificent home a few years ago, it was the largest and most palatial residence in the capital. Since then it has been surpassed by the Lars Anderson and the Perry Belmont houses.

Two of the largest and finest office buildings in the city have been built by Mr. Walsh in the last few years. One of them he named the "Colorado," the other the "Ouray," in honor of the county in which he made his fortune.

A son born to his daughter recently has been dubbed, on account of the immense wealth on both his paternal and maternal sides, "the hundred million dollar baby."

Trenton, N. J., Ministers May Demand Impeachment of Members.

"Fizz Water" and Women Make Lawmakers Dizzy in Last Hours.

Hugs and Kisses Mix With High Kicking Stunts, It's Alleged.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TRENTON (N. J.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ministers of this city decided today to ask Gov. Fort to make a full investigation of the disgraceful scenes that marked the closing hours of the Legislature early yesterday morning. Rev. George W. Ridout, pastor of Wesley Methodist Church, started an investigation today, assisted by the Rev. Hugh B. McCauley, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, and Rev. John D. Fox, until recently pastor of the State Street Methodist Church.

The ministers intimated that impeachment proceedings might be brought against some of the Assemblymen who openly kissed and hugged women of questionable character in the Assembly gallery and committee rooms.

According to the stories that are told, some of the members of the Assembly were more interested in "water" that dises than in the McCran bill for the conservation of the State's subterranean water supply, and were far more interested in the presence in the Assembly gallery until long after midnight of women well-known to the police of the city.

Some of the lawmakers were called by their first names by the women in tones that could be heard throughout the chamber.

In a little room back of the Speaker's chair a can-can was danced that would have done credit to the Moulin Rouge.

While hoarse, but spiritedly, chanting the tune and clapping time on their palms and knees, the women pirouetted, kicked, advanced enticingly, retreated with mock modesty, while the swish of their skirts kept the rhythm.

The women made earnest attempts to kick the ceiling until they found the ceiling was too lofty. Then a woman jumped on a table. Her elevated efforts were rewarded with loud cheers.

A lithe, little woman said she would give the Apache dance. She called a Legislator to her side, but he was too stout, too scant of breath and too unsteady of foot to be her partner, so she danced alone, while the ceiling rang with applause.

Finally the dawn peered over the Delaware River, just outside of the Capitol's windows. The women then bade the Legislators a noisy "good-by." The lawmakers sought their lodgings; the janitors piled the wreckage—empty bottles, cigarettes and cigar butts—in baskets designed for less ignoble waste. The session, with its closing amusements, had ended.

LAST FALL'S SENSATION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The elopement of Lady Crofton and James Douglas Montagu, better known to his intimates as "Jimmy" Montagu, caused a sensation in this city last October. The couple arrived in New York early in that month and went directly to the Hotel Gotham, where they occupied the bridal suite.

The couple had met at a house party given by "Jimmy" Montagu. Montagu called repeatedly on Lady Crofton at their home in London, No. 47 Great Cumberland Place, without the knowledge of Sir Morgan, and finally they came to this country.

Private detectives were called in and they located the elopers. Then Sir Morgan, accompanied by a younger brother of Montagu, came to America and there was a stormy scene at the hotel, where Lady Crofton defied her husband and accused him of ill-treating her.

Miss Constance Collier, an English actress, who was friendly to both sides, finally effected a reconciliation, and it was agreed that Lady Crofton would return home with her husband for the sake of their three-year-old son, and that she would not again see Montagu.

Lord and Lady Crofton, "Jimmy" Montagu and the latter's brother, Frederick J. Montagu, returned to London on the steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm, which sailed on November 2.

Lady Crofton accompanied her husband to their home in London, but shortly afterward she left him and went to the continent. He at once instituted the suit for divorce, naming "Jimmy" Montagu as the co-respondent.

BURDEN OF SHORTAGE FALLS ON LITTLE GIRL.

City Treasurer's Defalcation Will Eat Up Large Estate Left by the Child's Mother to Husband in Will. She Will Only Have Portion of Insurance Money Left.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Upon one little girl falls the burden of "Billy" Baehr's shortage. When the expert accountants have determined just how much of the city's money was misappropriated by the late Treasurer, the Surety Company will replace it and to reimburse itself will take legal steps looking to the confiscation of his estate, which is estimated at $60,000.

In this way his daughter, Ruth, 13 years old, will lose her mother's fortune, which Baehr's wife left him by will. Instead of being comfortably situated, as was thought, the lawyers say that she will have only the $6000 share of a $12,000 life insurance policy, to which she is specifically named as beneficiary, the other $6000, which was made payable to Mrs. Baehr, reverting to the estate and being liable to seizure by the Surety Company.

The report of the accounting company conducting the investigation for the city says that it is his opinion that the deficit may reach as high as $82,000. The city is secured by a surety company in the sum of $150,000, and will therefore not suffer.

The real sufferer by this procedure will be Ruth, the little orphaned daughter. The bulk of the estate, it appears, was a legacy to her mother. When Mrs. Baehr died some few years ago it appears she bequeathed her property by will to Mr. Baehr, and he

VICTIM OF DUTY.

Brave Officer Killed In Duel.

Desperate Bandits Shoot at Short Range With Fatal Result.

Patrolman Brooks Battles in Vain and Against Great Odds.

Thugs Believed to Be Pair Who Had Just Held Up a Saloon.

A FEW minutes after the robbery of a saloon on Central avenue, Patrolman David Brooks, patroling Grand avenue in plain clothes, was shot and fatally wounded by a brace of footpads, who undertook to "stick him up."

Brooks was shot through the body when, instead of complying with the command, "Hands up," he only put up his left hand, exposing part of his shield, and tried to reach for his revolver with his right hand.

The bandits who killed Brooks are believed to be the same who robbed the saloon.

It was about 10:30 o'clock when two men, wearing black masks, entered Conrad Winters's saloon at No. 3725 Central avenue. John Edwards, the bartender, was the only man in the place, but he was not disposed to take seriously the appearance of the robbers, both of whom displayed revolvers and threatened him.

"Throw up your mitts," called out one of the robbers, as he entered the saloon.

"Go to the dickens," pleasantly replied Edwards.

"I mean it," said the robber, and he spoke in such a threatening tone that Edwards complied at once. The robber who had spoken kept him covered with his revolver while the other walked around the counter and helped himself to the contents of the till, taking about $50 in silver, but overlooking about $200 in gold, which had been hidden in one of the remote corners of the drawer.

KILLING FOLLOWS ROBBERY.

News of the robbery had barely been flashed over the police wires before there came back to police headquarters the announcement that one of the officers had been killed at the corner of Thirtieth and Grand avenue. Not even the name of the officer was given, as the message came from one of the residences in the neighborhood, but officers were at once hurried to the spot from both the University Station and headquarters.

The corner indicated is about twenty-three blocks from the saloon that had been "stuck up" earlier in the night. The news of the killing of Officer Brooks was first sent in at 11:20 o'clock, just about the time it would require to walk from the saloon to Thirtieth street and Grand avenue.

Witnesses to the tragedy say that Brooks met death bravely. William Evans, an employé of Dorne, Brouse & Rice, contractors, was standing behind a telegraph pole when the shooting took place, and A. C. Monter, a young man living at No. 212 West Thirtieth street, was on the opposite side of Grand avenue, on his way home. Their accounts are the same, and both testified to the bravery of the officer when he was stopped by the guns of the highwaymen. Here is the story as Evans told it last night:

"I was standing at the corner, leaning against the telegroph pole, as I was waiting for a car. There are two poles there, and two men who passed behind me, walking south on Grand avenue, did not notice me. They had not walked more than about thirty feet when I heard one of them say that somebody was coming and they might hold him up. A little after that I heard one of them call out:

"'Hold up your hands!'

"I looked from behind the pole and I saw a man coming up the street toward the two who had passed me.

"Instead of holding up his hands

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

JACKSON (Miss.) April 8.—The interference of other Senators alone prevented a personal encounter between Senators Banks and Tucker during the Senatorial bribery investigation late today.

L. C. Dulaney, charged by Senator Bilbo with having paid him a bribe, was on the witness stand. Senator Tucker, counsel for Bilbo, asked Dulaney if Percy had not paid the expenses of all Senatorial candidates except Vardaman.

From the rear of the chamber Senator Banks came charging to the front and made for Senator Tucker. Tucker started for Banks.

"Any man who says or insinuates that anybody paid the expenses of my friend, Congressman Byrd, is a liar, as false as hell," shouted Banks.

Senators turned over chairs and tables to get between Banks and Tucker

The question, after further wrangling, was withdrawn and President Pro Tem. Dean "instructed" the newspaper men present not to mention the affair.

At the night session, W. W. Mitchell, a circuit clerk of Poplarville, Senator Bilbo's home, testified that he knew Senator Bilbo's reputation, and that he would not believe the Senator under oath.

W. A. White, an attorney from Biloxi, told of trying out Senator Bilbo in 1908. A bill was drawn and sent by a man named Bob Mosely. Mosely returned and said: "Bilbo did not give me a chance to make him a proposition; he made us one."

Mosely corroborated White's story.

"I want to see Bilbo," said Mosely, "and he said, 'it will cost you $300.' I offered him a check, but he said he

NEW YORK, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Eight of the fourteen charges preferred by Mrs. Edna Valentine Hein in her divorce suit against Isa Willard Hein, once Consul of Honduras, were sustained by a jury sitting before Justice Blachoff in the Supreme Court. A sealed verdict was handed in today.

The verdict declared that the charges were proved so far as they concerned the women mentioned in the confession; also that it had been proved that Hein had misbehaved with Mrs. B. M. Higgins, at the Arlington Hotel in Washington, and at her apartment here.

Pretty little Mrs. Hein was in court when the verdict was reported. She

NEW YORK, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Cupid and Psyche may be all right in an art museum, but in a cemetery they are considered very much de trop by the best authorities, as is evidenced in the action of the Greenwood Cemetery trustees in ordering removed from their premises two statues of the lightly-clothed pair, which adorn the grave of Alice, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Stetler of Philadelphia. Mrs. Stetler is stopping in Brooklyn while she is trying to combat the action of the cemetery officials. According to Mrs. Stetler, the statues were placed on her daughter's grave as a romantic tribute.

PITTSBURGH GRAFT.

COLLECTOR IS INDICTED.

Allegheny County Official on Grand Jury's List.

Many Witnesses Accused of Withholding Facts.

Bankers Are Severely Scored. Perjury Is Charged.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

PITTSBURGH, April 8.—A true bill charging Max G. Leslie, collector of delinquent taxes in Allegheny county, with bribery, was returned by the grand jury today.

At the same time a sweeping presentment was handed down with general charges that many of the 250 witnesses which the grand jury has had before it in the graft investigation have willfully withheld knowledge and secrets of the graft, and that a few have been guilty of perjury.

Directors and officials of the six big banks that profited by the corrupt depository ordinance are severely scored.

The indictment of Leslie follows his recent acquittal on a charge of perjury in claiming an alibi in connection with a previous indictment for alleged bribery. He is now charged with receiving $25,000 from the Columbia National Bank of Pittsburgh on June 9, 1906. In the former indictment the date was named as June 8 and Leslie proved that he was out of the city at that time.

BRIBERY CHARGED.

It is charged that of the $25,000 he paid over $17,500 to William Brand to bribe Councilmen.

The indictment season reached such a complex stage today that even the grand jurors themselves thought it necessary to present a comprehensive review of all their work.

It was declared most emphatically that former Councilman Charles Stewart and Cashier James M. Young of the Second National Bank have concealed information from the grand jury.

"We have been unable to ascertain who paid Stewart this bribe money (meaning $53,000 charged as furnished by the Friend-Hoffstot pool of banks) in New York," the jurors reported.

"Although Stewart met this man at least upon two or three occasions, although he knew his name, and had several drinks with him, he nevertheless swears that he does not remember his name."

The grand jury also recommends a new investigation of the directors of the Second National Bank, and in specific terms charged that Cashier Young is shielding F. N. Hoffstot, and that there is reason to believe that someone else connected with the Second National Bank is responsible for this. The report made by the directors of the Farmers' Deposit National Bank in denial of any knowledge of any payment of any money to bribe Councilmen is criticised.

DOUBT VALIDITY OF CONTRACT.

The validity of the contract under which six favored banks now hold the city's money is attacked.

Important in that it shows how the banks were induced to put up so large an amount of money for the boodle fund is the recommendation that 6 per cent. be collected on the city deposits from these banks from and after this date. The city depository banks are now paying 2 per cent. on city deposits, and it is alleged that the agreement was that the Councilmen were to get the difference for reducing the percentage.

The presentment says:

"When an ordinance has been passed by the Councils of the city of Pittsburgh by means of bribery, which was participated in by more than 90 per cent. of the then members of Councils, when officers of the six banks, or persons for their benefit, paid this bribe, we do not believe such a contract should be held valid.

"When it is a fact that other banks of the city of Pittsburgh offered a higher rate of interest, can it be true that these particular six banks should reap large returns from the city of Pittsburgh, which now result to them, and may result to them, because of this wholesale bribery and corruption?

BITTER RAP AT BANKERS.

"We here desire emphatically to denounce as public malefactors not only the men who solicited the bribes, who held up the banks and the influential men of the city of Pittsburgh, but also to denounce for their part in our city's shame the bank president or the millionaire who attempts and who causes the downfall of the poor Councilman who is paid no salary for the duties he is called upon to perform for the benefit of the public."

The conclusion of the presentment discloses that the bank ordinance and the ordinance vacating South Seventh street were not the only pieces of corrupt Councilmanic legislation. The jurors openly state that $11,500 in bribe money was paid for the vacating of Home street, but no indictments could be returned because the statute of limitations applies.

In the section of the presentment that deals with this, it is declared that Sam Heppenstall and C. W. Heppenstall, two prominent business men of this city, each paid bribes to Charles Stewart, the former paying $10,000 and the latter $1500.

LOSES CIGARETTE CASE.

Washington Society Woman Gives Description to Police—She Has Named It "Kittens."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—"Kittens," the property of Miss Katherine Cameron, a Washington society woman, was stolen last night during the performance of a historical tableau, at a charitable banquet attended by President Taft and other distinguished persons. The police learned of the loss of "Kittens" and a valuable, gold-mesh handbag from Miss Cameron, who reported the theft after she and other Washington society women had directed the charitable performance.

Every man in the department was instructed to keep a sharp lookout for "Kittens" after its identity had been explained. "Kittens" is a gold cigarette case. Miss Cameron had left it in the wings on the stage of the hall where the performance was given. It was in her purse and under her hat. When she discovered her loss she did not hesitate to give the authorities a minute description of the property, valuing the handbag at $275 and the cigarette case, upon which was engraved the name, "Kittens," at $85.

Wife Ceased Loving Divorce-Seeking Husband After Relative Came to Board With Her.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two brothers, George B. and Henry Hubbard, glared at each other in Judge Sale's courtroom today as George told how he had made sacrifices to help Henry.

"In return," he said bitterly, "he broke up my home."

Mrs. Hubbard admitted that Henry Hubbard was boarding at her home. She said her mother also lived there. Asked whether she thought it was proper for him to live there, she said: "I don't know. I have to keep a boarder because I need the money." In his testimony, the husband said that the wife, Gussie Irene Hubbard, became so cold toward him after she became acquainted with Henry, and that she refused to let him sit beside her on a car. The estrangement began in 1906, Hubbard testified. The divorce suit was filed last October.

Three sons and three daughters are at the house. Dr. Livingston remains all night with the ex-Senator but he fears that his patient cannot last much longer.

It is just a week now since the news became public that the ex-Senator is in a serious condition. His life was despaired of several times during the seven days but yesterday he seemed to take a turn for the better and to have some chance for recovery.

CHILD BURNS TO DEATH.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) April 8.— Infant son of James E. Smith was left to death and a four-year-old girl burned in a fire that de- stroyed their home three miles north- east of this city this morning. The parents had kindled a fire with kero- sene, leaving the oil can near the stove while they went across the road to a neigh- bor's, leaving the two children in bed. Shortly later flames burst from the window of the building.

Leaves Pulpit to Manage Tour of His Musical Sisters.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Rev. D. M. Montgomery of the First United Presbyterian Church of North Yakima, has resigned his pastorate to become, it is said, the press agent and business manager for his sisters, the Misses Ethel and Dack Montgomery, musical performers, who have just finished a prosperous concert tour of Eastern Washington under his direction.

The young women have urged their brother to manage their contemplated tour of Eastern States.

working on the wires along Market street, near Santa Clara street. He had climbed a pole, and, in the course of his duties, came in contact with a wire carrying a heavy voltage.

The plaintiff alleges that it was through the lack of care on the part of the foreman that Collins was not advised of the extreme danger of his position.

HIS "LADDAH COLLAPSED."

Negro Burglar Becomes Wedged in Transom and Police Find Their Prey Waiting.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Hughes, a corpulent colored man, attempted to force an entrance to a sleeping room in an apartment house last night. He made himself a helpless prisoner and was forced to call the police to assist in freeing him from his own trap.

Hughes conceived the idea of climbing through a transom over the door of the room he contemplated burglarizing and to aid him in gaining entrance he leaned a heavy plank up against the door. He neglected to wedge the end of the board that rested on the floor. He was about to reach the frame of the transom when he felt the board slipping, and then, to save himself from a fall, he tightly wedged himself in the transom opening.

He was tightly caught. Escape unaided was impossible. Policemen Lyons and Sullivan heard the cries of the sufferer and were soon upon the scene.

"Le' me go," he pleaded, "and Ah'll tell eh'ything. Ah was done goin' to do a littie stealin' in that room and mah laddah collapsed."

NEW FISH LAW PROFITABLE.

State Hatcheries Will Benefit $15,000 This Year from Market Licenses. Triples Receipts.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State fish hatcheries will receive about $15,000 more this year than last from commercial fish licenses issued by the California Fish and Game Commission. The increase is due to the law enacted by the last Legislature, which made a new regulation for those who fish for business purposes.

State Controller Nye completed the figures today showing that the sum of $21,962.50 had been derived from fish licenses during the fiscal year ending March 31, as compared with $7022.50 for the year previous. This sum is made by 1755 alien fishermen paying $10 a year to fish in California waters, and 1773 citizens at the rate of $2.50 each.

The old law made no discrimination as to citizens and non-citizens, taxing $2.50 to the boatload of fishermen.

AN ANCIENT FIRE ENGINE.

Prevented Serious Conflagration in Arizona Town—Usefulness Outlived.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TRUCKEE, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An ancient fire engine that was brought around Cape Horn thirty years ago to protect the property in Virginia City, Nev., and later in Reno, and was then brought to Truckee for the same service, has degenerated into a common stationary engine at last, and is now furnishing power for sawing for a lumber company near here, after spending several years pumping water for one of the local ice ponds.

In its day, this engine was the finest made for fighting fires and prevented several conflagrations in the Comstock lode and in Truckee, but it finally outwore its usefulness for such a purpose.

It was christened the "Washoe" in Nevada, but its name plate has, with all the other ornaments, been removed, and in a few months more, the old engine will be thrown on a scrap heap.

YOUNG WIFE PROSTRATED.

Man Who Married Her Under Assumed Name Is Arrested on Old Embezzlement Charge.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUBURN, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An officer arrived here from San Francisco this afternoon to take charge of H. C. Flannagan, alias H. C. Wilson, wanted there for embezzlement, committed a year ago. Flannagan was arrested last night, but denied his identity until confronted with his photograph. He is charged with embezzling $1000 trusted to him by San Franciscans to be used in mining operations in Mexico. He asserts he used the money for the purpose intended, but that the mining venture was a failure, and that to escape the wrath of the investors he changed his name. He came here a year ago and started a motion picture show, but failed, since which time he has been operating an engine here for a railroad contracting firm. He married Mrs. Nellie Butt several months ago, using his assumed name. She is prostrated over the revelations concerning her husband.

ANOTHER FIRE.

San Diego Again Visited by Blaze, "the Origin of Which Is Unknown." Warehouse Burns.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fire tonight destroyed the large hay and grain warehouse of L. L. Irwin, located on the water front opposite the Santa Fé depot. The loss is estimated at $5000, as many tons of hay were practically destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown.

CONFERENCE.

LOVETT AND RIPLEY MEET.

Heads of S. P. and Santa Fe at San Francisco.

Trackage Arrangement One of Things Discussed.

Talk About a Union Station for Los Angeles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At a conference today President E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fé and Judge Lovett of the Southern Pacific conferred at length on matters concerning the two big systems.

Ripley admitted, guardedly, that there had been something said on the subject of "trackage arrangements in the South," and when he was asked if an agreement had been made between the two roads for the Santa Fé to use tracks of the Southern Pacific between Mojave and Los Angeles, Ripley also admitted that this had been discussed and that the Santa Fé was willing.

This proposition involves the opportunity for the Santa Fé to engage in the San Francisco-Los Angeles traffic, from which it has been hitherto excluded on account of the roundabout nature of its route via Barstow. It also involves an advantage to the Southern Pacific in running its Sunset freight over the Santa Fé's tracks from Los Angeles to Wickenburg, Ariz., via the new Bengal-Parker cut-off, saving much time and eliminating the heavy haul over the mountain grades. This cut-off is now on the point of completion.

Growing out of this discussion came the subject of a union passenger station at Los Angeles. Ripley made a guarded admission that this had been "spoken of," and Lovett said:

"What I announced to the people of Los Angeles is all that I can say on this subject at the present time. I told them that their city had outgrown our present station, but that the matter of building a new passenger station was one that would require some consideration."

"I would say the same thing of the passenger station in San Francisco," Lovett added.

UNDOING PINCHOT KNOTS.

Washingtonians Working to Get State Land Out of Forest Reserves. Claim Success.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of the modification of the regulations of the Interior Department, made in compliance with the demands of Land Commissioner Ross, Atty.-Gen. Bell announced at Washington yesterday that the State of Washington will be enabled to perfect selections of more than 35,000 acres of school lands.

The changes relieve the State of the embarrassment under which it labored heretofore, for in the past the best lands opened to entry were taken by settlers and speculators before the State could establish its claim. This is all done away with.

Ross and Bell are confident Congress will pass a bill authorizing the State to select compact bodies of land in forest reserves, in exchange for scattered school sections in reserves, and will be ready to avail themselves of this law as soon as it becomes effective.

Bell left for home today and Ross will start for Tacoma tomorrow. They went to Washington last Monday to undo former Forester Pinchot's regulations whereby State land of a total value of $6,000,000 are tied up in forest reserves.

ICY STARES FOR RIVALS.

Varsity Girls Declare Boycott on High School Belles for Monopolizing Males at Balls.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Icy, stony stares will hereafter be the greeting of pretty Seattle High School girls who attend dances at the University of Washington. These frigid glances will come from the fair university co-eds who have declared war upon the school-girls and formally declared they will be hereafter held ineligible.

"It's a shame," one fair co-ed of the Tolo Club is reported to have exclaimed. "Here we are, the cream of the 'varsity and to think these little High School chits have the audacity to attend our dances and monopolize everything that looks like a man. Isn't it awful?"

"We have decided to cut and snub any High School girl who attends any 'varsity function in the future," was the further declaration. "We're going to freeze them out. They are nice young things and all that, but they have no right to come out here and have a crowd hovering about 'em to our mortification. We shall ignore 'em entirely in the future."

HARD TO MARKET GRAIN.

FARMERS REJECT OFFERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The indications for an exceptionally large grain crop has caused the local grain buyers to make sharp cuts in the prices of wheat and barley and many of them do not care to even make an offer at present. Those who have been carefully watching the conditions assert that while the bumper crop here will have no influence on the general market, it is too early yet to fix prices. It is what is termed between seasons and outside prices have little effect here.

Wheat has declined $2 a ton here the past two or three weeks and barley has dropped sharply. Holders will not accept what they term the low figures of the present and buyers refuse to increase the prices, leaving trading at a standstill. From the present outlook the local warehouses will be taxed to care for the wheat and barley grown in this territory. Fairly cool weather will increase the plumpness of grain.

TWO EXTREMES MEET.

KENDALLVILLE (Ind.) April 8.—An 18-year-old high school girl, Loretta Locher, kept pace with Edward Payson Weston during the eighteen-mile walk from Ligonier to this city early today. Weston passed the night at Brimfield and started east at 4 o'clock, accompanied by Miss Locher, who said she would walk with the ORGANIZERS BREW TROUBLE.

Stir Up Dissatisfaction Among Machinists in Stockton and Walk-out Is the Result.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Being refused the privilege of organizing a union for their particular department, about forty machinists at the Samson Iron Works, one of the largest plants in the city, today walked out. Delegates from San Francisco have been here for several days making an effort to unionize the plant, with the result the machinists decided to act in a body. When they informed the manager that they would form a union he notified them he would insist on an open shop.

J. M. Kroyer, president of the company, says that competition is so keen that his firm cannot afford to reduce the hours or increase the pay of the men.

He also declares that union men from the outside caused dissension and forced the regulars out. He is of the opinion the trouble will be adjusted shortly, as heretofore, the relations between the firm and the men has been most cordial.

The machinists assert they wish to better their conditions and that an attempt will be made to unionize the city.

CHAMPION LADY FAN.

Wife of Portland Congressman Crosses Continent to Be at Opening of Baseball Season.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rather than miss the opening of the baseball season in Portland, Mrs. W. W. McCredie, wife of W. W. McCredie, representative in Congress, left Washington today and is making a trip across the continent.

Mrs. McCredie is an ardent fan as well as a strong partisan of the Portland team in the Pacific Coast League. She has missed few games during the past six seasons, and never has failed to be present at the opening game each year.

Representative McCredie up to a week ago had thought he would be enabled to come home for the opening of the season. When he found he could not leave Washington, Mrs. McCredie set out alone and will arrive in time to see the first game here on April 19.

Cartoons are published by the Yorodoau, and Niroku Shimbuns, the former depicting Uncle Sam leaning from a window hiding a benevolent looking face behind a mask. The Niroku presents Uncle Sam adding fire to an already overcharged furnace with the motto below: "Take Care You Don't Get Asphyxiated."

Attempt Made to Save Horses and Mules Said to Have the Glanders.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] State Veterinarian Charles Keane and his deputy, John Ivorson, were served with an injunction today from the Superior Courth of Fresno county to prevent them from killing thirty-four horses and five mules belonging to Miller & Lux, cattle kings of the San Joaquin Valley. The complaint says that the animals, which are in quarantine at Sullivan camp, Fresno county, are not afflicted with glanders, and unless the State authorities are restrained they will exterminate the horses and mules as victims of the disease. Mr. Keane stated today that the horses condemned have been given the Mallein test, and that he found them to be suffering from glanders in internal form, which makes it absolutely necessary to take precautions against the spread of the disease. He will fight the case in the courts.

STATISTICAL.

LOS ANGELES DISTANCES SAN FRANCISCO IN BUILDING RACE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, April 8.—Building operations during March throughout the country were on a pernomenal scale in point of money invested, according to advance sheets of the Construction News. Permits were issued in fifty-two principal cities for the construction of 20,718 buildings, involving a total estimated cost of $76,695,753, as compared with 17,481 buildings costing $69,058,184 the same month a year ago. There were increases in thirty-three cities and decreases in nineteen. The Construction News will say:

"The Pacific Coast is the center of interest for a great many persons who study the growth of cities, and for the first time the Coast presents contradictory conditions. San Francisco showing a decrease of 47 per cent., while Los Angeles has a gain of 49 per cent. Seattle has a loss of 42 per cent., and Portland a gain of 66 per cent. Oakland has an increase of 49 per cent., while San Diego makes a jump of 354 per cent. The decrease at Seattle should not be disheartening, as it is about time that city should have a lull because of previous tremendous activity.

"Conditions for a continuation of activity seem good in all parts of the country."

SECRETARY ISSUES WARRANT.

Extradition from Nevada Is Hotly Contested—Governor in Person Never Saw Papers.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO (Nev.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "The power of the Governor to issue executive warrants is one of the most sacred powers the Chief Executive has, and if the secretary to the Governor can issue warrants promiscuously, we had better do away with the high office of Governor and have only a secretary to the Governor at the head of this commonwealth."

Thus exclaimed Attorney P. A. McCaran this mornnig in arguing for the dismissal of Henry Reinach on a writ of habeas corpus. This now famous case is the outcome of the arrest of Reinach, a prominent Chicago contractor, who recently filed a suit for divorce, on the charge of wife abandonment from Illinois, a Chicago officer holding an order from the Governor for his extradition.

Released, because he has become a citizen of Nevada, Reinach was re-arrested under an order issued by the private secretary to the Governor, during the latter's absence from the Capitol, on a blank which was previously signed by the Governor, who has never seen the requisition papers, nor the warrant bearing his signature.

The illegality of the arrest is being bitterly fought by an array of lawyers for Reinach. The contest has now occupied three days. The Chief of Police is in an embarrassing position.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Rebuilding Stanford Chapel.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 8.—The reconstruction of the Leland Stanford Memorial chapel, which was destroyed in the earthquake, has been begun, and the steel skeleton of the church will be in place in a few weeks.

Engines Pump Fire Out.

COLTON (Utah) April 8.—The efficiency of two locomotive engines and an improvised fire apparatus probably saved this town from destruction today when fire enveloped an entire block in the business section. Three saloons, a general store and a hotel were burned. A number of lodgers were driven to the streets by the flames. As the buildings were all frame, the property loss is small.

Kitchener Off to Yosemite.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Viscount Lord Kitchener, field marshal of the British army, left tonight for a trip to the Yosemite Valley. Lord Kitchener dined at the Palace Hotel tonight with Gen. Thomas H. Barry, refusing a number of invitations extended to him, and continuing his refusal to grant interviews to representatives of newspapers. He is expected to return to San Francisco Monday.

MRS. SEIDEL IS ACCUSED.

Mayor's Wife in Milwaukee Named as One of Several Women in Assault Case.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Orren T. Williams today issued an order limiting the scope of an examination of Mrs. Lucy Seidel, wife of the Socialist Mayor-elect, and several other women members of the Forward Sick Benefit Society, by Helena Banofsky, which is for the purpose of securing facts on which Mrs. Banofsky wants to base a complaint for assault and battery.

All of the parties to the case are women. The plaintiff alleges that an assault was committed upon her by Mrs. Seidel and seven other women, while the plaintiff was acting as president of the Forward Sick Benefit Society.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE LEAGUE.

Women of St. Louis Are Not "Suffragettes," If You Please—Want Votes, However.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fifty of St. Louis's most prominent women, including several millionaires' wives, who organized the Equal Suffrage League, a branch of the National Women Suffrage Association, here, this afternoon rejected the militant feature and repudiated the "suffragette" as a term of contempt.

They explain that Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay is a suffragist and Mrs. Pankhurst is a suffragette. They elected these officers:

President, Mrs. Francis Wyman Richardson, former Postmaster Wyman's sister; first vice-president, Miss Marie Garesche of old St. Louis' French aristocracy; second vice-president, Mrs. Robert Atkinson, former president of the Wednesday Club, St. Louis' most exclusive organization; secretary, Miss Bertha Rombauer, Judge Rombauer's daughter; treasurer, Mrs. D. W. Knoder.

PARENT'S WRATH ON A RAMPAGE.

MRS. ANHEUSER TO SETTLE HER DAUGHTER'S TROUBLE.

Granddaughter of St. Louis Brewer Objects to Paying Dentist Twenty-five Dollars an Hour for His Work and Her Trunks Are Seized in Chicago Hotel.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Parental wrath is said to have descended on Miss Nellie Anheuser, granddaughter of the founder of a St. Louis brewery, over the attachment of her trunks by Dr. Albert Good, because of a bill for dental services. The young woman's mother talked to her over the telephone today and imparted the information that she expected to arrive in Chicago tomorrow to take charge of affairs. Mrs. Anheuser, who was in St. Louis seemed perturbed over the publicity given the case. She instructed her daughter to say nothing more about it.

Through Mrs. John W. Springer, a Colorado banker's wife, who accompanied her from St. Louis to attend the opera in Chicago, Miss Anheuser said:

"We may go back to St. Louis before the end of the week. It depends on what my mother has to say. I simply stood by my rights and see no reason why such a fuss should be made over the affair. We all object to paying bills which we feel that we do not owe."

Dr. Good, whose office is at No. 128 State street, and whose suit against Miss Anheuser resulted in seizing that young woman's trunk at the Congress Hotel, spent most of today dodging visitors. Dr. Good declared that the entire affair had given him considerable undesirable publicity and that he wasn't going to add anything to what has been said.

"But Miss Anheuser," he was told, "says that your services were not worth $25 an hour."

"Miss Anheuser has a nerve," began Dr. Good indignantly, and then stopped.

"I'm not going to talk about it at all—not at all," he said. "I don't care to discuss it in any manner. There's been too much said already. I don't feel like talking."

WASHINGTON.

"EASY TO LIE," CRIES LAWYER.

Brandeis Loses Temper in Cross-examination.

May Prosecute Glavis for Purloining Papers.

Expert Says Coal Situation Hurts Alaska.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Ballinger-Pinchot investigation dragged along wearisomely today with more testimony about the alleged discovery of twenty-four missing letters among Glavis's effects that had been left in the Federal building at Seattle.

The "defense" evidently is laying great store by this discovery and the hearings for the last three or four sessions have been given over almost entirely to this subject. A mass of documentary evidence was put in while Andrew Christensen, Glavis's successor as chief of field division at Seattle, was on the stand.

When he had concluded with the correspondence, Mr. Christensen told of the search among Glavis's effects in the Federal building. His account coincided with that of Assistant Custodian O'Neill.

The witness then was turned over to Brandeis for cross-examination.

"When you telegraphed Schwartz, February 5, about the finding of the letters, you made certain false statements, didn't you?" asked Brandeis.

WITNESS FLARES BACK.

"I did not," flared back the witness. "The only thing said in that telegram that was a mistake was that the box in which the papers were found was broken open. As a matter of fact, the top of the box was loose. The telegram was prepared in a hurry. We broke open several other boxes. It is easy to make a mistake like that."

"It is easy to lie," shouted Brandeis.

Senator Sutherland protested against this, saying it was not only offensive to the witness, but the committee as well.

Mr. Vertees said he desired to protest generally against Mr. Brandeis's method with witnesses.

Christensen thereupon was excused, and Alfred H. Brooks, a mineral expert of the Geological Survey, was called to the stand to testify as to coal conditions in Alaska.

Mr. Brooks said there are known to be about 12,000 square miles of coal-bearing rocks. Only about one-tenth of the coal area is known to be underlined with coal seams.

Mr. Brooks declared that if the Alaska fields were opened, it would mean a saving to the United States navy of at least $500,000 a year.

ALASKA CHIEF SUFFERER.

"Alaska is retrogressing," said Mr. Brooks. "People are becoming discouraged and are leaving. This is largely due to the coal situation. Without coal there can be no railroads, and without railroads there can be no business to speak of."

Up to this time, the witness declared, the visible coal supply in the United States has been consumed only to the amount of four-tenths of 1 per cent., leaving 99.6 yet to be mined.

It was evident from Brooks's statement of the case, that the value of the coal fields had generally been overestimated. Mr. Brooks said the coal in the Katalla field, where the Cunningham claims are located, is probably not worth more than half a cent a ton.

Mr. Brooks was still on the stand when the committee adjourned until tomorrow.

H. H. Schwartz, chief of field service, and Fred Dennett, Commissioner of the General Land Office, are other witnesses whose testimony will have an intimate and important bearing on the case. Both are likely to be cross-examined to the greatest length if Mr. Brandeis, the Glavis attorney, follows the precedent he has already set with the minor figures for the defense.

CALLS GLAVIS A LIAR.

In one of his letters to the department, Witness Christiansen declared Glavis showed "an utter disregard for the truth," and that nothing he said could be relied upon. He also said it was useless to interview Glavis alone; that the only way to talk to him was to have a stenographer present to take down all that was said.

In contemplation of bringing criminal proceedings against Glavis for embezzlement of the papers, it appeared that a list of possible witnesses had been prepared for grand jury use. This list included the publishers and editors of the weekly paper publishing the missing letters.

Christiansen said that prior to the discovery of the papers he had become convinced that Glavis had either sent them direct to the weekly or that he he had sent the papers to the forestry service and the officials of that service had furnished the letters to the weekly.

Glavis already had admitted sending copies of the letters to the forestry service, but denied sending them to the paper.

FLINT GETS IMPROVEMENTS.

Angeleno Secures Promise of Numerous Added Facilities for New Postoffice Building.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mott H. Flint urged on the supervising architect of the Treasury today the need of certain additional features in the new postoffice building at Los Angeles.

After listening to Flint, the architect agreed that there was necessity for and that the appropriation would probably permit of a pneumatic tube service within the building, and two additional elevators, one for the registry division, and a sidewalk elevator to handle the large quantities of supplies, stamped envelopes and postal cards which now come to Los Angeles in carload lots to be registered to neighboring offices.

He took up the question whether the building should be in the custody of the Postoffice Department or the Treasury Department, and the question will probably be settled tomorrow.

RUMORS ARE DENIED.

Cabinet Resignations Disclaimed by Knox, MacVeagh and by the President.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Flat denials were made today in all official directions of another crop of Cabinet resignation rumors, this time dealing with Secretary Knox and Secretary MacVeagh.

President Taft said he knew nothing of contemplated resignations by these or other Cabinet officials, and shortly after this statement Secretaries Knox and MacVeagh both made denials, the former verbally, but strongly, on his way into the executive offices to attend the regular Cabinet meeting, and the latter both formally and informally.

Mr. MacVeagh not only gave out a written statement, but personally declared he did not have the least intention of resigning now or in the near future, so far as he could see.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON (D. C.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The people of Newport Beach, who have protested against the segregation of a portion of Newport Bay by the State Fish and Game Commission to be used as a preserve, have been informed by the Secretary of War that they can have until April 11 to file their protests.

INDIANAPOLIS VISIT.

PLANS ARE UNCHANGED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Authoritative announcement was made at the White House this afternoon that the President had not changed his mind with respect to his decision not to visit Indianapolis May 5 on his way West.

ARIZONA MILITIA BENEFITS.

WILL HAVE MILITARY RANGE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—A military reservation probably will be created in Arizona for the benefit of the National Guard of that Territory, to be used as a target range. The Interior Department has withdrawn 640 acres from the public domain, twenty-five miles west of Phoenix, and Secretary Ballinger will recommend to the President that the area be reserved for military purposes.

LARGE SHIPMENTS WEST.

Railroads Report Enormous Freight Traffic to California, Oregon and Washington.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Where do the large Harriman earnings come from? To answer this frequent query two facts only need be noted. The development of the West has begun in earnest, and the Harriman lines have spent in the last ten years some $400,000,000 to get into the best possible shape to share the fruits of this development.

Traffic officials of both the Union and Southern Pacific say that eastbound shipments during the present fiscal year have just about held their own with the previous year, but that there has been a marked increase in westbound freight business. This is particularly true of shipments to California, Oregon and Washington, these States receiving a great amount of structural material and general eastern manufacturers, to take care of the increasing population, and a large supply of basic material for the increasing expanse in their own manufactures and general development.

The growing westward freight movement means more than average net earnings to the railroads, for the reason that much of their eastbound business, such as the products of forests and mines, is low-class, bulky freight, which has heretofore required a large return of empties to the West.

DIVIDES RESPONSIBILITY.

NAVAL SECRETARY REJECTS POLICY OF ONE-MAN CONTROL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—After working for years to develop the system of one-man control of the great fleets of the navy, Secretary Meyer has come to the conclusion that the abilities of the individuals have reached the breaking point and that it will be necessary to subdivide the responsibility.

Therefore, he has approved a number of changes in the naval regulations concerning the administration of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets.

The main purpose of these changes is to relieve the commanders-in-chief of much of the details of administration. This is to be accomplished by transferring to rear-admirals in command of each division of the fleets, comprising four ships each, a large measure of authority and administrative power, which will have the result of fitting them to succeed readily to the chief command.

At the same time, the commander-in-chief will exercise supervisory authority over all the divisions instead of over single ships as units.

Extending the idea, the commanders of divisions will be given an opportunity to sail away with their four ships to different parts of the world on detached service, with the understanding that the various divisions will at certain periods be gathered for target practice and general fleet exercises.

FORT WAYNE (Ind.) April 8.—Bluffton is a dry town, and to this is due, anti-saloon people say, the fact that there are no prisoners in the Wells County Jail, which housed the chorus JAIL HOUSES CHORUS GIRLS. of a light opera company last night. The Methodist conference is in session, and all the hotels were packed to the limit, so there was no other place open to the girls. The company arrived during the afternoon and the manager found every hotel and lodging-house crowded. A few members of the company succeeded in securing quarters, but no place could be found for ten of the chorus girls. Finally it was suggested that sleeping room could be secured at the County Jail. The manager broached the matter to the girls and they consented to go there.

DEFENDS DANCING.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, April 8.—Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of Chicago's schools, believes in dancing. "It is a question of the happiness, joy and grace of the boys and girls," she said in an address before the Men's Club of Irving Park Methodist Church last night. "I think some way can be found around the round dances that are so objectionable to many parents. I have an idea it will be possible to substitute some dances for the ones objected to. Not long ago I saw some school children go through an Indian dance that made we want to dance myself." "We Methodists are unalterably opposed to dancing," said the Rev. A. S. Haskins, pastor of the church, after Mrs. Young had finished her address. "Denatured folk dancing might be admissible under certain circumstances, but I am certain that high school boys will never throw themselves with any abandon into dancing by themselves."

BLINDED BY CURLING IRON.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

DUENWEG (Mo.) April 8.—Startled by the bark of a dog while curling her hair yesterday, Mrs. Sadie Conkey thrust the curling iron into her right eye, blinding herself. She fainted from pain and physicians say the injury to the eye is permanent.

REPUBLICAN TO CORE.

PROCLAIMS HIS PARTY FAITH.

"UNCLE JOE" PLEASED BY KEEN ANALYSIS OF CHARACTER.

Clever Woman Says That Speaker Cannon Is "a Little Five-Foot-Five, Rapid-Firing Gun, Always Trained on the Enemy"—Good Friend, Unrelenting Foe, Still in Ring.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MILWAUKEE, April 8.—"I have always believed in the principles and policies of the Republican party, and expect so long as I live to keep the Republican faith. In my opinion, it is better to fight and fail—if fail we must—than to win at the sacrifice of those policies and principles, and have victory, like Dead Sea fruit, turn to ashes on the lips."

This is the substance of a letter written by Speaker Cannon to Mrs. Kate Ridsdale of Milwaukee, in acknowledgement of the pleasure given him by reading a report of Mrs. Ridsdale's Current Topics talk on Speaker Cannon and the recent fight in the House, which she gave recently at the Young Women's Christian Association.

Giving an analysis of Mr. Cannon, Mrs. Ridsdale described him in this way:

"Just one nerve, composed of one part magnetism, two parts irrascible dominance—a little tense, five-foot-five, rapid-firing gun, with a cigar instead of a ramrod, always trained on the enemy, spitting bullets by the thousand, each one finding its billet and leaving a gash.

"And again: 'Be something,' is Speaker Cannon's slogan. He is no Tomlinson, whose lack of individuality barred him from right to a place either in heaven or hell. Uncle Joe's supporters say he's all white, his foes declared him unrelieved black. He may be either, or both. But not even the most color-blind could mistake him for drab. He is an individual, a good friend, an unrelenting foe, and whether right or wrong, a 'first-class fighting man'—74 years old and still in the ring."

GAYNOR TO GET LIBERTY.

Gotham Mayor's Son Will Soon Be Free of Woman Who Has Another Husband Living.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rufus W. Gaynor, son of the Mayor, is suing to annul his marriage with Maria Oddo, and a referee who has been taking evidence has advised the court to grant the petition on the ground that the woman had a husband living at the time of her marriage to young Gaynor.

The young man was a student at Amherst College about a year ago. He met the young woman whom he married in Boston on the occasion of a dinner. They went together to Chicago and were married there.

The bride was a pupil in the Conservatory of Music in Boston. She was introduced to young Gaynor as Miss May Queen, and was married under that name.

SIXTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

HOUSE VOTES BATTLESHIPS.

Party Lines Ignored on Bill for Navy.

All Amendments Promptly Rejected.

Tawney's "One-Ship" Move Meets Defeat.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—By a decisive vote of 162 to 110, fourteen being present and not voting, the House late today authorized the construction of two battleships, to cost $6,000,000 each. Thirty-three Democrats voted for two battleships, and twenty-four Republicans against the proposition.

This action was taken just prior to the passage of the Naval Appropriation Bill, carrying $128,037,602. This amount is about $3,000,000 less than was recommended by the Navy Department.

In addition to the two battleships, the bill also provides for the construction of two fleet colliers and four submarines.

The Committee on Naval Affairs had reported in favor of two battleships. Mr. Tawney, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, offered an amendment providing for only one battleship, while Mr. Hobson proposed an amendment providing for three. By an almost unanimous vote, the House rejected Hobson's proposition.

Mr. Gronna of North Dakota moved to strike out the authorization for the construction of any battleships, but a viva voce vote showed there were not a handful of advocates of a "no battleship" policy.

Mr. Thomas of Ohio proposed an amendment for four battleships, but the House voted it down almost unanimously.

TAWNEY VOTED DOWN.

Mr. Tawney's amendment for one battleship was lost by a vote of 104 to 138.

At least thirty Democrats voted with the Republicans against Mr. Tawney's plan.

Mr. Goldfogle of New York offered an amendment providing that at least one battleship be constructed at a navy yard, the second to be built either by contract or at a navy yard. After extended discussion, Mr. Mann of Illinois, who occupied the chair, declared the amendment out of order.

An effort was made by Mr. Norris of Nebraska, an insurgent, to amend the bill to provide for one battleship and six transports, the latter to cost $1,000,000 each. The amendment was ruled out of order.

A strong speech against a two-battleship policy was made by Mr. Bartholdt of Missouri, the House "Apostle of Peace."

Representative J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia attempted to induce the House to limit the draft of the new battleships to thirty feet, but his amendment was rejected.

A point of order was sustained eliminating from the bill authority for the construction of a $1,000,000 fleet collier to be built on the Pacific Coast by private contract. Under the existing law it will be constructed in a government navy yard on the Pacific Coast.

The appropriation of $1,000,000 for one repair ship was also stricken out on a point of order.

EIGHT-HOUR LAW FAVORED.

Mr. Fitzgerald of New York offered an amendment which was adopted by a vote of 121 to 15, under which the two battleships and two fleet colliers must be built by firms working under the eight-hour law.

Following closely upon this action, Mr. Hughes of New Jersey attempted to have the same law applied to the building of four submarine torpedo boats authorized by the bill. The amendment was ruled out of order.

Mr. Goldfogle of New York offered an amendment directing the construction of one battleship in a navy yard. The amendment was defeated, 93 to 193.

The provision permitting the consolidation of bureaus of the Navy Department, according to the plan of Secretary Meyer, was stricken out on a point of order.

Mr. Padgett of Tennessee, senior Democratic member of the Committee on Naval Affairs, then moved to recommit the bill, with instructions that it be reported to the House to provide for only one battleship. This motion was defeated on a roll call, 110 to 162, fourteen being present and not voting.

PARTY LINES WIPED OUT.

Thirty-three Democrats voted with the Republicans for two battleships, while twenty-four Republicans joined the Democrats in favor of one.

The Democrats voting for two battleships were: Aiken, South Carolina; Alexander, Missouri; Ansberry, Ohio; Bartlett, Nevada; Burleson, Texas; Carlin, Virginia; Clark, Florida; Cox, Ohio; Craig, Alabama; Cravens, Arkansas; D. A. Driscoll, New York; Gill, Maryland; Gillespie, Texas; Goldfogle, New York; Hammill, New Jersey; Harrison, New York; Hobson, Alabama; Hughes, New Jersey; Humphreys, Mississippi; Jones, Virginia; Martin, Colorado; Maynard, Virginia; Moon, Tennessee; O'Connell, Massachusetts; A. Mitchell Palmer, Pennsylvania; Pou, North Carolina; Pujo, Louisiana; Rauch, Indiana; Robinson, Arkansas; Rothermel, Pennsylvania; Sherley, Kentucky; Sulzer, New York; Talbott, Maryland.

Republicans voting with the Democrats for one battleship were: Bartholdt, Crow, Missouri; Davis, Lindberg, Tawney, Volstead, Nye, Minnesota; Gardner, Michigan; Goebel, Howland, Ohio; Gronna, North Dakota; Hamer, Idaho; Henry, Connecticut; Lawrence, Merrill, Massachusetts; Lenroot, Morse, Nelson, Stafford, Wisconsin; McCall, Massachusetts; Murphy, Missouri; Norris, Nebraska; Prince, Illinois; Wilson, Illinois.

TIME BEATEN IN RACE.

Specials Save Milwaukee Man Six Days in Rush to Side of Sick Father.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A rapid trip, with special trains en route, and a special tug at New York, enabled Charles J. McIntosh of Milwaukee, son of Charles L. McIntosh, a Racine millionaire, to catch the steamer La Touraine opposite Ellis Island yesterday and save six days on a trip to the bedside of his dying father at Naples.

At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning Mr. McIntosh received a cablegram that his father had been stricken in Naples. At 11 o'clock the Pennsylvania's eighteen-hour train leaves Chicago for New York. Before that time, however, Mr. McIntosh had secured a special for Chicago, caught the Limited, and, en route, arranged for a tug to follow the La Touraine out of the harbor before the big liner got under full speed, for the steamer leaves New York at the same time the Limited was due to arrive. A message from New York today, delivered to the tug captain, as Mr. McIntosh left the tug for the steamer off Ellis Island, told of the victory in the race against time.

PATROLMAN SHOT.

as soon as he was told, the man only threw up his left hand. He did not throw it up very high, and his right went down toward his hip pocket. In putting up his left arm, he pulled up his coat, and, by the light from the street I could see his star shining on his vest under his coat.

"'He's an officer,' said one of the robbers.

"'That's nothing, hold him up anyhow,' the other fellow answered.

"It all went through pretty fast, and as soon as they noticed the officer reaching down for his gun, one of them fired.

"By that time the officer had his gun out and he shot, but he already had been hit. He did not fall right away, but fired a couple of shots and then went down. After falling on the sidewalk he kept on shooting, but the robbers had turned at the first shot and were running away, firing as they ran. I guess there were about twelve shots fired in all.

The robbers ran right by me as I hid behind the, pole. They went up Grand avenue past Thirtieth street, and then, when about the middle of the block, ran diagonally to the west side of the street into the shadow of the trees. I did not see them after that, and I thought they had gone into some vacant lot or through some alley."

Monter told about the same story, except that he was too far away to hear what had been said between the men who, he explained, were not more than ten or twelve feet apart when the shooting commenced.

DYING MAN EXPLAINS.

Officer Brooks was shot through the body. Only one of the shots fired at him had taken effect, but it entered the body on the median line, below the lower ribs, passed through the intestines, severed the abdominal artery, passed through the liver and made its exit on the right side, almost exactly opposite the point where it had entered. The man who shot him evidently fired from the waist.

But even this grievious wound did not rob Brooks of his phenomenal nerve. His one regret was that his shots had gone wild, and he tried to explain this humbly, almost apologizing for what he felt was a dereliction.

Mrs. Taggart, the wife of Dr. T. E. Taggart, who lives on Grand avenue, near the corner of Thirtieth street, heard the shots and also heard the robbers run past her home. She guessed that someone had been hurt and hurried the doctor out to see if he could of any service.

Dr. Taggert ran to the corner and soon found Brooks, prostrate on the sidewalk.

"Footpads shot me," Brooks said feebly. He was fast losing strength, and the desperate nature of his wound, to the physician, was apparent at a glance. Dr. Taggert hailed a passing automobile and pressed it into service. The wounded officer was started toward the Receiving Hospital as fast as a gasoline motor could carry him.

But even suffering as he must have been, with the jolting of the car and the pain of the wound, Brooks tried to explain.

"If I had only been a little quicker," he said between gasps, "I would have got those fellows." He pondered thus ruefully awhile, then signed to Dr. Taggart that he had something more to say.

"OUGHT TO HAVE GOT 'EM."

"I ought to have got 'em, but I was a little nervous—I was a little shaky, you know, I——"

"Yes, yes, don't worry; it's all right," said the doctor soothingly, and Brooks was silent for awhile, but the fact that he had missed the highwaymen still worried him. In the Receiving Hospital, but a few minutes before death closed his lips forever, he again expressed his regrets over the marksmanship that had been spoiled by the bullet through his body. He died about ten minutes after he had been laid upon the operating table.

The owner of the automobile in which Brooks was carried to the hospital did not know where to find the new entrance to the Receiving Hospital and drove his car to the old entrance at police headquarters on First street, and several minutes were lost in carrying the wounded man around to the Hill-street entrance.

When Officer Brooks was undressed in the hospital, it was found that he had emptied his revolver in his efforts to hit one of the highwaymen.

The Coroner was notified of the death and the body was removed to the Pierce Bros.' morgue, where the inquest will probably be held.

Patrolman Brooks had one of the most satisfactory records of any officer of the University Station. While he had not made a record for himself by notable captures, he had paid steadfast of the department. He went on the police force in the early part of 1903 and had been detailed to the University Station ever since, having ranked as patrolman since the time of his enlistment.

DESCRIPTION OF BANDITS.

The description of the men who shot down Patrolman Brooks and of those who held up the Winters saloon tallies closely in every respect, and this, taken together with the fact that the time at which the two crimes were committed would have allowed of no more than just enough time to walk from the saloon to the scene of the killing, has convinced the police that both crimes were committed by the same two men.

Both of the bandits are said to be young, possibly between 21 and 28 years of age. They were about five feet, six or eight inches in height, of rather slender build, and they wore dark clothes and soft black hats.

NOT AN AMERICAN NOW.

Naturalization Papers Obtained Fraudulently by Subject of the Czar Are Now Canceled.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, April 8.—Naturalization papers of "Count" Nicholas Erasme Savine de Toulouse Lautrec, alias "Prince" Nicholas Savine, were canceled yesterday by Judge K. M. Landis, in the Federal District Court.

As a consequence the "Count" will no longer be heeded by American Ambassadors in Europe, should he appeal to them, as an American citizen, for protection against the European police. The naturalization papers were issued April 27, 1908, by Judge Gibbons in the Circuit Court.

Lautrec "renounced the Czar of Russia" and swore he had been in the United States five years, as required by naturalization laws. The government charges he had been here less than five years and that nearly everything he swore to was untrue.

The "Count" now is in custody at Antwerp, Belgium, pending extradition papers on behalf of the government of Denmark, where he is wanted for obtaining money on fraudulent checks. Only a few months ago he finished serving a term in prison at Antwerp, on a charge of passing worthless checks.

Lautrec was sent to Siberia once by the Russian authorities, but escaped, and got out of the country on an "emergency passport," obtained from the American Embassy at St. Petersburg on the strength of his American citizenship papers.

Stambouloff, the Bulgarian dictator, was on the point of placing him on the throne of Bulgaria, but discovered his mistake in time.

TRY TO HOLD UP TRAIN.

Two Masked Men Board Limited, But Plucky Conductor Foils Them. Reports Conflict.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) April 8.—Two masked bandits attempted early today to hold up the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad's Pioneer Limited. The men boarded the train at New Lisbon, Wis., getting in by way of the forward vestibule of the front sleeper, which had been left open when the conductor took his orders to the engineer. The men passed through the front sleeper into the rear vestibule of the car, blocking both doors of the vestibule.

When Conductor Shumway passed through the train he was stopped by the locked vestibule door. Unlocking the door, he was instantly confronted by revolvers held by two masked figures.

Shumway leaped at the larger of the bandits. A tussle followed in which the railroad man was overpowered. One robber then reached down under the steps and cut the air connection, stopping the train. The men then jumped off and fled.

From Mauston, Wis., comes the report that the men took a gold watch and a $450 ring from Conductor Shumway. This report also says the robbers went through the day coaches and held up the passengers, obtaining considerable cash. The report is not confirmed.

Deadly Calmness of Action Appals Crowd.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The sudden dash for liberty of a military prisoner was stopped this morning on the Folsom-street wharf by the bullets of a squad of soldiers. Eight rifles spit fire as he ran. He stumbled and then fled on. Again there was a volley. He jumped high in the air, came down, staggered on for thirty feet more, and fell dead.

C. J. Collins, a military prisoner, had been tried, found guilty and executed by his guards in the short space of ten seconds.

It was a most spectacular tragedy while it lasted, and grim is the lesson it taught of the harshness of military rule. There was no hesitation, no flurry. The guards saw a prisoner on the run. It was their duty to stop him. As one man, without command, they aimed their rifles at the fugitive and fired. They kept on firing till he fell.

Having done their duty by preventing the escape of a prisoner, they reported the matter to their superior officers, who took charge of the body. Then they returned calmly to their duty of guarding the other military prisoners entrusted to their charge.

Collins was one of a detail of military prisoners sent to the transport dock from Alcatraz.

UNIQUE ROBBERY.

HE NEEDED THE MONEY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Alfonso Boswell, confessing upon his arrest that he was the man wanted, was taken in charge last night by the police and held for one of the most unique robberies in the criminal annals of Washington. In broad daylight last Tuesday, Boswell drove an express wagon, which he had hired, to the front of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, backed it to the curb, went into the building, lugged out twelve chairs, stowed them in the wagon and drove away. Boswell's confession was naive. He said he did it because he needed the money, as he didn't work — in fact, hadn't worked for twenty years — and his friends whom he had been accustomed to "touch" from time to time had grown tired of the process.

BILKED LOVERS BY MAIL.

WOMAN IN FEDERAL TOILS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

PITTSBURGH, April 8.—Allie Peterson is charged in a true bill returned by the Federal grand jury with having used the mails to conduct a fraudulent matrimonial scheme in which she was the bait. The woman is said to have had a large correspondence with men in Western cities, and when love affairs had ripened to a proper point she would ask them to send money for her fare to their town, promising to marry them. Among the exhibits offered by the Postoffice Inspectors are a number of fervent letters. One was addressed to J. Frank Ross of Eugene, Or., whom she requested to send her $100. Another was to Frank E. Burke, Angelo, Ind. She asked Frank to send $35. The third letter is to Ben O. Baker, Ambrose, N. D. In this letter the writer asks for $57.82.

After an investigation showing three cases of total blindness reported to the New York City Health Department were due to wood alcohol in drinks purchased in East Side saloons, a crusade to stop the sale of the poison has been started by the department. A statement says the victims were made permanently blind by a single drink, through atrophy of the optic nerve. Four of the victims who drank wood alcohol at night died before morning.

STEEN LOSES TWO-HIT GAME.

Muff by Speas Starts Defeat for Fine Heaver.

Fine Fielding Features Very Speedy Contest.

Vernon, 2; Portland, 1.

Spectacular running catches, a home run, great pitching, a close score that kept the fans on their toes from start to finish, and the fastest game of the season were the features of the ball game yesterday between the Vernons and Portland; and it may be months and years before the cranks see another struggle like it. There was almost everything that any one would care to look at, and a man that could not get his fill of baseball joy would not bet on a 20-to-1 shot if he knew it was to be shooed in.

The greatest thing of the day was the appearance of Portland's fine young heaver, Steen, and he made good on his gilt-edged rep by heaving a two-hit game. A lot of persons cannot often imagine why a team can win with two swats, but Vernon did yesterday, because one of these pokes was a home run and the other followed a two-base error in left field, with two out. As there was but one error for each team, a blind man could see that there was some genuine ball playing.

Steen looks like a real live one, and he performs so easily that he is sure to make every team in the league work a lot of heads off to beat him, for he appears to have everything. He fanned but two men, but as a pitcher's ability is judged by his power to make them knock the pill where someone is, rather than in strike-outs, his few fans signified nothing. He has all kinds of curves, both speedy and slow ones, and is doubtless a better flinger than Henshing, and that is saying a good deal. Martinke's homer was the only real hit off him, for Coy's slam to center in the seventh was a fly that Ryan should have had.

Bill Fisher's playing at first base made everything else seem cheap in the fielding line, and he again showed himself the best first baseman in the league, bar none. He made a great pickup of Kit Brashear's low throw in the third; a wonderful low stretch to get Lindsay's low throw of Speas's grounder in the fifth, and showed a fine one-handed catch of Lindsay's throw in the eighth. His playing was by long odds the best thing of the afternoon in fielding.

Coy and Speas outdid themselves in running catches; Lindsay, Casey and Netzel grabbed everything that went their ways, and altogether the men on both teams put up a game that they may not equal this year. The heaving was too good to make the game a satisfactory one in the swat line, but all the enthusiasm that was missing on this account was more than made up in the fielding.

Hensling was in fine form, and Gus Fisher made the only hit off him in six innings. Olsen started the seventh with a poke to left, went to second on Casey's neat sacrifice, and to third on McCredie's infield out. Then Ryan hit a cannon-shot drive at Hensling and the ball glanced off the kid's feet toward left field and out of Kit Brashear's reach, allowing Olsen to score the only run for the Beavers.

The only errors in the game were Speas's muff of Martinke's fly and Hensling's blunder in failing to step on first base after taking a throw from Bill Fisher. Speaking about speed, the game was played in an hour and eighteen minutes, and this may be the record game of the season, if no deliberate attempt is made to lower it by horse ball.

GOOD HITTING BY CAP'S MEN..

THORSEN BLANKS SENATORS IN FAST FIELDING GAME.

Bernard Spikes Boardman and Tears Off His Big Toe Nail—Two to Nothing Contest in Which Los Angeles Does Some Pretty Fielding, Delmas at Short Being the Star.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Opportune hitting and fast fielding won for the Angels this afternoon, Dillon and his southern gentlemen taking off their third win of the series to date by a score of 2 to 0.

Boardman was spiked by Bernard in the seventh inning. The sharp spike on Bernard's right shoe ripped open Boardman's shoe as the Angel player slid into third base and Boardman lost his big toenail. His injury is painful and will keep him out of the running for a few weeks. With Damaig and Fournier on the sick list, Graham now has a small-sized sanatorium.

Delmas, at shortstop for the Angels, displayed elegant form; he took eight chances in lightning order, and his throwing to first was perfect. Roth, at third for Los Angeles, also played an excellent game.

The feature of the game was the circus catch made in the sixth inning by Pearsons, the Senators' centergardener. Pearsons went back after a long drive from the bat of Delmas, stabbed the ball with his gloved hand, turned two flip-flops, took a couple of rolls, and came up with the ball still clutched in his hand. On his way to the bench, the circus performer was given a big hand by the bugs.

Thorsen pitched a steady game for the Angels and fielded his position well. Hunt, for the Senators, was a bit off, giving three bases on balls, making a wild pitch and slamming Capt. Dillon on the arm. Seven of the Angels were struck out by Hunt.

The Angels started scoring in the third inning, after Thorsen had opened the frame by striking out. Daley, the next man at bat, drew a pass, and Bernard drove a long single to center field, scoring Daley. Pearsons, who fielded Bernard's drive, fooled the ball, allowing the runner to skim well on his way toward third base before throwing to Raymer to cut him off. Raymer took the throw and Bernard darted back to second, landing safe when Raymer struck him in the back with the ball in an attempt to throw to Briggs, who had ambled in from right field to cover the second bag. Ross hit to Raymer and was thrown out at first, and Dillon ended the inning by flying to Raymer.

Snappy fielding by both teams kept the score down until the seventh inning, when the Angels grabbed another tally. After Orendorff and Thorsen had fanned out, Daley got a life when he banged one at Shinn which was booted. He went to second on a wild pitch by Hunt. A free pass was given to Bernard, and Ross hammered the ball into left field, scoring Daley. Bernard was retired at third base by Perry, who fielded the drive made by Ross in lightning fashion.

In sliding into third, Bernard spiked Boardman severely, and Darringer replaced him. The Senators got a man around to third base in both the eighth and ninth innings, but fast fielding by the Angels prevented a run being made.

RAGGED SUPPORT OFFSETS THE PITCHING OF SMITH.

Four Errors in Succession in Eighth Inning Allow Three Runs to Score. Pitchers' Battle at Oakland, With One Run Scored—Stockton Again Short-ender.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

FRESNO, April 8.—The San José State Leaguers made it two straight over the Tigers today, finishing on the long end of a 5 to 1 score.

Smith, the Fresno pitcher, twirled good ball but his support was ragged. In the eighth frame the Tigers made four errors in succession behind Smith and San José scored three runs.

Townsend's two-bagger in the third scored Peters and Baldwin with the Prune Pickers' first tally. The Tigers were unable to score after the first inning, when Dickinson completed the circuit on a pass, Householder's drive and Kuhn's long fly to Schlee. Score:

IT WAS PITCHERS' BATTLE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

OAKLAND, April 8.—Clever pitching by Meikle gave the new San Francisco club a 1 to 0 victory over Oakland, on the Oakland State League grounds this afternoon.

The game was a pitchers' battle, Moskiman and Meikle fanning five each. It was on the former's issuing a pass in the first inning that San Francisco got its one run. In the ninth Oakland appeared to have a chance to tie the score, with Hackett and Moskiman on the bases, but Meikle pitched flawless ball, and they died on the bases. Score:

Postpones Boxing to Remain in the Mountains.

Berger Dickers With Moving Picture Managers.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BEN LOMOND (Cal.) April 8.—Climbing mountain trails and wading the pools where the game trout abound formed the greater part of James J. Jeffries' training today. Manager Sam Berger had announced that there would be boxing today with Bob Armstrong, the giant negro pugilist, but the lure of the woods was too strong for Jeffries, and besides, the roof was not off the gymnasium.

Jeffries is going in strong for the close-to-nature cult. He plans to sleep out-of-doors, eat out-of-doors, and do all his boxing in an open-air gym. There will be a wall around it, so the humble visitor to the camp will not be able to see the great fighter in action without paying for it, but the blue sky will smile overhead and the pines and the ocean will do their best to put the twinge of life in the air that the champion breathes.

After his usual morning road work, which called for a ten-mile jaunt, Jeff and a local hooking expert started along the San Lorenzo River to seek the speckled beauties. They were successful, bringing into camp a string of seventy fish.

In the afternoon the skipping rope was brought into play. Jeff worked at this for about ten minutes. He complained of a stiffness in his arms and shoulders, but after the handball was brought out and he had worked at that at his usual breakneck speed for an hour or so, he said he felt all right.

The first boxing now is scheduled for Sunday, but it depends upon whether the gym is ready by that time.

Berger left the camp for San Francisco today. Just before he took the train he telegraphed a good offer to Joe Choynski to come to the Coast at once and join Jeffries' camp as sparring partner. Choynski was requested to reply at once so that other arrangements could be made if he did not want to come.

Berger is dickering with moving-picture men on the proposition of taking Jeffries in the various stunts around the camp, with an idea of paying the training expenses.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—"One Round" Hogan, and John McCarthy fought through four rounds of furious milling to a draw decision at Dreamland Rink tonight. Ed Campi, of San Francisco, worsted Jimmy Austin of Los Angeles, in a four-round go.

Walsh Beats Greenwald.

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As pretty a ten round fight as one would want to see was that tonight between Jimmy Walsh, of Boston, and Eddie Greenwald, of Milwaukee, in which Walsh by fast work in the last four rounds was returned the winner, or would have been if the police allowed decisions. Walsh was fighting strong at the end of the battle, while Greenwald was weakening and was shaky at the knees.

SOUTHERN CHAMPIONS.

Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. Defeats Riverside in One-Sided Basketball Contest.

The Y.M.C.A. Spartans won the Southern California basketball championship last night when they defeated the five from the Riverside Y.M.C.A. at the former's gymnasium by the score of 40 to 7.

The contest was wholly one-sided. The visitors were totally outclassed, not once playing up to the standard of their opponents. Their team work was wretched, their passing poor and their only redeeming feature was their guarding. Time after time the Riverside team would get the ball down to their opponents' goal only to lose it again after trying to score in the three or four chances which they always got.

Although the game was one-sided it was very rough. Time was called at least four times for injuries during the game. Rea, guard for Riverside, was put out of the game in the second half with a badly injured nose. Many players were thrown to the floor.

In the first half the local team started things rolling with a goal in the first two minutes of play. Thereafter the performance was repeated at the same rate, only letting up to allow the visitors to score once from the field and once on a foul. The half ended with the score 16 to 3 in favor of the home team.

In the second half the Riverside team started out as if it was going to do something but they soon forgot about it and allowed their opponents to run up a score of 24 to 4 points, making a total of 40 to 7.

The line-up:

Y.M.C.A.		Riverside.
Bikeles	forward	Rea, Whyley
Story	forward	Wilson
Sostwick	center	Dole
Golding, Dove	guard	Peters
Caplan	guard	Coffey

Frank Conger at once took the child home with him to live and subsequently adopted her. Meanwhile an action, directed by Conger resulted in her recovering $14,000 from the railroad company for the death of her father and mother. Conger throughout her minority acted as her guardian.

The applicant alleges that her foster father, has never accounted for the $14,000. A search of the record shows that on making application to be appointed guardian, Frank Conger presented a written agreement signed by Peter and Catherine Brubaker of Van Wert, O., grandparents of the infant, that the petitioner should adopt the child. The bond signed by Frank Con-of Cambridge, O.; also a banker and business man, who is the president of the company. George E. Hart, who is one of the leading real estate men of Los Angeles, is secretary of the company. France and associates paid cash for this land and also purchased 160 acres in section 4, 31-24, in North Midway district.

The directory of the company is Judge J. W. Campbell, W. A. France, George E. Hart, Lee B. Durstine, president of the North American Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J.; Congressman Nathan W. Hale of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mr. Luckey, railroad contractor; Frank F. Peard, broker, Baltimore, and S. P. Mulford, attorney; Sydney Smith and G. G. Gillette of Los Angeles.

One hundred and sixty acres of the land this company owns in Kern River field they assert to be proven oil land, with 250 to 275 feet of oil sand. The wells will produce from forty to sixty barrels per day and will produce for the next thirty years. While these wells are not gushers, they are producing and money-making wells. The company has its property paid for and $40,000 in the treasury to begin drilling with. The company is incorporated for $1,500,000.

The company proposes to sink eighty wells immediately.

TO ATTACK WILL AGAIN.

Suit Will Be Filed Today in Second Attempt to Secure Possession of Fortune.

Proceedings will be started today in the second attempt to have set aside the will of Bartolo Ballerino, filed in July, 1909, in favor of Della Garrison Quien, by Jeanne Uhalt, who declares she has the only regular will of Ballerino, which disposes of an estate valued at about $400,000. Attorney E. L. Hutchison will file a suit today in the Superior Court in the matter that has had so much attention.

This petition asks that the court set aside the will alleged to have been made in July, 1909, and admit to probate a will made in favor of Jeanne Uhalt and dated January 14, 1905. The petitioner states that the prior instrument is one of at least four wills made by Ballerino, and that it is in his own writing and was made without fraud, intimidation or any influence, and that the maker of the instrument had frequently stated that he desired to dispose of his estate in the manner set forth in the will of 1905. She also states that Ballerino gave the will into her possession after it was completed; and that the will now in favor of Della Garrison Quien does not dispose of the fortune as Ballerino desired.

The petition alleges that the will which is being attacked was not witnessed by the persons whose names are attached to the document, and that at the time the alleged instrument was made Ballerino was of unsound mind and incompetent to transact any business.

NEGRO DESPERADO HANGED.

Oklahoma Exacts Vengeance on Triple Murderer—Had Sensational Crime Record.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WATONGA (Okla.) April 8.—Alf Hunter, the negro desperado and triple murderer, notorious throughout this part of the Southwest, was hanged here at 11:05 o'clock this morning. He made a short speech on the scaffold, saying he was ready to go. It was seventeen minutes before Hunter was pronounced dead.

Hunter declared that Ed Ellis, now serving a life term at McAlester for complicity in the murder of former Sheriff Garrison, was innocent, and made a complete confession of his crimes.

Hunter, alias James Kingsburg, murdered Sheriff George W. Garrison of Oklahoma county on June 1, 1906, near Hitchcock, Blaine county, Oklahoma.

Sheriff Garrison and his deputies were attempting to arrest the negro, who a few days before had killed a negress in Oklahoma City because he feared she would betray his whereabouts to the authorities in Arkansas, where he was wanted on a murder charge.

Hiding behind a wheat stack, Hunter waited until the Oklahoma officers were near him and then fired upon them. He killed Sheriff Garrison and seriously wounded Deputy Sheriff Fate Sanders, and escaped.

Rewards aggregating $3400 were offered for his arrest, and for several days hundreds of men engaged in a sensational chase of the negro. Hunter eluded his pursuers and went back to Arkansas. He was captured at Pine Bluff last September. He confessed the several crimes charged to him and was brought to Oklahoma and sentenced to death.

Central Hudson Western Express No. 83 was wrecked a short distance west of Oriskany early yesterday. Michael Bacsset, a fireman, was killed. None of the passengers was seriously injured. A west-bound freight collided with a shifter and four cars, throwing one of the cars over across the west-bound passenger track. At that moment the Western Express crashed into the freight car. Four out of the six passenger coaches were thrown from the rails.

FIRE TRAP.

DANGER LURKS IN CITY HALL.

Building Is Doomed If Blaze Gains Headway.

Paper-Covered Pipes Menace the Structure.

Official Fails to Order the Rubbish Removed.

The City Hall is a fire trap. It has been known to be a fire trap for years. Conditions exist which would not be tolerated in any private building in the city. It is at the mercy of the first blaze which gains the slightest headway. The authorities awoke to the fact yesterday.

A fire broke out among a pile of rubbish in the janitor's office in the basement, early Thursday morning, which was discovered by the merest accident. Cement Tester Martin happened to be working in his office adjoining the janitor's room and saw smoke pouring through a hole in the wooden partition. The janitor was in some other portion of the building, and the door was locked. But there was ample vent for the fire. Beside the hole in the partition, through which the steam pipe is run, there is a square hole cut in the door. A delay of ten minutes in the discovery of the fire would have doomed the City Hall, for the fire was making headway and the tongues of flame were reaching upward toward the paper-covered steam pipes, inflammable as tinder and hanging in strips.

The danger lies in the basement. There are 1185 feet of piping which is covered with felt with an outside wrapper of paper. This paper is dry and brittle, and from all the pipes hangs down like festoons. If one of these strips catches fire, the flame will run along the pipes from end to end of the basement, firing the wooden partitions through which the pipes pass and communicating with the wooden flooring. And this is not all.

THE REAL FIRE TRAP.

While the janitor's office is a depository for broken chairs and tables, while lumber is piled in the corridors and wooden boxes and barrels are scattered throughout the corridors, the real fire trap is the apartment which the City Auditor uses as a storeroom, and where the records of the office are kept. The door to this cubby hole is kept locked. Standing in the entrance, the view is one to scare a fire insurance agent into fits. Electric wires are carried along the ceiling above steam pipes, covered with brittle paper hanging in strips. Wooden boxes are piled along the walls, the floor is littered with loose paper, and in one end of the room is a vast pile of inflammable material. A lighted cigarette thrown carelessly on the floor by an employé leaving the apartment would start a fire which would defy the efforts of the fire department to save the building.

The city officials are aware of the fire peril over which they work. On February 5, an inspector attached to the City Auditor's department made a report to City Auditor Myers, calling attention to the paper-covered pipes and inflammable rubbish stored in the basement. On February 15, City Auditor Myers wrote the Board of Public Works, suggesting that the rubbish be removed and the junk in the janitor's office sold. He recommended that the steam pipes be covered with asbestos. On February 16, the Board of Public Works referred City Auditor Myers's letter to Building Inspector Hawkins, and Manager the latter, apologizing for the delay on account of a "rush of busines" wrote as follows:

JOB FOR JANITOR.

"The only source of danger suggested in the Plumbing Inspector's report was the loose paper, and as this condition has existed for a long time, I can scarcely class this as dangerous. It is my opinion that it is unnecessary to do anything with the matter except have the janitor pick off the loose ends of paper referred to."

Secretary Ferris of the Board of Public Works stated yesterday that Janitor Smith had been instructed in accordance with the Building Inspector's suggestion, and that no other action had been taken by the board as to carrying out the recommendation of the City Auditor. W. M. Humphreys, a member of the board, accompanied a Times reporter into the basement yesterday afternoon, and was amazed at the deplorable condition in which he found it. He believed at first that the steam pipes were covered with asbestos, but when a piece was torn off and lighted, he was astounded at the apparent negligence of the city officials.

The City Hall was completed in 1889 at a cost approximating $200,000. The contract price was $189,000, but extras were added. It is built of brick and stone, with wooden floors and joists and a tile roof. There has been a steady decrease in insurance. Six years ago the building and contents were insured for $80,000. Today the insurance is $50,000, due to the depreciation of the building. The risk is divided among twenty-five companies. The building is not equipped with fire escapes. A fire starting in the basement would cut off escape for the hundreds of employés working in the various offices on the second and third floors, the only means of exit being one elevator, with a capacity of eight or nine persons, and one staircase.

DRUIDS WILL CELEBRATE.

Five Hundred Candidates Will Be Initiated at Meeting Tomorrow. Banquet in Evening.

Five local Groves of the United Ancient Order of Druids completed arrangements at a special meeting, last night, for the initiation of 500 candidates in the Labor Temple, No. 533 Maple avenue, tomorrow afternoon. Arrangements were also made for a parade which will start at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, and it is expected that there will be a large turn-out of members. In the evening, a banquet will be given at the Roma Café, No. 117 East Fifth street, which will be open to all members of the order.

The United Ancient Order of Druids was spoken of as an order of priests and learned men among the early Celts, who settled in western Europe. It is one of the oldest orders known. It aims to unite men, irrespective of nation, tongue or creed, for mutual protection, cultivate social virtues and encourage business.

A special train will arrive from San Francisco tomorrow with a large delegation of Druids from that city, in-

RABID.

ITS POLICY OF DOG-IN-MANGER.

THREAT BY REPRESENTATIVE OF SAN DIEGO RESENTED.

Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association Writes Hot Letter to the Members of Panama-California Exposition Company in Southern City to Withdraw Support If Statement Is Upheld.

The promoters of the projected exposition for San Diego have been placed in an embarrassing position by the apparently indiscreet remarks of the press agent of the Panama-California Exposition Company in Washington, day before yesterday. In an interview with several newspaper men in that city, Robert F. Connolly, the San Diego publicity director, is quoted as saying that rather than have San Francisco gain any advantage, San Diego would join hands with New Orleans.

Inasmuch as the local commercial organizations have tried to secure for the southern city every possible advantage consistent with the interests of the State at large, the threat of one of San Diego's representatives that its citizens would sooner support an eastern city than to see the honor go to San Francisco, does not set well.

With characteristic promptness, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association was the first commercial body to take action. At a special meeting of directors, yesterday, a strong protest was formulated against the unpatriotic and dog-in-the-manger policy adopted by the leaders of the exposition project in San Diego.

The directors of the Panama-California Exposition Company will either have to discredit the publicity agent, or else will be placed in the unfavorable attitude of favoring an outside city, rather than giving loyal support to a California project.

The letter which follows is the expression of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association on the subject:

"LOS ANGELES (Cal.) April 8.—Panama-California Exposition Co., San Diego, Cal. Gentlemen: The press dispatches from Washington this morning attribute to Robert F. Connolly, director of publicity of your organization, the following interview:

"'We are fighting San Francisco because San Francisco has been playing politics in this exposition matter. We are willing to join hands with New Orleans if necessary.'

"On behalf of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, we desire to enter a most emphatic protest against such a policy and such utterances. The statement that San Francisco is playing politics is not founded upon facts, and is absolutely untrue.

"Your organization has asked for a square deal, and in trying to make an alliance with New Orleans as against the best interests of the State of California, is not giving San Francisco or California a square deal, as far as your methods are concerned. The commercial organizations of Los Angeles have endeavored to obtain for your city a fair consideration at the hands of the San Francisco people, and we have espoused your cause to the best of our ability. If, however, your representatives in Washington voice your sentiments to obtain for New Orleans the exposition at the expense of San Francisco, we must withdraw our support, as we believe that such a course would be disastrous to the best interests of the entire State and the Pacific Coast.

"Yours truly,

"By order of the Board of Directors, [Signed] "F. J. ZEEHANDELAAR, "Secretary."

"POLICE!" SHRIEKS POLLY.

Detective Answers Angry Kidnaped Parrot's Cry and Arrests Alleged Thief.

"Police! Thief!" shrieked a parrot in the Los Angeles City Market yesterday evening.

Detective Frank Roberts heard the cry, and A. H. Anderson was led to a cell in the City Jail, there to await trial on a charge of burglary.

The parrot is the property of Joe Bateman, who lives at No. 311 Central avenue. Joe's room was entered by a prowler yesterday afternoon. Somebody about the house saw the burglar and raised an outcry, calling for the police, but the burglar escaped.

When Joe returned home he found nothing missing from his apartments—nothing of the character of articles usually levied upon by burglars. But his heart sank when he noticed that the parrot's cage was open and that his pet had been kidnaped. Joe hurried to the telephone to call help and win back his dear Polly.

Detective Roberts, assigned to the berumpled green bird out of the bosom of his shirt.

"Pretty Polly; Polly want a cracker?" said Anderson, fondly stroking the head of the bird as it perched on his hand.

But Polly did not care for its traditional dainty. It angrily shook its feathers into some semblance of order, haughtily cocked its head to one side, then, as if understanding the import of the words, repeated the calls it had heard as it disappeared in the darkness of the shirt bosom:

"Police! Thief!"

Polly was returned to the fond hands of her master and Anderson was marched off to jail.

SAD CASE.

HIS GRAMMAR SHOCKED HER.

QUEER CAUSE FOR DIVORCE IS AIRED IN COURT.

Husband Sues Because Wife Deserted Him on Account of English as He Spoke It—Studies Rules of Rhetoric and Gets Acute Dyspepsia. Property Involved.

Thomas Morehouse, ranchman and automobile dealer, had a woeful tale to tell yesterday, while a witness in his own behalf in Judge Houser's court, during the trial of his suit for divorce against Emma L. Morehouse.

He pleaded that he had gone to many extremities to please his spouse, even trying to learn the contents of a grammar, although more than fifty years old, but that it had done no good, and he was deserted and worried until he had dyspepsia.

Morehouse said that on one occasion his wife brought some friends home and gave him a "calling down" when they had gone. He declared that she was angry because he was sitting with his legs crossed and had a toothpick in his mouth, and did not introduce her visitors to him.

"She told me I should not use the pronoun 'them,' but should use the adjective 'those,'" he told the court. He declared that he immediately bought a grammar and studiously scanned it. Evidently he found some large words in it and remembered them, but not their proper application, from the way he juggled the language in attempting to express himself on certain occasions.

Another "calling down" took place because of his chivalrous action while working in the garden one day, according to his story. He saw a horse, which was driven by a woman, become frightened, and caught it by the bit.

"My wife asked me why I didn't go to call on the woman," he declared. "She asked why I didn't go to see her and stay a long time."

He asserted that she had left him, after he had suffered many other indignities, and that he had developed acute dyspepsia as a result of worrying about the whole affair.

Many letters, which had passed between the husband and wife, were introduced in evidence. Some of them, which were written by Morehouse, raised a doubt as to who committed the desertion.

The defense declares that Morehouse was attentive to his family until their income was cut off by the San Francisco fire, and that he then found it convenient to take a trip East. He is accused of being the deserter.

Mrs. Morehouse is said to be worth about $250,000, which was left her by a former husband. It is said that she claims that she and her present spouse have accumulated about $50,000 worth of community property.

The fuss appears to have been raised because there are large property interests at stake, as neither party seems to be delighted with the prospect of taking the other back.

More evidence will be heard next Wednesday.

MODIFIED VERDICT.

"Count" Herbert Von Hoenhorst, charged originally with grand larceny in Judge Willis's court, was found guilty of petty larceny by a jury, late last evening, and he will be sentenced Monday. The alleged "Count" stole a suit-case with contents valued at $150, recently.

FOR SALE—
THE BEST WAY TO REDUCE YOUR LIVING EXPENSES

Is this era of high prices, most men are living up to their incomes, or running into debt. "How can I reduce my living expenses?" That is the question you ask yourself. The answer is "Buy a Somerset acre. Live on it. Enjoy all the advantages of close-in suburban life, only a short ride from the city itself." Your garden and your chickens will supply your table. What you now pay for rent, or less, will soon pay for your acre. I sell Acres at Somerset for only $250. The terms are $10 down and $10 per month. Somerset is only 30 minutes away by trolley, a well settled, comfortable place to live in. Best of all the soil is a rich sandy loam and where abundant water is absolutely free. These advantages mean a big reduction in expenses for the city man. You'll see how when you see Somerset. Do this at once. Join one of my excursions. They leave my office every hour daily and up to 2 p.m. Sundays.

MONEY TO LOAN—In Sums to Suit.

QUICK LOANS— QUICK LOANS.

You can borrow any amount you wish from $10 to $200 on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, cattle, etc. The property to remain undisturbed in your possession. You can get the money the day you make application and with no publicity. Loans can be paid back in any installments that suit the borrower and each payment so made will lessen the cost of the loan. There are no restrictions on your moving when you wish. No charges of any kind taken out in advance. You receive the full amount of the loan in cash. If you have a loan elsewhere or you own a balance on your furniture, piano, or any other security, call and see us and get our proposition. It will pay it to do so and party it as long as you wish. Please remember that we make no inquiries of your neighbors or employer. Private offices are open and are unable to call to the office, telephone us and we shall send our agent out to your home.

DO YOU MOVE THIS SPRING?
If you do you may need a little READY MONEY to pay the expenses. If you do not you may need it for other purposes. Perhaps the best way to get it is to go to those who make a business of loaning it and not obligate yourself to friends or relatives. We advise this because it is a reasonable proposition, and we invite you to come to us because we are able to offer you better inducements along this line than others. WE MAKE LOANS ON FURNITURE, PIANO, HORSES, WAGONS AND OTHER PERSONAL PROPERTY (which is always left in your own possession.) QUICKLY, WITHOUT PUBLICITY, and in amounts from $10 upward, and you can return the money within any convenience or worry by our special plan of repayment, which is the fairest ever offered. Free to the Sick

Drs. Shores offer a thorough medical examination and expert advice free to all who apply this week with catarrh, deafness or any chronic or nervous disease of whatever name or nature to show their good faith and skill and to enable the sick to find out exactly what their disease is and if and how it can be cured. Remember SPRING is the time for quick and lasting cures. One month's treatment now is equal to three month's at any other season of the year. Don't delay. Terms for treatment low and uniform—$5 a month. Medicines free, for all Catarrhal Chronic Diseases.

A. D. LESIN, A PROMINENT MINING ENGINEER, WHO LIVES AT 902 E. FIFTH ST., LOS ANGELES, SAYS: "About ten years ago I had some trouble with my lungs and became generally run down. I lost in weight and flesh and had some fever every day. My cough was bad and I had a stitch in my side which was very distressing, and on one or two occasions I spit up blood. All of these symptoms were greatly aggravated by a general catarrhal condition. I read of Drs. Shores & Shores' many cures and decided to try their treatment. I can truthfully say that two months' treatment has improved me in every way. My cough is all gone and I am feeling fine in every way. I cheerfully recommend Drs. Shores' treatment to any one suffering as I did."

"SUGAR TRUST" FINED.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Judge La-combe of the United States Circuit Court today adjudged the American Sugar Refining Company in contempt of court, and fined the corporation $500. The contempt consisted in the failure to respond to the subpoena calling for the production of two books of account before the Federal grand jury yesterday.

"THE POTATO AMBASSADOR" is the title of an article you will want to read in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

Brewery Subject to Bankruptcy Laws.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeal has decided that the Dequesne Brewing Company is a manufacturing concern, subject to the bankruptcy laws. Local creditors petitioned to have the concern declared bankrupt and the issue was raised that it was not subject to bankruptcy, as it was only in the first stages of incorporation. The company was to have erected a brewery on North Main street. Before the buildings were completed, contractors and material men filed mechanics' liens on the property. The petition in bankruptcy followed. The decision of the Appellate Court seems to mean that the bankruptcy proceedings will be pushed.

Social Service Institute.

The work of the Bethlehem Institute of Social Service, under the direction of Dana W. Bartlett, assisted by Warren C. Eberle, closed yesterday, having been attended by 110 students from Occidental College, Pomona College and Whittier College. This is the seventh year of the work, the last being acknowledged the most important of all. Visits were made to all the public institutions of the city, schools, hospitals, industrial plants, courts, playgrounds, etc. This is one of the many ways in which Bethlehem is serving the city by interesting students in conditions existing in all directions. The next department of service to be taken up will be the vacation schools, which were first established last summer.

Urging Support of Bonds.

Letters to the civic and commercial organizations of the city, were sent out yesterday by the Bond Campaign Committee. The communications ask the bodies to have their members boost for the bond election, the 19th inst. Among the organizations that have been requested to help are the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, Municipal League, Ebell Club, Los Angeles Jobbers, Friday Morning Club, Hollywood Board of Trade. One of the arguments advanced by the Publicity Committee is that no harbor was ever constructed that did not pay good interest on the investment. One of the examples cited is Manchester, England. The city is thirty-five miles from tide-water and was thus handicapped in its competition with harbor cities. The people built a ship canal, which with a harbor cost $86,000,000. The revenue from the shipping charges has paid interest on the investment and also provided a sinking fund with which to pay the bonds.

TRY AGAIN?

DIVORCE COLONY HOLDING HIM?

DR. CHAMBERS IN RENO, AND EXPECTED TO LOCATE.

Ex-Member of Board of Health and Near-Chief of Police Who Won Decree and Then Lost It, Turns Up in Nevada and Appears Nervous When Questioned.

Dr. William J. Chambers, recently resigned as a member of the Board of Health, a recent probable Chief of Police, and a well-known practitioner in Los Angeles, has, according to all appearances, joined the Reno divorce colony.

A dispatch from The Times correspondent in Reno says the doctor is there taking the State Medical Board examination, and that he intends to make Reno his residence. It is expected he will return to Los Angeles in a few days, but for how long a stay is not known.

Dr. Chambers was granted a divorce about six weeks ago, at the time he was expecting to be named Chief of Police. It was suppressed at the time, but soon gained publicity, and thereafter the doctor's chances for the Chief's job faded and disappeared. Then Judge Bordwell set aside the divorce decree on the ground of fraud and the divorced doctor found himself a benedict again. He had asked for a divorce because he alleged Mrs. Chambers declined to abandon belief in race suicide, something the doctor says he abhors. There were, and, he alleged, could be no little Chamberses.

The Reno dispatch says the doctor gave evidence of "suppressed nervousness and anxiety, as he repeatedly expressed surprise and wonder how and from what source he was approached" when asked about his purpose in visiting Reno, but denied he was acquiring residence to apply for a divorce.

"However," the dispatch continues, "his official denial was luke-warm, and he admitted that he came here to take the State Medical Board examination, and that he intends to live in Reno and practice."

According to the same advices the doctor is living there secretly and Reno physicians have not met him, except Dr. St. Clair, formerly a prominent surgeon of Cripple Creek, where Dr. Chambers formerly lived. Besides Dr. St. Clair, Dr. Chambers has other old Colorado friends in Reno.

Dr. Chambers was an army scout before he studied medicine. It was his military career in Indian campaigns and his experience as well as his Good Government political affiliations, that made him once the unannounced choice of the Police Commission. His friends here know that he is at Reno, but they plead ignorance of any purpose to get relief from his marital infelicities.

MAKE NEW MARKS.

TERRIFIC SPEED IS ATTAINED ON PIEPAN.

Five National Records are Smashed at Opening Races on Motordrome Track and Driver Makes Miraculous Escape from Death.

FIVE national automobile records were broken at the Motordrome track yesterday during the opening races. Stripped motor racing machines and the fastest stock cars mowed down one mark after another in the speediest automoblie race meet ever held in this country.

Barney Oldfield, Ralph de Palma and George Robertson, the triumvirate of automobile drivers who hold more records than any other motor racers now before the public, did their best work and excelled themselves. It seemed child's play to break old-established marks, so fast was the pie-pan track.

Though the day was cold, and a sharp wind was blowing down the back stretch, Oldfield smashed the one-mile mark.

Following the sensational work of the speed champion on the "Blitzen Benz," Ralph de Palma, with his Fiat "Ninety," clipped many seconds from the five-mile mark.

In a terrific speed dash, Robertson lowered the ten-mile mark with his Simplex racer.

More national automobile records were broken yesterday at the Motordrome than were ever cracked at any one meet ever held. The board track proved almost as fast as a straightaway course, and the races showed that all marks, at least from one to 100 miles, are to be broken on the Playa del Rey saucer track.

There was one accident yesterday. Frank Siefert narrowly escaped death at the finish of the 100-mile race. As the Dorris was entering the pits after the Marmon had won, Siefert endeavored to whirl the steering post around to send the car onto the boards. His strength was not sufficient. Numbed from the strain of the race, his muscles refused to act promptly and the car was overturned.

Pinned beneath the machine it was at first supposed that Siefert had been killed. He was dragged from under the machine with nothing more serious than bruises. He had escaped by the width of the back seat which kept the car from crushing him.

The Marmon won the century race. The time for the 100 miles was 1h. 25m. 12.7s. The race was not sensational. The Dorris and Marmon ran hood to hood for ninety miles, but Harroun had a second more speed to the mile and just before the finish ran away from the smaller car, finishing the last lap with a long margin to the good.

WEATHER HURTS ATTENDANCE.

Cloudy weather kept many people away from the track yesterday for the opening of the Motordrome races. The afternoon was cold and the bleachers were not half filled. The automobile crowd was the largest that has ever attended a meet in Los Angeles. The road to Venice was lined with machines between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

There was not a hitch in the long programme, which had to be cut short because of the 100-mile race. The time trials, and stock events were the best ever seen on any track. Barney Oldfield and De Palma did not meet. They were to come together in the ten-mile stock event, but at the last minute De Palma failed to enter.

showing the Knox car with Oldfield at the wheel on the pole in the ten-mile stock chassis race for 451-600 cars, with the Isotta above on the track. Below are the Marmon (on the pole) with Dorris half a length behind. Above is Barney Oldfield (on the the left) shaking hands with Ralph De Palma in their first meeting on the track.

Oldfield broke the national automobile mile record in the opening event. His time of 36.22s. lowers all previous marks made on any but a straightaway course in America. The Benz was moving at the rate of 99.39 miles an hour when the record was made.

Ralph de Palma, who held the former mile record of 50 4-5s., also tried to break the mark and made a mile in 37.56s., more than a second slower than Oldfield. De Palma drove his 190-horse-power Fiat, with which he is to meet Oldfield in the match races during this meet.

George Robertson, in the Simplex, broke the national record for ten miles. His time of 6m., 31.47s., shows how fast Robertson's car is on the pie-pan course. The former American record was held by Lewis Strang and was 7m., 1s.

Even more wonderful was the record made by De Palma in the five-mile free-for-all against Robertson in the Simplex and Ben Kerscher in the Darracq. De Palma's time was 3m., 16.30s.

DARRACQ CAR WINS.

Ben Kerscher, on the Darracq, a car which twice won the Vanderbilt Cup race, broke the national two-mile record. His time of 1m. 18s., lowers the previous American mark of 1m. 21s., held by Strang. Kerscher has been Oldfield's team-mate for three years and yesterday won his first big race.

The ten-mile race for small stock cars was won by the Cole "Thirty." Automobile race dope was upset in this event, when "Bill" Endicott took the lead with the Cole early in the race and forced the Buick into second place. Try as he would, Nikrent could not shove the "White Streak" ahead.

The surprise of this race was the work of the Ford, the tiniest machine on the track. L. J. Hampton took third place in the ten-mile race, turning several miles in less than a minute. The Ford is only a twenty horse power car and upset the dope sheet by defeating the Firestone-Columbus and the Warren-Detroit.

Harris Hanshue lost the chance of his life to beat Barney Oldfield yesterday, when the word-record-breaker was unable to send his Knox away from the starting line. Hanshue gained almost a quarter of a mile handicap, but Oldfield won and came within two seconds of the national record.

Starter Fred Wagner sent the cars away for the ten-mile event with Barney Oldfield on the Knox glued to the starting line. Wagner was forced to make the event a standing start and Oldfield's wheels spun as he tried to get away.

Opening the Stoddard-Dayton to the limit, Livingston jumped into the pole and took the lead. He was a hundred yards ahead of Oldfield before the Knox was started. Barney did not go into his high speed until Livingston, the Apperson and the Isotta were more than 200 yards ahead of him.

OLDFIELD DRIVES HARD.

Then Oldfield drove as he never has driven before. The Apperson had shown a mile in 44 1-5s., faster than the best time of the Knox in practice. Barney sent the Knox yesterday in 44s. in order to win the ten-mile race. When Hanshue apparently had the event well in hand, and Leon T. Shettler, owner of the car, was preparing to take things easy, Oldfield shot ahead of the red car with a burst of speed that no one but Oldfield knew the Knox had.

Holding his lead, Oldfield finished the race a hundred yards to the good. Once, in the eighth mile, Hanshue put on a spurt which made it appear that the Apperson had much more speed. The crowd took the cue and began to cheer. Oldfield let the car out a notch and the fireworks ended as Barney swooped across the finish line, winning

"BROKE!"

NAMES SOME LIABILITIES.

Nathan Cole, Jr., Is Bankrupt in Many Ways.

Files Petition Showing Rich Debts, Poor Assets.

Also Out of Political Hold as a Boss.

Nathan Cole, Jr., the Democratic politician, member of the Jonathan Club, and, until recently, vice-president and manager of the Pacific Sugar Corporation, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in San Francisco. His liabilities are placed at $329,000 and his assets at $15,000. The assets are said to be so secured as to be not available for the general creditors.

Considerable secrecy seems to surround the filing of the papers in the case, for although they were filed on March 30, last, the entire proceedings escaped publicity. Creditors in Los Angeles received their first intimation yesterday, of the step taken by Cole, when they received official notice from Milton J. Green, referee in bankruptcy in San Francisco. They were requested to file their claims forthwith.

Complications in the affairs of Cole had been anticipated by some of his close business associates. It is said, ever since his severance of official relations in the management of the Pacific Sugar Corporation, which has two beet sugar factories, one at Corcoran and one at Visalia. Upon his retirement from that company, Cole moved with his family to Oakland. They had a few months previously moved from their residence in this city, at No. 4618 Pasadena avenue, to the town of Corcoran, where the beet sugar factory is located.

It is reported that several men who have been prominent in public life in this city are among the principal and heaviest creditors. Officials associated with the Harper regime are included in this list. Cole was a member of the Police Commission when Harper was Mayor.

The bankruptcy proceedings, it is reported, will have an important bearing upon Cole's political career. Two years ago next July he was chosen the member of the Democratic National Committee from California, after a warm contest, in which he succeeded in overcoming the opposition of Theodore A. Bell, who made strenuous, but unavailing efforts to cause his defeat. Cole was regarded by the Democrats as the personal friend of William Jennings Bryan, and as a matter of fact, when the Nebraska statesman visited Los Angeles he was the personal guest of Cole.

His successful fight for this position aroused much antagonism against him among his political enemies, and it was reported last night that further evidence of it would be forthcomnig at the State conference that is to be held here next week.

It was stated by a former friend of Cole's, last night, that a resolution will be presented at the conference demanding his resignation as California's member of the Democratic National Committee, and it is not believed that Cole will make any objection.

SUGAR RESPONSIBLE.

Cole is visiting relatives at Rialto in Southern California. His wife, when seen in Oakland, last night, said that his failure was due to his investment in the sugar company, which met reverses because of lack of cooperation from farmers.

In Cole's schedule of liabilities and assets, as filed with the referee in bankruptcy, he asserts that the sum of $84,662.41 is secured. Careful investigation, however, discloses the fact that these claims are "secured" by stock in the Pacific Sugar Corporation. The main items of liabilities are notes and bills to the amount of $230,451.07. These are unsecured and represent promissory notes of the Pacific Sugar Corporation indorsed by Cole. Other unsecured debts amount to $14,184.51, bringing the grand total of Cole's liabilities to $329,297.99.

The Union National Bank of Pittsburgh and the Crocker National Bank of San Francisco are the two heaviest unsecured creditors. The Crocker bank is a creditor to the amount of $70,102.53, representing the balance due of a loan of $100,000.

Hulett C. Merritt of this city, is a creditor to the amount of $20,000 for money advanced the corporation; the National Bank of Visalia wants $26,000; F. C. Drescher of Sacramento is "in" to the sum of $50,000; and the First National Bank of Hanford advanced a similar amount.

FOR PERSONAL USE, TOO.

The schedule of liabilities shows that Cole borrowed the sum of $14,184.51 for his personal uses, and the other liabilities are for various banks and individuals who advanced money to the sugar corporation.

One of the features of Cole's petition in bankruptcy is the list of assets. After carefully enumerating the fact that he was in possession of six suits of clothes, three hats, three pairs of shoes, twelve shirts, four suits of underwear, one cane, one watch, one razor, and handkerchiefs, collars and cuffs to the amount of $10, Cole declared that these are all exempt, being personal property.

There is a memorandum of salary due from the sugar company amounting to $784.80, and a life insurance policy for $7000 which is also declared exempt because it is payable to Cole's wife.

Former Mayor Harper of Los Angeles figures in the case as one of the signers of the notes for the sugar corporation which were indorsed by Cole. Harper is given as one of those who ought to be liable for the notes, together with W. C. Petchner and H. C. Buhoup.

Nathan Cole, Jr.,

who has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the North, with stated liabilities three hundred and twenty-four thousand dollars in excess of the assets.

ROYAL WELCOME.

THE GOVERNOR IS EN ROUTE.

COMING TO LOS ANGELES TO ATTEND BANQUET.

Sierra Madre Club Making Elaborate Plans to Honor State's Chief Executive—Mining and Oil Industry Will Emphasize Their Growing Importance in the State.

Gov. Gillett will arrive in Los Angeles this evening for a short visit in the southern part of the State, incidental to the banquet to be tendered him next Monday evening by the Sierra Madre Club. Clark R. Mahan will leave this morning to meet the Governor at Santa Barbara, representing the Entertainment Committee in charge of the banquet.

The members of the Sierra Madre Club have figured prominently in the recent development of mining and oil interests in California and the Governor comes to express his interest and coöperation with the men who are promoting this big industry. On the part of the club the banquet was arranged wholly as a compliment to the Chief Executive of the State.

The banquet will not be a large one, but the guests will represent the biggest interests in the State. Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the Chamber of Mines, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and other representative citizens, have been invited. The membership of the Sierra Madre Club is over 200 and will be well represented at the dinner.

Capt. J. F. Lucey, one of the leading oil men of the State, will act as toastmaster. The following programme has been arranged: Address of welcome, Col. Tim Spellacy; "The Chamber of Commerce," H. Z. Osborne; "The Mining Industry," Calvert Wilson; "The Oil Industry," Thomas A. O'Donnell; "Army and Navy," Col. William J. Barratt; "The Press," Gen. Harrison Gray Otis; "Our State and Governor," H. S. McCallum; address, Gov. Gillett.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association will be represented by Fred L. Baker, one of its representative members.

The Entertainment Committee of the club is carrying out elaborate plans for one of the best receptions ever given to a Governor of the State in Los Angeles. G. Alfred Mayland is the chairman of the committee, and the members are H. S. McCallum, C. R. Mahan, J. D. Leedy, Robert H. Willson, F. M. Raiff, Jack Tehen and F. M. Jenifer.

NUMBERS FOR FIRE HORSES.

Commissioner Hawley has taken up with Acting Chief Todd the use of numbers to designate the horses in the service of the fire department. It is the intention to tag each horse and carry the number on the department rolls so that the history of the animal can be traced from the time it is bought until it dies or is disposed of. Commissioner Hawley declared that the present system of naming fire horses is cumbersome, as there may be several of the same name, whereas if each horse is numbered, there can be no confusion. Todd will get in touch with eastern cities which have adopted the new system, with the view of recommending to the fire commission the best method of attaching the tag to the horse. In Boston, he said, the tag is attached to the neck under the mane, and in his opinion this is preferable.

DAY NURSERY BENEFIT.

The Union Avenue Parent-Teachers' Association will give an entertainment on Friday evening, next, at the home of Capt. and Mrs. J. D. Fredericks, No. 258 North Union avenue, for the benefit of the Utah Street Day Nursery and Maternity Cottage. Addresses will be delivered by Judge Conrey, Judge Wilbur and M. C. Bettinger, and there will be an entertaining musical programme.

PUBLIC SERVICE—Courts and Offices.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

S. G. Marshutz will make complaint to the Fire Commission and the Council about the fire marshal being an insurance board employé, and also ask the amendment of the fire ordinance.

In an attempt to clear the eastern section of the city of vicious dogs, Capt. Lenhausen, yesterday arraigned ten dog owners in Justice Frederickson's Police Court on charges of violating the muzzle ordinance.

AT THE CITY HALL.

FIRE MARSHAL WITHOUT PAY.

INSURANCE BOARD FURNISHES FREE CITY OFFICIAL.

Marshutz Discovers the Arrangement While Trying to Use Frame Building as a Garage, and Will Make Complaint—Underwriters Board in Charge of Fire Ordinance.

In an effort to use a building at Pico and Figueroa streets for a garage, S. G. Marshutz, the owner, has learned some things about the fire marshal of Los Angeles that he did not know before and that, seemingly, few of the present officials realized. He has learned, he says, that the fire district ordinance of the city is merely legalizing the work of the board of underwriters and that the fire marshal is but a branch of the board's business.

The building he owns is capable of use for a garage, but it is of wood and he finds that the building ordinance has been amended so that no garage may be maintained in anything but a brick building. And there are other requirements, too, he finds.

When seeking for information he was told to see Fire Marshal Sutton, who is a full fledged city official, with offices in the Security building. Sutton, he says, told what he could do and what he could not do, with the property and also admitted that, though he is a city official, he draws no pay from the city, but is paid by the Board of Underwriters.

"This is a pretty pass," said Marshutz, on a visit to the City Hall yesterday. "Here I have a piece of property worth $20,000 suitable for a garage and located properly, but I may not use it because the fire district ordinance forbids it.

"I was one of the persons who urged the extension of the old fire limits to Pico street, but since that time an amendment has been put in the ordinance forbidding the use of frame buildings for garage purposes.

"I will make complaint to the Fire Commission, and I will ask the Council to amend the ordinance so that I may use my property, so long as I do it properly.

"If I get no relief I will take the matter to the courts and see whether the city may turn its legal authority over to the insurance companies."

Marshutz is a former member of the library board, and has been zealous in promoting improvements along Pico street. He was the principal promoter of the new ornamental lighting of that thoroughfare and does not regard himself as parsimonious when it comes to civic patriotism.

As a matter of fact the city has done just what Marshutz says it has done. The ordinance passed last November makes the fire chief ex-officio fire marshal, but also provides for a fire marshal who shall receive no pay from the city, and who may appoint not to exceed four deputies who are to receive no pay from the city. The marshal and his deputies are given legal authority to enter any premises to make inspections in the name of the city. The practical result is that the board of fire insurance underwriters is in control of the enforcement of the fire district ordinance through its fire marshall and his deputies, who are said to be inspectors of the fire inspection bureau.

Marschutz is to present his complaint to C. O. Hawley, a member of the Fire Commission, today. Hawley is an insurance adjuster and is regarded as an authority on the business. It is likely the Fire Commission will investigate as others have called the attention of the Mayor to the placing of all power over the fire limits in the hands of employés of the underwriters board.

MAJORITY AGAINST.

SOUTH PARK REMONSTRANCE.

Antagonists of the condemnation of eighteen lots for an addition to South Park appeared before the Public Welfare Committee of the Council again yesterday. They did not find Richmond Plant present so the session was brief and placid. A hearing of both friends and enemies of the park scheme was to have been heard but the antagonists said they had nearly two-thirds of the frontage in the assessed district on a remonstrance and the committee thought it a waste of time if this is so.

Accordingly the protestants "deposited" their remonstrances with the committee with the distinct understanding that supplementary remonstrances may be filed later.

The "deposit" contained 110 sheets bearing 2223 signatures of property owners, representing 277,540 feet of frontage out of the 506,000 in the district. The "deposit" contains about 25,000 feet more than the majority.

In addition thirty more remonstrances are to be filed within the next two weeks.

The committee continued its hearing for two weeks to give the City Engineer an opportunity to check over the signatures. If he finds the remonstrance sumcient the whole subject will be dropped by the Council.

TRACK PAVING.

FIGUEROA STREET ORDER.

W. M. Humphreys, inspector of streets, asked the Board of Public Works yesterday to demand that the paving between the tracks of the Los Angeles Railway on Figueroa street, from Second to Sixth streets, be ordered in the same manner as the board has required the Los Angeles Pacific Company to pave its tracks in Sunset boulevard.

The Los Angeles Railway sent a communication saying that it could use wash gravel and do the work right away, but that broken stone is hard to obtain, and that it could not use this material until it could get it. It is now improving Ninth street with this material, and said it would transfer the workmen to Figueroa street just as quickly as Ninth street is done.

The board declared it would stand for all the requirements as to material that the law authorizes, and no less.

Gen. Chaffee called attention to the condition of the paving of the tracks of First street, between Main and Broadway, and a letter was sent to the companies interested to repair at once.

Residents of West Sixth street complained that the company was using vitrified brick at the sides of the track and under the "T" of the rails, so that the rail stood above the bricks. This was also the subject of a communication to the company.

The board is not satisfied with the slow progress of repair work by the companies, and is considering just how to advance the work.

VACHER LOSES.

DOG POUND DEPUTYSHIP.

After being the only applicant for the position of deputy pound master who passed the civil service examination, "Tommy" Vacher is threatened with disqualification by the Civil Service Commission. He is to appear before it next Tuesday and defend his right to the appointment. The examination was held several weeks ago, but the result was announced only recently, and then his standing was attacked by the old enemy of the Vachers, Mrs. L. E. Giese. She brought the record of the trial of the Vachers before the Council eighteen months ago and submitted it to the board, and it has leaned to the opinion that the city dog pound will be better off without the Vachers in the future.

"Tommy," however, insists that there was never anything in reproach of his work, and that the commission has no right to deprive him of the appointment. All other applicants failed to reach the average qualifying for appointment.

Occupation Tax Referendum.

Twenty canvassers went out yesterday from the office of Attorney Otto Rech with petitions asking the referendum on the Taggart occupation tax ordinance. Rech said yesterday that it would be only a few days until the 5000 names needed would be obtained and the petition will then be filed with the Council. The Council must then repeal the ordinance or submit it to a vote at the Plant-Works election or at the general election in 1911.

Sprinkling Increase.

At the suggestion of Inspector Humphreys, the Board of Public Works has ordered twenty-five additional sprinkling carts into service, thus bringing the number up to 110, the maximum to be maintained until next fall.

Rubbish Collecting Contract.

The Board of Public Works, responding to the Council's notice that no more emergency contracts for the collection of non-combustible rubbish will be authorized, has adopted specifications for a two months' contract and sent them to the Council. Inspector Humphreys explains that the board prepared specifications for a general contract but they have not been reported on by the City Attorney and that the emergency contracts from month to month were only until the new contract can be let. Incidentally Humphreys says competition for a two months' contract is not likely to bring a lower cost to the city.

Humphreys Forester?

As the Council has imposed the duties of the former City Forester on the Board of Public Works, that board yesterday turned the work over to Inspector Humphreys of the street department. Hereafter all permits for tree trimming and planting must be obtained from that department.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

HURRIES AHEAD HIS SENTENCE.

CONVICTED ATTORNEY GETS A YEAR AND A HALF.

Goes to Prison Before Legal Time in Order to Prevent His Wife Having the Satisfaction of Hearing the Judge Pronounce Penalty—Charges Her With Perjury.

Although on the eve of entering San Quentin to serve a term for having passed a fictitious check, William Wright, an attorney, could not resist the opportunity of playing a little joke on his wife, whom he believed was responsible for having him arrested.

Suspecting that she would take pleasure in being present to hear Judge Davis pronounce the sentence which would brand him as a felon, he adopted a scheme whereby she would remain in ignorance until the tense scene had been enacted.

Wright was convicted by a jury Thursday in Department Twelve. As the statute requires, the time of passing sentence was continued until Monday. Shortly after noon, yesterday, he appeared with Attorney Newmire and declared that he waived his right.

The convicted man does not seem to feel kindly toward his spouse. He declares that he became a hard drinker because of domestic infelicity, and that he must have passed the check while entirely under the influence of liquor, as he remembers nothing of it. She was residing at the home of the officer who took him into custody.

As a last fling at her, he laid informations before the District Attorney, which, if true, may cause trouble for her. He alleges that she swore that she had been in the State a year when she brought proceedings for an annulment of marriage, when she had resided here only four months.

Wright was once a prosperous Nebraska attorney and handled the legal affairs of several large liquor concerns. Just before he left the East he was presented with a fine touring car by his clients as a token of their appreciation of his services.

But he fell into wayward paths after coming to Southern California. He was arrested and convicted of having passed a check for $4.50, which was signed with the name of a fictitious person.

He asked the judge for leniency, saying that he had serious kidney trouble and that he would not survive a long sentence. He declared that he intended to take a new start in life when his term expired, and said that he would repay any money which he had wrongfully obtained.

Judge Davis sentenced him to eighteen months in San Quentin.

ACTRESS FOR A WEEK.

HUSBAND SEEKS DIVORCE.

The matrimonial difficulties of Charles H. Daugherty, a traveling salesman, and his wife were partially thrashed out before Judge Hutton yesterday. He is suing for a divorce on the ground of desertion.

The Daughertys were married in Philadelphia about eight years ago. They lived with "papa" for some time. The arrangement finally proved to be unsatisfactory and she was sent to California. Later her father advanced Dougherty enough money to pay his car fare to this city.

Dougherty declares his wife left him because he could not buy her as good clothes as could her parents and on account of the fact that his house was not furnished as well as was that of her parents.

Her defense was that she left him because she was ordered away. She admitted that she had carried her troubles to a priest and had been advised to return to her husband. She said she was an actress for a week.

The case will be taken up again Thursday.

DEFENDANT WINS.

VERDICT ON STIPULATION.

The suit of H. P. Hoffman, a member of the hardware firm of Hoffman & Marks Company, against the Pacific Electric Railway for $50,000 damages for the death of his wife was disposed of in short order by Judge Moss yesterday.

By stipulation the attorneys for both sides agreed that the evidence taken in the suit of Hoffman against the company for damages to himself and his automobile be allowed to stand in this case. Judgment was rendered for the defendant.

Both suits were based on an accident at Bairdstown. A machine driven by the plaintiff was struck by a trolley car. Mrs. Hoffman was killed, Hoffman injured and the motor car smashed up.

MARRIED TOO SOON.

NEGLECTED FORMALITY.

Andrew E. Miller, a carpenter, who neglected to have a final decree of divorce entered before he remarried, was taken before Judge Davis to plead to a charge of bigamy yesterday. He has been in jail several weeks and his incarceration appears to have troubled him greatly. Worry has caused him to turn gray.

His attorney made a motion to set aside the information on the ground that his client had not been legally held to answer. He contended that it made no difference if the final decree was not entered if the defendant was entitled to it. On this ground he based an argument to the effect that no public offense was set up in the complaint filed in the justice's court. The motion was denied.

Miller entered a plea of not guilty and his trial was set for the 28th inst.

PAY FOR PAINTINGS.

MRS. BORDEN MUST SETTLE.

Mrs. Helen Borden, whose husband made condensed milk famous, must pay for two paintings which she contracted to purchase from W. J. Chansior, according to a decision of Judge Wilbur, recorded yesterday.

Mrs. Borden agreed to pay $600 for the pictures and gave her note to secure the consideration. They were not up to the standard of her taste when delivery was made and she refused to accept them or pay for them.

Chansior brought suit on the notes. Mrs. Borden sought to have the case continued because her husband is in the East, but the judge insisted on having it tried.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

USED TO HORSES. George Hatton, a boy from Idaho, who stole two horses from a Florence ranchman, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny before Judge Willis, yesterday. His attorney said that he would ask for probation. The lawyer says that Hatton became penniless here and did not find work. He needed money and, having always lived on a ranch, conceived the idea of stealing horses. He will be sentenced on the 27th inst.

CHECKS AND CASH. Earl Holt, a pale young man, who recently came from Georgia, was arraigned before Judge Willis on a charge of grand larceny, yesterday. He formerly worked for J. H. Pace in a haberdashery at Whittier. Five checks and $100 disappeared from the store and he was arrested on a charge of having taken them. His trial was set for the 29th inst.

NEGLECT IS CHARGE. An information, charging Louis Steinhart with having failed to provide for his minor child was filed before Judge Davis yesterday. He will be arraigned Monday.

WON'T HELP WIFE. Jason Woodyard was sentenced to serve thirty days in the County Jail for having failed to provide for his wife, by Judge Davis yesterday. A divorce suit against him is pending in the Superior Court.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Alta Vista Orange Company, capital stock, $20,000, incorporators, H. E. Charlton, L. C. Guerney, E. M. Finehout, G. W. Retzer, Jr., Alex M. Haggart, H. C. Smith and G. P. Helmer, subscribed, $7; Tropico Building Association, capital stock, $10,000, incorporators, John A. Logan, B. W. Richardson, Andy Stephenson and W. R. Light, subscribed, $100; California Reliance Oil Company, capital stock, $1,500,000, incorporators, F. L. Blumer, A. W. Crawford, Thurston Daniels, E. A. Routhe and George A. Allen, subscribed, $7; Layne & Company of California, capital stock, $200,000, incorporators, P. D. Bowler, E. A. Boohn and J. H. Johnson, subscribed, $200,000; Los Angeles Van & Storage Company, capital stock, $10,000, incorporators, J. Lichtenberger, O. B. Fuller and E. W. Freeman, subscribed, $3; Amsterdam-Midway Petroleum Company, capital stock, $10,000, incorporators, W. H. Savage, C. A. Williams, G. A. Williams, F. A. Hohne and O. S. Barnum, subscribed, $100.

READY TO QUIT. The Reed Crude Oil Company yesterday filed a petition for a dissolution of the corporation. The directors are William G. Kerckhoff, Kaspare Cohn, A. C. Wasy, H. N. Mannington, W. D. Woolwine, J. F. Sartori, J. L. Percy, T. S. Fuller and S. H. Ellis.

SUES FOR CRATES. The L. W. Blinn Lumber Company yesterday filed a suit against the Calexico Fancy Melon Growers' Association for $4636.75, alleged to be due on crates furnished.

WANTS THE MONEY. Wiley Moore is seeking to recover $20,000 from C. W. Clark on two checks, which are alleged to have been given May 6, 1908.

WOULD COMPROMISE. Mrs. Francis Morley yesterday asked permission of Judge Rives to allow her to compromise a judgment for $15,000 against Joseph W. Owen and Eddie P. Wood, owners of an automobile which killed her husband on Pico street in June, 1909. She also represents her 5-year-old daughter, Ruth. Mrs. Morley alleges that she can get a lot, which she can mortgage for $2250, and that she is willing to settle the claim upon this consideration.

ESTATE SETTLED. The final accounting and distribution of the estate of Frank Haas, valued at $116,000, most of which goes to the widow, was approved by Judge Rives, yesterday.

WARRANTS FOR WITNESS. Dr. J. S. Gowan was so unwilling to appear as a witness at the trial of Dr. Galen R. Hickok, in Department Twelve, yesterday, that it was necessary warrant after him. Hickok is charged with having performed a criminal operation on Nellie Silke. It is said that he will contend that it was necessary to operate on her to save her life.

GETS HER DECREE. Estella Schoonover was granted a divorce from John O. Schoonover on the grounds of adultery, by Judge Hutton, yesterday. There was evidence that many conversations between the defendant and women where affectionate terms were used had been overheard. There was also proof of his infidelity.

RESUMES MAIDEN NAME. Jessie E. Hamilton was granted a divorce from Myron T. Hamilton in short order by Judge Housey yesterday. She charged desertion and there was no appearance by the defendant. She was allowed to take her maiden name.

IS COMMITTED. Mrs. J. Smith, whose husband advertises to traffic in the procurement of divorces, was committed to Patton, yesterday.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

DRASTIC STEPS ARE TAKEN TO ENFORCE ORDINANCE.

Ten Persons Are Charged With Violating Muzzling Law, Taken Before Justice and Some Pay Fines of Ten Dollars Each—Police Will Continue Crusade.

Alarmed by the unusual number of vicious dogs, roaming the streets of East Los Angeles, Garvanza and Boyle Heights, Capt. Lenhausen of the East Side Police Station ordered a general clean-up of dog owners yesterday morning and, as a result, ten were in Justice Frederickson's Police Court, charged with violating the muzzling ordinance.

The hospital records show that the ordinance compelling all owners to muzzle their dogs has had little or no effect. Many owners of valuable pets have muzzled them, but the greater number of mongrels have been permitted to run loose without regard to the ordinance.

As a result, the East Side police have been kept busy shooting mad dogs and vicious dogs, and the people of the neighborhoods mentioned have been living in fear of attack by these animals. Killing the dogs was found impracticable unless a general massacre was ordered, which would create a storm of protest, the police say.

Capt. Lenhausen yesterday hit upon a plan. He detailed a squad of officers to hunt the owners of the unmuzzled dogs and arrest them. There was a loud wail from the owners, but it did no good, and they were compelled to go to Justice Frederickson's court to answer charges of failing to muzzle their dogs.

D. W. Randolph, J. L. Piper, G. C. Thornberg, D. Hennessy, Charlotte C. North and A. Blodel paid fines of $10 each. Mrs. Lucy Fouth and Mrs. Alfred G. Finch were given suspended sentences upon their promise to obey the law in the future, and Ervin Cannon, a juvenile offender, was turned over to the Juvenile Court.

Capt. Lenhausen stated that he intended to repeat this performance each day until all the dogs of his district were muzzled or the law repealed.

Wife Abandonment Charged.

On a fugitive warrant, charging him with wife-abandonment, Albert Rapken was arrested yesterday by Detectives Hosick and Zeigler and arraigned in Police Court pending the arrival of officers from Alameda. Rapken has a record of several arrests on various charges of forgery and embezzlement.

SUPREME COURT COMING.

The Supreme Court will convene here for the April term, beginning Monday afternoon. J. M. Meredith, bailiff, arrived yesterday, to make arrangements for the accommodation of the justices and to attend to other preliminary matters.

NO WRIT OF MANDATE.

The Second District Court of Appeal has denied an application for a writ of mandate, made by the Moorpark school district of Ventura county against James E. Reynolds. The purpose of the writ was to force him to certify as to the result of an election held there.

INTERESTING LEGAL POINT.

City Auditor Sued for Money Held by Him to Rush Fireman Through Bankruptcy.

City Auditor Myers is defendant in a unique suit, which will come up in Justice Pierce's court today, in which the Roberts Collection Agency brings action to secure possession of $46.

Roberts had a claim of $52 against Capt. Frank Leiva of the city fire department, the amount of a grocery bill which Leiva had contracted at the store of Mrs. Ludekins. When the latter gave the bill to Roberts to collect, he notified Leiva and it was agreed between them that the amount should be collected from Leiva's March warrant. When Roberts went to Auditor Myers, the latter informed him that he had paid Leiva all except $46 of the amount due him, retaining that sum to pay for bankruptcy proceedings, to rid Leiva of his debts.

Roberts forthwith brought suit to get possession of the $46, claiming that the Auditor has no right to withhold it for any purpose. Roberts says that the Auditor claims authority from the City Attorney to take the action he did, and the interesting point involved will be argued before the justice.

MODESTO EXCURSION.

Special Train Starts Next Week for the County Seat of "Sunny Stanislaus."

There is no denying that among the wide-awake, progressive towns of California, Modesto, the county seat of "Sunny Stanislaus," is one of the most active and attractive. And well it may be. It is situated towards the center of the great San Joaquin Valley, surrounded by a vast body of very fertile soil and effectively watered by an admirable system of irrigation. The name of San Joaquin "Valley" is correct, because it lies between the two long ranges, the Coast Range, and the ever snow-capped Sierra Mountains. But as these are, on an average, sixty miles apart, the land is rather a vast "plain." For something like forty years the annual rainfall has usually been sufficient for good grain crops and abundant pasture, but now the great irrigation canals and numerous ditches make certain the immense acreage of alfalfa for dairying and hay; orchards of deciduous and citrus fruits, olives and nuts; vineyards, sweet potatoes, melons, berries and all kinds of vegetables. That this irrigation is rapidly and permanently transforming this erstwhile grain farming region into better paying property is decisively shown by this fact: while, in the former times a 1000-acre wheat ranch would probably lack cows enough for milk and butter for the ranch hands, Stanislaus is now officially reported to be the first county in the whole State in the matter of dairy products. This not only because of the wonderful increase of alfalfa, but also because of the constant improvement in the herds of cows, Jerseys, Guernseys, Holsteins, Dutch belted, Durham milk strains, and others. These dairies, through the different creameries, keep a very large amount of money in constant circulation. The farmer with a few cows and the dairyman with a "big string" of them, get their butter-fat checks every two weeks.

The orchards of peaches, apricots, and other fruits are rapidly coming into bearing and will keep the large canery, drying grounds, and packing-houses exceedingly busy. Oranges, which ripen for the Thanksgiving holidays, are well out of the way before the other fruits come on.

The "Wright" system of irrigation is under the State law. It is as truly "Of the people, by the people, and for the people" as is our school system. The resident landholders and taxpayers decide, at a special election, whether or not a proposed district shall be formed, reflected. All bonded indebtedness for the necessary work of dams, canals, etc., is also authorized only at a properly called election. When, in the course of years, the present and next generation shall have paid off the total indebtedness, the only expense (as when all school bonds are paid,) will be the maintenance and repair. So "the land owns the water." The people of the Modesto Irrigation District claim that a fine class of moral, intelligent and enterprising people are purchasing land and making homes so steadily that schools, churches, improved roads, and business concerns are rapidly increasing. The people of this district claim that "more land and water for the money" can be secured, on very reasonable terms, than in most other parts of the State.

That those interested in obtaining homes, or in investing in larger tracts for subdivision, may have a good opportunity of seeing and judging for themselves, the Chamber of Commerce at Modesto is arranging for a special round trip excursion, for a single fare, to leave Los Angeles next Thursday, April 14. At their headquarters, No. 538 South Spring street, in this city, is a "live bunch" of Modesto men, who are busy perfecting arrangements and giving information to many inquirers. They are ex-Supervisor J. W. Davison, vice-president of Chamber of Commerce; Lon J. Coffee, chairman of Special Committee; J. A. Edwards, F. E. Smith, Albert Osvalt, Adrian Sweet, D. E. Saunders, George Brinkerhoff and J. W. Webb.

The Modesto people naturally recognize Los Angeles as the most advantageous and promising recruiting ground for homeseekers—the gateway to desirable immigration to California.—[Adv.

TWO GREAT ANNIVERSARIES.

It is just as well to remind the American people that today is the forty-fifth anniversary of the surrender of Gen. Lee and his Confederate army to Gen. Grant, commanding the Union army, on the field of Appomattox. Next Wednesday, April 13, will be the anniversary of the most unlucky date in the history of America. It will be the forty-ninth anniversary of the firing upon Fort Sumter.

We are not calling up these memories, sad and glorious, for the purpose of awakening sectional strife. On the contrary, the uppermost thought in the minds of all will be one of rejoicing that out of the great struggle came a preserved Union, with the Constitution of the United States and all American institutions preserved for all future generations. As we dwell upon these things, going back in memory to those other springtimes, one when the Civil War broke out and the other when it terminated, we shall forget the struggles, sufferings and sacrifices in grateful memory of a united country, of the Union made what Daniel Webster so eloquently proclaimed it ought to be, "one and inseparable, now and forever."

Next year will be the fiftieth anniversary of the breaking out of the war. Probably the Grand Army of the Republic will celebrate the event in some proper way; and, while it may possibly not be made the occasion for a national celebration, yet five years from this spring will come the semi-centennial anniversary of the practical close of the war; and we do not hesitate to suggest that that date be made the occasion of a national celebration. At the same date our people expect to celebrate the opening of the Panama Canal. The completion of that great achievement and the fiftieth anniversary of the end of the war seem to us to fall very happily together.

Now, the Times throws out this suggestion: Let us have a joint celebration, one of the peace anniversary, the other of the completion of the canal. Let them both be national in their scope; and we couple this suggestion with the further one that one be on the Atlantic Coast and the other on the Pacific. Washington is the place to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the close of the war. It is the national capital, and it was there the great army that fought the war to a successful issue was disbanded. The Panama Canal is more important to the Pacific Coast than to the Atlantic, and we repeat the contention we have heretofore raised that the Pacific Coast is the proper place to celebrate this great event. Let that exposition be held on the shores of the Pacific, and let it be at San Francisco, the metropolis of the great Far West.

It seems to us as if the two expositions may be made to dovetail very conveniently. Let a specific number of months be devoted to the one event, and then, with a little interim, a period be devoted to the other. We could concede very graciously that the Washington people have a fair right to select their time of year. Any time is fitting for the Pacific Coast, thanks to "the glorious climate of California." If Washington should prefer to celebrate the close of the war in the winter, we could have our exposition to celebrate the opening of the canal in the summer, or vice versa. Probably Washington would want to have the fair come to its climax about the date on which the army under Gen. Lee surrendered to Gen. Grant. If that exposition should take place, say, in the months from the first of April to the end of July, giving them the great national holiday, the Fourth of July, as one of the points of climax, we could meet that with a willing mind. Then put over an interim of several months and let San Francisco celebrate the opening of the canal along in the fall and winter months. It probably will be well along toward the end of the year 1915 before the work is completed, and the big ditch in order for the free passage of ships. Assuming this to be so, the two times would dovetail admirably.

The various nations of the world will be solicited to set up an exposition for the Panama fair, which we may assume to be a fact, or sure to become a fact in the future. The double exposition would cost but little more than the single one. There are millions of Americans who will not be able to cross the continent to the fair which we assume will be held at San Francisco. To them the exposition at the national capital would afford an excellent opportunity to see the objects of art and the products of manufacture as well as of agriculture of the various nations. California draws any year nearly 100,000 tourists across the continent, and there are a few millions of persons west of Omaha who would not go to Washington, a couple of millions on the Pacific Coast who could not bear the expense of such a trip across the continent, but who would visit a fair midway up and down the Coast, say at San Francisco. There are nearly 100,000 other Americans who go to Europe every year who could easily be diverted to a trip to the Pacific Coast.

This plan might work out in such a way as to allay all hostility and jealousy between the two coasts. The great central region may be assumed to remain generally neutral, and the conflict will be between the coasts.

By holding this double exposition the cause of contention would be removed. Surely there are no cities more fitted for such fairs than the national capital for the one commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the close of the war and the successful preservation of the Union, and none more fitting than San Francisco to celebrate the opening of the canal, whose usefulness to the Pacific Ocean ports will be beyond all power of calculation.

SAN DIEGO SHOULD REPUDIATE THEM.

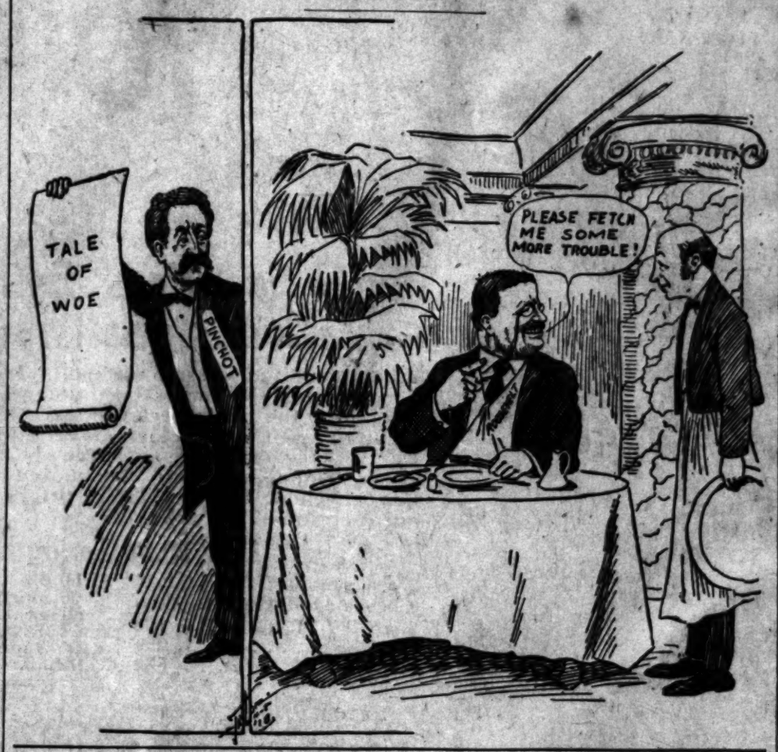
The reported alliance between "Director-General" D. C. Collier and "Director of Publicity" Robert F. Connolly, two reputed spokesmen of the San Diego fair committee (now in Washington) and the promoters of the New Orleans show, together with the offensive remarks of Connolly (a turnip-seed newspaper reporter, that's all,) should bring the judicious friends of San Diego to their senses. Connolly is quoted as saying that sooner than forward the success of the San Francisco Panama Canal fair the San Diegans will boost for New Orleans, and that the San Francisco enterprise is unworthy because of the politics mixed up in it. Or, as the dispatch ran:

"Mr. Connolly said: 'We are fighting San Francisco because San Francisco has been playing politics in this exposition matter. We are willing to join hands with New Orleans if necessary. San Diego does not propose to ask Congress for a single dollar other than an appropriation for a government exhibit. All we want is for Congress to extend an invitation to the San Diego exposition to the countries of South and Central America.'"

This is boys' talk, cheap and vicious, unworthy of a city of any dimensions or pretensions, commercial, intellectual, spectacular or moral. The Los Angeles Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association has already adopted a ringing protest, and other bodies will take cognizance of such a nasty attack upon a great State-wide undertaking for the State's benefit, which has all California behind it. San Diego should repudiate and call in such representatives. They are doing her harm. The only possible influence such talk could have would be toward making San Diego a pariah among cities and destroying her hope of recognition from the Legislature or the people of the State.

When something occurs to renew in the breast of the sad old world the religious acrimonies that have made men hate one another, then is the time for real Christians to exercise charity of thought

NEXT.



WHAT WOULD VARDAMAN BRING?

A woman lobbyist in Mississippi, before the court for examination, stated boldly that her business was buying and selling Mississippi Senators. She was in blissful ignorance that bribery was an offense against the laws of the State in which she lives. We are not fully informed whether this was due to dense ignorance of the law on the part of the woman or whether it was forgetfulness caused by the frequent bribing of officials in that State. She seems to have made a profession of the business, according to her own statement. To those of us who do not live in Mississippi the interesting question arising from this incident is, Why does she not turn her attention to buying and selling Mississippi Governors? There is Vardaman, for instance. How much would his value be in the political markets? As a specimen for a museum made up of political freaks he and Jeff Davis of Arkansas would make a very interesting pair.

CONCERNING COLD-STORAGE FOODS

The Federal government has begun what promises to be a thoroughly exhaustive study of the preservation of food products in cold storage. This investigation takes a double course. One is to determine to what extent the cold-storage process is used to stow away different kinds of food when they are excessively cheap in order to maintain a high price on the portion of these products offered to the consuming public. The other is in relation to the effect on the health of the people of the use of cold-storage foods.

The second inquiry is thoroughly germane to the business of the government. It is a legitimate function of good government to do everything in its power to further the physical well-being and to preserve the public health. The investigation cannot be too thorough, provided it is only sincere. If the preservation of food by freezing after any given time deteriorates it materially and thereby endangers the public health, the government will have a right to limit the time in which food should be kept in this kind of way. We are not in favor of sumptuary laws, nor are we in favor of the unnecessary interference of the government, whether it be Federal, State or municipal, in the business affairs of the people. Probably the best law that could be passed would be one which would demand of all merchants, large and small, to stamp the time when food products are put in storage in order that the consuming public may know just what they are buying and using. Beyond this the government should not go, excepting in extreme cases where the stored food is known to be unfit for human food.

As to the other branch of the inquiry, the government will need to be still more chary of the exercise of its powers. There are times when eggs, butter, poultry and different kinds of fruit come on the market in excessive quantity. If there is not some disposition made of a portion of it the prices will become ruinously low in so far as the producers are concerned. Now, the producer merits the attention of the government quite as much as the consumer. But that is not the real point. Any unnecessary interference of the government with the natural course of the markets will not be for the good of producer or consumer, but the contrary. By the use of cold storage the cost of food products has been equalized along the different seasons of the year. Butter, eggs and fruit do not become drugs in the market at one season and extremely scarce at another. By the preservation of a quantity of them in cold storage, undoubtedly the market has been prevented from going to pieces.

Governments have a right to see that food is not destroyed. If a portion of the product at the flush season is put away in order that it may decay and become spoiled, a penalty should be attached to such a practice. The other day we were informed from Sacramento that fishmongers of that city were in the habit of sending to the incinerator tons of fish every day in order to keep the price of that food on the market at a high point. This is a crime as well as a sin. The cupidity of the fishermen results in the taking of excessive quantities of fish, and then the cupidity of the fishmongers leads to the wanton destruction of this food, while the consumer is taxed unnecessarily. It should be competent for the government to stop practices like these.

AWAKENING CHINA.

There is no doubt we are in the twentieth century. There can be no longer any question that modernism is alert, even rampant, in the world. The little diplomatic misunderstanding between the Vatican and Col. Roosevelt is of no more weight than a feather compared with the rupture between England and China.

A prince of the royal blood from Peking is about to make a pretty extensive tour of the world. The British government sent a bullying message to the Emperor of China that the young prince would not be received at the court of St. James unless certain concessions asked by the English were granted by the Chinese.

In days gone by, remembering Britannia's thunders roaring at the gates of Chinese coast cities to enforce the admission of baleful opium into the Flowery Kingdom, we would have expected this demand of our friend John Bull to bring all Chinamen to their knees and the court cringing before the lion to help himself to anything he wanted, and if he did not see what he desired, to ask for it.

But that was in a past age. In the twentieth century things are different even in China. The young Chinese prince is told to cut Great Britain from his visiting list and let the lion roar in unsatisfied rage.

We hope this is an index of the awakening of China. It is a great empire, full of undeveloped wealth, and with a teeming population of willing and skillful hands to develop the wealth if only the way were shown. All China wants is leaders to become one of the greatest powers in the world. We want no concessions in China that the Chinese government will not grant willingly. If China can do her own developing we shall be satisfied. We do want China developed. We want this index of the spirit of modernism made more than a sign. We want the actual power of awakening and development to come.

With China's teeming population once awake and once imbued thoroughly with the spirit of the twentieth century, the openings there for trade between our country and that oriental people will be almost beyond the scope of figures to state what it will be.

The United States is a little more developed than China, but our development is only just at the threshold. We were once the chief exporter of food products. We are lagging far behind our former record in this respect, and if we are to maintain our foremost position as the country of the greatest wealth in the world we must find markets for our new exports, which will be mostly products of factories and mills rather than of farms and woodlands. Our sole interest in China is the development of the wealth of that nation, for with such development will come a lifting of the Chinese to a higher plane of living where the demand for the output of western industries will be equal to that of half the human race at the present time.

DR. COOK'S TURN NOW.

Jack Cudahy has emerged from retirement and taken to golf playing again. Jere Lillis has been discovered, trying to sneak out of the country incognito for a trip to Europe. It would seem Dr. Cook's turn now once more to show himself before his fellow-men and crawl out of his hiding place.

UNCLE WALT, WARBLER.

BY UNCLE WALT MASON OF EMPORIA.
Where Grows the Sunflower.

How true it is, as Burns once said, that man was made to mourn! The man who has no aching head, is sure to have a corn. My tooth was aching, day by day, with loud, insistent hum; I stuffed it full of prairie hay, and put dope on the gum; in one tired hand my jaw I held, with tears bedewed the floor; I walked the floor all night and yelled, and pranced, and pawed, and swore. And then an inspiration came; I had the tooth pulled out—and then I found that I was lame with forty kinds of gout. I never knew the gout was there until the tooth was gone; ah, how I raved, in my despair, that I had had it drawn! The doctor came, to cure the gout; my foot was boiled and fried; he poured dope in me with a spout, and shot it through my hide. One day he gave a joyful cry: "It leaves, my friend, it leaves!" And when the gout had said good-by, I found I had the heaves. And so I bear this chaste disease, and will until I die, and you may hear me cough and wheeze as you go loping by. I bear it with a cheerful mind, this ill that seems a curse, for if I lost the heaves, I'd find that I had something worse.

A Great Man.

To say of Justice Brewer that he was a great judge and a great man is to sum up his character. By his profound learning, by his force of intellect, by his broad sympathies and by his fine democratic instincts he impressed himself upon his generation as few persons held down by judicial conditions ever have done. In him the balance between the professional jurist occupied with abstruse questions of law and the individual citizen mindful of the human cares that occupied the men and women of his day was wonderfully adjusted. The judge never submerged the man. In both respects he rose fully to his responsibilities. On the bench Justice Brewer compelled public respect by his independence of action, by the clear, direct logic of his opinions and by the breadth of his views. In private and on the platform his frankness of speech and religious devotion to principle in spite of the boisterous tendencies of the times made him a wholesome influence among thinking people.—[New York World.

S.S.S. A REAL CURE FOR BLOOD DISEASE

S. S. S. is a real cure for Contagious Blood Poison because it is a real blood purifier. We all realize that this disease is a specific blood infection of the most powerful nature, the virus of which so thoroughly poisons the corpuscles of the circulation that its symptoms are manifested over almost the entire body. First comes a tiny sore or pimple, then the mouth and throat ulcerate, the glands in the groin swell, the hair begins to fall out, skin diseases break out on the body, sores and ulcers appear, and even the bones ache with rheumatic pains. It is reasonable to believe that in a blood poison so powerful as this that only a blood purifier can have any permanent good effect. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and by thoroughly cleansing the blood of every particle of the insidious virus makes a permanent and lasting cure of Contagious Blood Poison. It does not hide or cover up the disease in the system but it entirely removes the last trace of its destructive germs. If you are suffering with this disease S. S. S. will cure you because it will cleanse your blood and enrich its health-promoting corpuscles. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and is a medicine so absolutely safe and certain in its results, that everyone may cure themselves at home, and be assured the cure will be permanent and lasting. Home Treatment book containing much valuable information for successful treatment sent free to all who write.

Since 1875 we have been using this name "Ground Chocolate." It is "Ghirardelli's" that people think of when they hear the name, "Ground Chocolate," and the use of this name to describe imitations is misleading, delusive, deceptive; it is an attempt to get people to buy imitations under an erroneous impression.

It is easy, however, for you to protect yourself from these imitations. Just read the label and don't be satisfied with "Ground Chocolate" unless the name "Ghirardelli's" appears with it.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Will Be Struggle for Trip to Cincinnati.

Temple Church Boosters to Give Banquet.

Noted Speakers from Abroad in City Tomorrow.

The diocesan convention of the Episcopal churches of Southern California will be held at the Pro-Cathedral in this city, beginning Wednesday, May 18. Perhaps the most interesting matter that will come before the convention, aside fro mthe regular important work of the diocese, will be the election of deputies to the Cincinnati convention, in which a lively contest is promised.

It is expected that Dr. A. B. Shields, general secretary of the Immanuel movement, will be in attendance at the convention in this city, and will give a series of lectures, the exact dates of which have not yet been fixed. A wide interest was manifested in the movement in this city last fall, but since thta time but little has been heard of it. Dean MacCormack of the Pro-Cathedral said yesterday that Dr. Shields has been urged to open a sanatorium at San Francisco, by the bishop of Northern California, but he has declined to do so, inasmuch as it would require too much of his time.

BOOSTERS' BANQUET.

TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Temple Baptist Church has evolved the scheme of a "boosters' banquet," to be given on Tuesday evening at the Federation Club, and every member of the church is urged to become a "booster." If they concluded to do so, on that particular occasion, the banquet quarters would have to be enlarged. At the present time there are about 250 acceptances in hand, or less than one-fourth the membership. The principal address will be made by Bishop William Bell of the United Brethren Church, one of the most powerful speakers, one of the most Brougher willworkers in the city. Dr. be a progressive also speak and there will also be a programme of music. Plans and ideas for the future of Temple Church will be discussed around the table, and it promises to be a great occasion.

NOTED PREACHER HERE.

WILL BE HEARD TOMORROW.

Rev. H. Wray Boyle of Lake Forest, Ill., who was the principal speaker at the Capitola conference, which has just closed, will speak twice in this city tomorrow. In the morning he will accupy the pulpit of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, filling the place of Dr. Hugh K. Walker, who is on a trip around the world, and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock he will deliver an address at the Young Women's Christian Association. Yesterday morning he addressed the students of Occidental College. Dr. Boyle is a most effective and eloquent speaker, and a special invitation is extended to all women to hear him tomorrow afternoon. At the same meeting short talks will be made by city and student delegates, who attended the conference.

THE WANDERING JEW.

NOTED HEBREW SPEAKER.

"The Wandering Jew" will be the subject of a lecture at the Y.M.C.A. men's meeting on Sunday afternoon by Joseph Cohn of New York, son of the famous rabbi, Leopold Cohn. The speaker will appear in the white, flowing robes of the Pharisee, and is said to occupy a field entirely his own. He is earnest and enthusiastic, and tells a graphic story of life among his people, both in this country and foreign lands. He addressed a large audience at the Y.M.C.A. last night.

RELIGIOUS BRIEFS.

THE VATICAN INCIDENT.

Dr. Charles Edward Locke, taking advantage of the Vatican incident, will preach tomorrow night in the First Methodist Church on "Methodism in Rome; Has It Any Right There? The Truth About Its Methods of Work." Dr. Locke announces that it is not to be an acrimonious discussion, but "a sermon in the interest of truth, justice and fair play."

The Highland Park Presbyterian Brotherhood will be addressed on Tuesday night by E. A. K. Hackett of this city, in the church at Avenue 53 and Pasadena avenue.

Anybody who wishes to know whether it is very easy or extremely hard to be a Christian in this city, may have his ideas sharpened by hearing a sermon by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher of Temple Baptist Church, in the Auditorium, on Sunday night. He will answer the question, "Can a Man Live in Los Angeles and be a Christian?"

"The Cost of a Boy" will be the Sunday-night topic of Dr. William Horace Day, in the First Congregational Church, and in the morning he will preach on "A Working Creed." Tuesday evening he will deliver his second lecture on "The Land Where Jesus Lived" at the Young Women's Christian Association.

Mel Trotter has returned from his vacation at Catalina and will speak at the Union Rescue Mission on Sunday evening. P. P. Bilhorn will conduct the music and sing solos.

LARGER BUILDING PROJECTED FOR YOUNG MEN.

Los Angeles Y.M.C.A.,

showing two additional stories planned. In extending its magnificent home to a height of ten stories, the association is realizing the dreams of its founders and carrying out the designs of Arthur B. Benton, the architect of the present building.

Two extra stories, affording dormitory accommodations for 125 men, are to be added to the eight-story building of the Young Men's Christian Association on South Hope street. Plans looking to such an end are now being worked out by the board of directors of the institution. The addition is made imperative by the phenomenal growth of the association, which now has a total membership of 4200.

The idea is not a new one, for the building was originally designed to extend to a height of ten stories. Plans covering the improvement were prepared in the offices of Arthur B. Benton, the architect of the structure, and even the estimates on the steel work were taken at the time the present building was started. After these plans had been drawn, the Building Committee found that its funds would not permit of the full ten-story structure. It was also thought by many at the time that eight stories would suffice for a generation.

This latter idea was dispelled within a short time after the occupation of the building in September, 1908, for every available room was at once taken. From that date to this there has been a constant waiting list of young men who wanted to room at the association. The present dormitory facilities accommodate only 140 men. The additions proposed will therefore almost double the present capacity.

Christian Endeavor.

FOREVER IN THE PRESENCE.

Terse Comments Upon the Christian Endeavor Topic for April 10: "God Is Here."—[Ps. 139, 1-12.

By William T. Ellis.

"God is nowhere," wrote the infidel in scorn; "God is now here," read his little child, stumbling into the truth. A new sense of the reality of God, and of his present movings in the world, seems to be coming over mankind. The only key to present developments in contemporaneous history is this fact of God. Because he is on the field, directing and controlling, our day is luminous with new light and life. Even the thoughtless can scarcely escape seeing that present history is just His story.

Cheer and courage and inspiration are in the thought that He whom we serve knows our feeblest endeavor. He not only sees every deed we do and every word we speak in the name of love, but every holy aspiration, every yearning for usefulness, every Christ-like desire is also known to his loving heart.

The secret of faith, the secret of endurance, the secret of success in the Christian life, is "seeing Him who is invisible," The apostle was not merely using a beautiful descriptive phrase when he said, "Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith," but he was stating a stupendous and a living truth. We get all our faith by keeping the eye firmly fixed upon Him in whom faith has its beginning and end. Would you trust more? Then look at Jesus more.

Christ himself was crucified, but all the powers of Jewry and Rome could not crucify his influence. That will go on in ever-growing and never-ending power so long as earth or heaven endures. In like manner does the influence of every life extend, no matter what its circumstances or experiences may be. Has your life seemed a failure? Is its end a cross? Wait; some hundreds or thousands of years must pass away before its influence can be measured. Not until then can its success or failure be judged.

Because God is everywhere—a token of his sovereignity—he is very near to each one of us,—a token of his Fatherhood.

Jesus was a revolutionist. He came to upset the old order of affairs and to make all things new. Former standards of life and justice he has overturned. He is still at work fulfilling his mission of making a new world, filled with new men and women.

God was a provincial God to the world into which Christ came. The Jew had no idea that God's love could extend beyond Jewry. To him Jehovah was only a national deity. But Jesus brought to the earth the truth that God's love embraces all his children everywhere. The mission of our Master was to bear the gospel to all the world. In him was manifested the largeness of the love of God.

The aim of all ages has been to know about God. The universal craving is for the unseen. That craving the Bible meets. It tells all we need to know about God in order to please him, to serve him, to live with him, and to be like him.

If God be the God whom the great mass of humanity has by common consent declared him to be, then he is too great to have any bounds set to his character or power. Grant him omnipotence, and we must also grant him omnipresence. If he, being such as he is, is anywhere, he must be everywhere.

An obedient child delights in the presence of its parent; a disobedient child dreads it. What we think of the omnipresence of God is largely determined by what our moral attitude toward him has been.

and whom we cannot understand. Whose sacred office it is to reveal Christ to the world. The Holy Spirit alone makes communion possible. By him we are drawn near to the Saviour whom our hearts love; our fellowship with Christ is a fellowship in the Spirit.

This material world would be a better world if it were more conscious of the vital of the unseen world.

Just as really as Christ was with Peter in the boat, just as Christ sat with John at the table, so really can I have Christ with me.—[Andrews Murray.

Before you pray to Christ, think of him as he was some time on earth, healing Bartimaeus," for example, or talking in the Bethany home, or walking on the seas; then remember that just as he was then, he is now with you in your room.—[A. R. Wells.

Christ departed from earth and the Holy Spirit came so that we could think of God not as merely in Palestine, but also in London, New York and Chicago.—[Amos R. Wells.

SEEKS LONG-LOST SON.

Left Memphis in Wagon Twenty-nine Years Ago—Mother Anxious to Hear of Him.

Mrs. V. E. Roberts, residing at No. 352 East Fifty-first street, this city, writes tenderly of a hope that yet fills her breast, for a reunion with her son, Edmund Roberts, who dropped from sight in 1881, and has never since been heard of. At that time his mother lived in Memphis, Tenn., where Roberts was in the fruit business, but he sold out and started West in a wagon, going toward Oklahoma, with the intention of making a farm home for his mother and sisters.

Since the day he left Memphis, he has never been heard of, and if living, he is now a man 62 years of age. He was an industrious man of good habits, and if he was not murdered for his money, the mother, who has changed locations several times since then, and now lives in Los Angeles, indulges the hope that this notice might fall under the gaze of someone who had seen him, or possibly he might read it himself. He is a man six feet tall, broad-shouldered, with dark eyes and pleasant face.

CRAZY SNAKE DISCOVERED.

HENRIETTA (Okla.) April 3.—Chitto Harjo (Crazy Snake,) the famous chief of the Crazy Snake band of warriors, and hero of many bloody Indian massacres, who for nearly two years, has eluded the Federal and county officers, is living quietly in a log cabin in the mountains not far from here.

A party of hunters stumbled upon his hiding place, although it is said that every living member of the former Crazy Snake band has known the location of the cabin.

Candied Pineapple Strips.

"Candied pineapple strips are delicious and are easily prepared," says Sally Sanders in Woman's Home Companion for April. "The fruit is first peeled, then cut in strips two inches long, half an inch wide and about a quarter of an inch thick. Measure the fruit and add half the quantity of granulated sugar, and let it stand until the sugar is dissolved, which may be nearly twenty-four hours. Drain off the juice and boil it five minutes, then add the fruit and cook for three or four minutes; drain the pineapple and spread on a platter to dry. The process may be hastened by putting the platter in the sun, the warming closet or even on the top of a radiator. The fruit should be turned once and then rolled in fine granulated sugar. The process is a much more lengthy one than that required for the fruit peel, but a few pieces put in each box makes a delicious addition."

They Are Wearing:

Hand embroidery, in combination with cluny lace, will give a note of distinction to many a smart tailored linen suit this summer.

A very handsome wood button in green and tan colorings, in which is a bronze dragon or reptilian design, is among the buttons shown.

Linens so closely resembling the time-tasted whipcords that they are deceptive at first glance, are admirably suited to tailor-made suits.

The natural rough-woven Shantung and Tussah will be worn this spring, long traveling coats of this material will be especially smart.

Silk crepes with most stunning borders are among the new dress stuff; of these, borders with bird or floral designs are the most stylish and unusual.

The long hip effect is present in the spring models almost without exception. In fact, this seems to be the feature up-to-date corset design.

Some of the new parasols are of a solid color, veiled with a net embroidered in a thread the same color of the silk or contrasting strongly with it.

Most of the new wraps and hats show a hint of shining metal somewhere about them in clasps or buttons or buckles or beautiful metallic braids or bands.

Lovely is a new scarf of gold and silver wrought tulle, entirely covered with sheerest black mousseline de soie. A softly-plaited silk ruche trims all the edges.

It is difficult to say what will be the greatest favorite, the coming summer—foulard or pongee. Both foulards and pongees are shown in many attractive varieties.

There are indications from Paris of a lowering of the bust line. Many of the higher-priced domestic models are showing the same trend and there seems to be a tendency in this direction.

One of the new shower-proof foulards is most suggestive in its design of the present rage for chanticler effects. The curious swirls of color cannot but bring to mind the plumage of the rooster.

The only thing in the way of lining in costumes of drap de soie, cashmere de soie, liberty satin, etc., is the lining of liberty satin or meteor. Linings must be as soft and flou as they can be clinging.

Many of the bandeaux, whether of metal tissue or of velvet, are fastened with a jeweled buckle. In addition some such ornament as a sheaf of wheat, a quail or a dainty feather, is fastened with the buckle.

There is a note of the barbaric in some of the high novelties and buttons to be worn on the new Russian suits. Beautifully carved wood and artistically developed metals, in hundreds of combinations, make up the "barbaric" lines.

"SAD, SAD MISTAKE."

So Says Guest at Alexandria Who Was Served With Attachment for Suit of Clothes.

"It was a sad mistake on the part of Jerrems, the tailor," said G. H. Grant Wing, the guest at the Alexandria Hotel, who was annoyed by Deputy Constable Johnson with a writ of attachment for $55, claimed by the manager of "Nicoll, the Tailor," of Chicago, last Tuesday night.

Mr. Wing was wroth over the action of A. N. Jerrems, who is the Chicago man who caused the attachment to be made. He declares that it was a piece of absurdity, due to the ignorance of the tailor.

"It is true that I got the suit of clothes made there," said Mr. Wing yesterday, when seen in reference to the occurrence, "but Jerrems blundered woefully over the check that I gave him. He deposited the check with his bank, which naturally declined to give him credit for it until after it had been presented to the Lewiston, Me., bank, upon which it was drawn, for collection.

"Jerrems concluded that this action meant that the check had been dishonored, and away he ran to have the sheriff get after me. My cousin in Chicago, Mr. Lovejoy, wired me that Jerrems had called him up on the 'phone about the check, and I wired back to have him tell Jerrems not to get excited. I knew as soon as the check reached my bank there was nothing to it but the payment of the money.

"I don't think anybody that knows me or my connections will for a moment imagine that I was passing out bad paper, but at the same time it was mighty annoying to have a deputy sheriff coming into one's room and declaring that he had to serve a writ of attachment. Why, I hardly knew what to say or think, though I must say the officer was very decent about it all. Of course, Jerrems got his cash in due course of time without delay, and there would not have been unpleasantness at all except for his sad, sad mistake."

THIS CRIPPLE A FIGHTER.

So effectively did George Harris convert his crutches into weapons of offense and defense yesterday evening that it took four men, and big men, too, to subdue him. One of Harris's legs was amputated close to the body, and he was not a large man before that, but he is still all kinds of a fighter. Patrolman Gregory found him on North Main street and arrested him for begging. Harris, is seems, let fly at the officer's head with one of his crutches, narrowly missing. Officer Ramsey of the District Attorney's office ran up to help Gregory, and there was a swinging crutch waiting for him. A. S. Hamdle of fire company No. 19, and a bystander joined in the melee, but after they had succeeded in dodging busy for some time before they could handcuff the prisoner. At the City Hall Harris was so unruly that it was necessary to chain him down in one of the cells where he lay on the flat of his back and kicked at the door at the risk of breaking his ankle.

LOCAL RAILROAD RECORD.

STRAIGHT FOR MEXICAN GULF.

SANTA FE GETTING READY FOR THE PANAMA CANAL.

Laying Rails from Texico to Coleman, Which Will Give It Shortest Line from San Francisco to Southern Waters—Other Construction Work and Cut-offs.

Vice-President J. W. Kendrick of the Santa Fé, who left Chicago last night for Los Angeles, will not make the run direct to this city, but probably will inspect the building now going on in Texas on his way west.

When improvements now under way are complete in the Lone Star State, the Santa Fé will have the western part of Texas better covered than any other line. Not only is the road building a 110-mile cut-off from Texico to Coleman, by which it will obtain a short line from the Pacific Coast to the Gulf of Mexico, but it is also building a 200-mile extension to its San Angeleño branch, connecting with the Pecos Valley line at Pecos.

The Texico-Coleman cut-off is the most important work now going on, for with its completion the Santa Fé will have a shorter line from San Francisco to the Gulf than any other line; but the Southern Pacific still will have the shorter line from Los Angeles, although the Santa Fé will be in a position to become a close competitor to the Lovett road.

The grade has been completed on this road from Coleman to Sweetwater, which lies eighty miles to the northeast, and about thirty miles of track is laid. From Sweetwater to Lubbock, a distance of 125 miles, a part of the grade is finished.

Trains are now operated from Cañon City, on the Panhandle, south to Lubbock, but the cut-off will be extended from Lubbock to Texico, the eastern end of the Belen line, to Coleman. From there the Santa Fé has a line east to Temple, and from there southeast to Galveston.

It is understood the Santa Fé not only is building this line to develop Texas, but is also preparing to protect itself from the competition which will follow the completion of the Panama Canal. When the line is complete Los Angeles goods can be shipped to Galveston by the short line, and from there to New York by water. This will give the Santa Fé the long haul, while at the present time the road is forced to give up a large part of its shipments to eastern lines east of Chicago.

From Lometa, a point west of Temple, the Santa Fé is building due west and is opening a new district on the south side of the Colorado River. This line will be extended to San Angeleño and from there a new branch will be built 200 miles west to Pecos, and may eventually extend to El Paso.

This one also will be connected with the Texico-Coleman line by a north and south branch from a point fifteen miles from Lubbuck to Sterling, fifty miles west of San Angeleño.

In the meantime the double tracking of the main line in the East is going on rapidly and on the Illinois-Missouri division twenty-six miles of double track has just been put into operation. From Kansas City to Newton there is another double track, and the same thing is true from Newton to Albuquerque, although the lines are several hundred miles apart.

The Times has already given a comprehensive report of the track building now going on in the West.

ONLY EIGHT WILL MARRY.

WELLESLEY (Mass.) April 8.—Only eight members of the graduating class of 221 girls at Wellesley College intend to become wives. According to the statistics collected by the class secretary, one-third of the class will take up teaching as a profession, while another third plan to stay at home. Two of the seniors intend to become farmers, asserting their belief that, with the increase in the price of farm products, there is a good livelihood to be gotten out of the soil.

A Safe and Sound Investment Is Offered the Public By the Merchants and Bankers Oil Company

604=5=6 Story Building, Los Angeles

THE gentlemen forming this Company have associated with them a number of the best business men and financiers of the country, forming the Merchants and Bankers Oil Co., incorporated for the purpose of producing and selling oil. The Company is incorporated for 1,500,000 shares of a par value of $1 each. 100,000 shares will be offered to the public directly by the Company (No commission will be paid to anyone, all money going into the treasury for development purposes, at 40c per share. The Company owns (purchased and paid for in full by its officers and directors) 160 acres of patented and proven oil land in the Kern River field, being the northwest quarter of Section 20, 28-28 (look at your map.)

Kern River land is absolutely proven oil land, with 250 to 275 feet of oil sand. Each well produces from 40 to 60 barrels daily, and as has been proven, will keep it up for 30 years. Conservative experts and investors consider the Kern fields the most valuable in the world, as it is absolutely sure and reliable—furnishing a constant flow of oil.

The Company also owns 160 acres in Section 4, 31-24, North Midway, which will also be developed with the possibility of gushers. The M. & B. Oil Co. is free from debt, has its property all paid for and $40,000 in its treasury with which to begin drilling. Eighty (80) wells will be sunk on the Kern River property, the work having already been ordered, and it is safe to say that these wells will produce an average of 40 barrels a day each, or a total of 3200 barrels per day, which, at the conservative price of 50c per barrel will pay $1600 a day, $48,000 a month and $576,000 annually, which will pay over 33 per cent, dividends, or, annually, within 7 per cent. of the amount of your investment. This, without taking into consideration the 160 acres in North Midway. This is a conservative estimate.

The object of selling this allotment of stock is to enable the Company to more rapidly push the development work. It is the intention to put down and complete five wells per month.

For a safe, sound and conservative investment the stock of this Company is the best that has been offered the investing public in years. It is not a gamble in any sense. It is a certain productive investment. This stock will be listed on the exchange within 90 days and will be paying dividends within 6 months.

The directors of the Merchants & Bankers Oil Co. ask the fullest investigation of their property, title and ownership, and the character, standing and responsibility of their officers and directors.

Applications for the stock of the Company can be made by mail or in person at the Company's office. Allotments will be made in the order in which applications are received.

SECOND DAY'S EVENTS.

THE TIMES HANDICAP DOPE ON THE MOTORDROME RACES.

DOPESTERS who have figured the possible showing of the cars in today's races are most interested in the handicap events which Alvan McMurtrie is working out carefully.

FIRST RACE.

Fifteen-mile free-for-all handicap, Class D:

Simplex, 90-H.P., scratch: Broke world's record for ten miles yesterday and turned miles at an average of 29s. Is wonderfully fast and should win unless Oldfield is given a good handicap.

Knox (Oldfield,) 60-H.P.: Has a good chance with Oldfield at the wheel. Showed great speed in the ten-mile race yesterday, which was won easily. Is the fastest stock car in its class on the track.

Apperson (Hanshue,) 45-H.P.: Took second place in the ten-mile race yesterday and has done miles in 44 1-5s. Hanshue has a chance to win if he gets more than a 10s handicap over Oldfield. He may not get more than 5s., however, as he was a good second to the Knox yesterday in the ten miles.

Palmer-Singer (Lescault,) 60-H.P.: An unknown quantity in the races, as the car did not appear yesterday. Lescault is a great driver and has won many events. It is a question of handicap over the Simplex with Lescault, who will have to start with Barney Oldfield.

Stoddard-Dayton (Livingston,) 60-H.P.: Should start with the Apperson in this race. Took fourth place to the Knox, Apperson and Isotta yesterday. Showed fast miles, but was not consistent.

Isotta (Marquis,) 45-H.P.: Should start with the Apperson and Stoddard-Dayton. Marquis could win with a handicap of 15s over the Apperson and Stoddard.

Marmon (Harroun,) 40-H.P.: With a handicap of 40s the Marmon has a chance to win.

Cole (Endecott,) 30-H.P.: With a 60s handicap has a splendid chance for first place.

Ford (Hampton,) 20-H.P.: If this car gets a 3-minute handicap look out for a sensation. Barney Oldfield may be beaten by one of the smallest cars on the track.

Hupmobile (Kelly,) 20-H.P. Starting with the Ford, this car would have a scant chance. With a four-minute handicap the Hup might be able to win.

SECOND RACE.

Ten-mile free-for-all, class D:

Simplex (Robertson,) 90-H.P., has the best chance in this race and should win. The car showed as great speed as the Fiat yesterday, when De Palma drove the Italian car. Robertson is a better driver than Bragg.

Fiat "Cyclone," 90-H.P. (De Palma.) Third choice because of its lower horse power. This deficiency may be made up by De Palma, who is one of the ...ered the two-mile world record yesterday. Kerscher has never won a long race, however, and can hardly be doped to show in this classy event.

THIRD RACE.

Five-mile stock chassis, class C division, 5,451,600 cubic inches displacement:

Knox (Oldfield,) 60-H.P. Fastest stock car in its class. If the Knox draws the pole Oldfield is almost certain to win easily. It is doubtful if any man can pas Oldfield on any track in this class.

Fiat (De Palma) 60-H.P. One of the fast cars and good for a mile in 44s. If the Fiat should get the pole De Palma may win.

Apperson (Hanshue,) 45-H.P. Should get third place, as the Knox and Fiat are both faster. The race is not long enough for the red racer.

Stoddard-Dayton (Livingston,) 60-H.P. Doped for fourth place. Livingston would do remarkably well to show in this class. He is almost certain to be beaten by Oldfield, De Palma and Hanshue.

Great Western (Deseran,) 40-.H.P. Has no chance in this race, but is entered in the hope of making a good showing against the higher-class cars.

FOURTH RACE.

Fifty-mile stock chassis Class C division, 2161-230 cu. in.

Stoddard-Dayton (Livingston,) 60-H.P.: Should start with the Apperson in this race. Took fourth place to the Knox, Apperson and Isotta yesterday. Showed fast miles, but was not consistent.

Isotta (Marquis,) 45-H.P.: Should start with the Apperson and Stoddard-Dayton. Marquis could win with a handicap of 15s over the Apperson and Stoddard.

Ford (Hampton,) 20-H.P.: If this car gets a 3-minute handicap look out for a sensation. Barney Oldfield may be beaten by one of the smallest cars on the track.

SECOND RACE.

Ten-mile free-for-all, class D:

Simplex (Robertson,) 90-H.P., has the best chance in this race and should win. The car showed as great speed as the Fiat yesterday, when De Palma drove the Italian car. Robertson is a better driver than Bragg.

Fiat (Bragg,) 90-H.P. Second choice in this race, which should be close. Bragg has driven the car miles in 37 4-5s.

SPEED COPS GET RACE OFFICIALS.

While being whirled home from the races at the Motordrome yesterday afternoon, in a fast Ford car, Starter Fred Wagner, C. H. Warner, official timer, and Referee Stevens, Motordrome officials, were "pinched" by the motorcycle "cops" for speeding. The driver of the car must appear in the Police Court this morning to answer a charge of fracturing the city's speed ordinance.

The visitors are among the highest officials of the Automobile Association of America, and are here to conduct the automobile race meet at the Motordrome opening. They were chased by the two motorcycle men along Adams street. Warner asserts they were not speeding. They had seen too many world records broken at the Motordrome to be content with a slow drive.

The fastest time was none too fast for the men who saw Oldfield do a mile in 36 2-5s. yesterday. What was 100 miles an hour to them. They may pay about $25 for their experi-

55s. This seems to be Endicott's race.

Buick (Nikrent,) 30-H.P. Good for second place. Has done miles in 55s., but was beaten by the Cole yesterday. Nikrent was outdriven, as the car seemed to be as fast as the Cole, and Endicott must be given the superiority of choice over the "White Streak."

Ford (Hampton,) 20-H.P. Has upset all dope charts and may figure as a first-place winner. One of the hardest cars on the track to dope. Has done miles in 57s. and yesterday was one of the most consistent performers in its class. Hampton may win this race. If he cannot get enough speed out of the car, E. Roger Stearns, who can drive some himself, may take the wheel.

Warren-Detroit (Miller,) 30-H.P. Has a chance to show.

Firestone-Columbus (Linthwaite,) 30-H.P. Has a chance.

Time—9m. 3.2s. Start—3:10.

Winner brought here from Dallas, Tex., with Harroun's string of Marmons, and was raced at Ascot. It is a stock car without special tuning. Start good. Won by a length and a half in a hard drive all the way. Buick was an easy second and a contender all the way. Firestone got a good start and led on the first lap, and then dropped back gradually. Ford ran consistent race, but was slightly outclassed. Warren-Detroit was distanced.

SECOND RACE—Ten miles, stock chassis, class C, division 5; 451-600 cubic inches piston displacement. Prizes: First, cup; second, cup.

Index.	Auto and Owner—	H.P.	Bore.	Stroke.	Piston displacement.	Driver.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
1	Knox (Barney Oldfield)	6-60	5	6¼	275.16	Oldfield	4	4	2	2	1	1	1	1

5	Great Western (H. O. Vogel)	4-40	5	6¼	452.08	Deseran	5	5	5	5	5	5	5	5

Time—7m. 49 2-5s. Start—3:27.

Start standing, fair for all but Great Western, which had to be cranked and lost half a lap. Knox won easily by eighth of a lap, after rather poor start. Apperson close up in sixth, seventh and eighth, then began to lose ground. Stoddard got away hundred yards in lead in first lap and held advantage until fifth, when cylinders began to miss and it dropped away rapidly and was out of it. Isotta got away close up to the Stoddard. But when Knox and Apperson got warmed up it did not show speed enough. Great Western finished as a matter of form. Scratched, Fiat.

THIRD RACE—Five-mile free-for-all, class D. Prizes: First, $100; second, $50.

Index.	Auto and Owner—	H.P.	Bore.	Stroke.	Piston displacement.	Driver.	1	2	3	4	5
3	Fiat (Fiat Auto Co.)	4-190	7½	6¾		De Palma	1	1	1	1	1
2	Simplex (Simplex Auto Co.)	4-160	6¾	6½		Robertson	2	2	2	2	2

3	Reo-Bird (Bruno Siebel)	4-32	4¾	6	425.28	Siebel	4	4	4	4	4

Time—3m. 16 31-100s. Off—3:46.

Start, rolling, excellent. Fiat took pole and was never headed. Won by hard drive by half lap. Simplex second by 100 yards. Reo-Bird outclassed and was lapped. Simplex showed trifle more speed, but in riding high was unable to creep ahead of the Fiat, which ran consistently and always seemed to have enough in reserve to stand off the Simplex rushes. Robertson took all kinds of chances, but was unable to shove ahead. Darracq early dropped back and lost ground steadily; it was too light for the speed it developed and Kerscher had trouble finding a steady course. The Reo-Bird was a joke in this class, although it ran steadily. Scratched: Fiat Cyclone, Fiat 150 and Fiat Ninety.

FOURTH RACE—100 mile, stock chassis, class C, division 5. Championship. 251-300 cubic inches piston displacement. Prizes: First, trophy and $200; second, $100; third, $50.

4	Corbin (Seeley Ignition Co.)	4-30	4½	6¼	270.32	Livingstone	3	3	3	3	3	3	..	..	..	..

Time—1h. 25m. 22 7-100s. Off—4:03.

Start, rolling, excellent. Marmon took the pole, but the Dorris, riding high, nosed out the Marmon in several laps. For mile after mile the Dorris rode high, being but half a length ahead. The two cars jockeyed closely for ten miles, after the eightieth, when the Marmon pulled ahead by a length and held the position until the ninetieth mile, when the Dorris grabbed the lead for a half lap, then dropped back to a position about one hundred yards behind the Marmon at the finish. The Corbin developed engine trouble early in the race and dropped out of the running at the fifteenth mile. The front truck was bouncing in an alarming manner. The car re-entered the race at the fifty-fifth mile, but was hopelessly beaten.

MOTORDROME RACES.

the best race of the day. His time, 7m., 49 2-5s., is only two seconds under the world record, held by Robertson.

Hanshue took a good second place, and was not disgraced. His car is fast, but not fast enough to beat the Knox. The Isotta was third, with Marquis climbing toward the front in big jumps. The car was working perfectly at the end of the ten miles, and is certain to figure in every race in which it is entered, if it acts as it did yesterday.

BARNEY IS PUZZLED.

Oldfield was puzzled and apparently beaten as the Stoddard, with Livingston driving the car wide open, rushed past the wire for the first mile with a good lead over Hanshue on the Apperson, who was second and J. B. Marquis on the Isotta, who was a good third. Boxed in an awkward position, Oldfield showed his class as a driver and Wagner and smiled. Calmly Barney changed gears and at the half-mile post had the Knox well in hand. The big stock car began to respond and the Isotta was picked up.

His burst of speed, as he sent the Knox ahead of the Isotta, made Oldfield's friends hope for something better than a shutout. When Barney passed the Stoddard, which had dropped into second place, the crowd saw one of the greatest races ever witnessed on any track.

"There is perhaps not another man on the track today who could have urged his car ahead of such talent as Oldfield had to drive against. Harris Hanshue knows how to drive. Before the race was five miles old, Oldfield, left at the scratch, was in second place with only Hanshue on the swift Apperson ahead of him.

By a decision made by Referee Stevens last night Ralph de Palma cannot drive the Fiat "ninety" in any events on the Motordrome course during this meet. De Palma broke the rules yesterday by entering two cars in a race and then failing to drive either. At the last minute, without permission Fiat "Cyclone" in the stock-car events, that is in races over five miles. He must use the 120-horse-power Fiat in the match race with Barney Oldfield and the shorter time trials. De Palma won the five-mile race yesterday with Caleb Bragg's car.

Bill Pickens, manager for Oldfield, made a formal protest, which the contest board member, who is referee, considered carefully before rendering the important decision. Pickens claimed that Oldfield was not getting a square deal.

The action of the committee last night is certain to meet with the approval of all automobile men. Referee Stevens is fair. The match race question is settled. Oldfield will drive his Benz and De Palma his Fiat, the biggest cars on the track, and the races will be five miles each, the best two in three heats.

SHORT, FIERCE DASHES.

Today's programme at the Motordrome will consist of short, fierce dashes which are full of sensational driving. No race is longer than fifty miles, and at a conference last night between officials and the Motordrome management, all 100-mile events will be cut to fifty miles except the $1000 race on the last day.

Ralph de Palma and Barney Oldfield will have a near-match today, when each will go after the other's world record, made yesterday. Oldfield will send his Benz after De Palma's five-mile mark of 3:15.62, and he intends to make the lowering decisive. De Palma will try for the one-mile, and if he lowers Oldfield's mark he will do better than 100 miles an hour.

Caleb Bragg has asked for a chance to make new amateur records from one to five miles. Before he leaves Los Angeles he says he will establish a complete set of world's amateur records which are likely to stand until a Motordrome is constructed in the East.

The favorite races with the crowd yesterday were those which were quickly run, and were filled with changes in position which kept up a tense excitement for every second of the race. Today's events are all of this nature with the possible exception of the fifty-mile event, and this promises to call forth all the skill of the small car drivers contesting.

POOR RECOVER SLOWLY.

Increase in Cost of Living Makes It Difficult to Overcome Aftermath of the Panic.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—Charitable organizations here take a gloomy view of recent statements from various sources to the effect that prosperity has returned. The annual report of ... relief department of the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, says:

"New York City is only about 15 per cent. recovered from hard times, and the higher cost of living has been the principal reason for the retarding of this recovery. The total number of cases before the association at present shows 50 per cent. increase over the same period in 1906, a normal year, and only 11 per cent. decrease from the last year.

"The statistics of application for relief during the months following acute industrial depression are a fair index of the degree of recovery reached by the poor. Our work for the last six months shows the poor are still reaping the aftermath of the panic. The very poor are getting on their feet slowly. Newspapers and public speakers may be enthusiastic in their descriptions of the 'better times' that are now with us, but families that for months were underfed and overanxious because work and income had failed,

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

PASADENA.

HIS POVERTY IS BANISHED.

Man's Life Brightened by Mrs. Russell Sage.

She Provides for Future of Incurable Invalid.

Miss Morgan Dons Riding Suit a la Sears.

Office of The Times, No 28 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, April 9.—Another of Mrs. Russell Sage's acts of charity, performed during her recent visit to Pasadena, came to light last night. Her attention was called to the helplessness of J. Howland, who tries to eke out an existence running a small cigar and peanut stand on Fair Oaks avenue, opposite the main entrance to the Hotel Raymond. Howland was formerly a steward in a big eastern hotel until he was permanently injured in a runaway accident, and became a hopeless paralytic. He is unable to walk, and can get about from one place to another only by crawling.

When the aged philanthropist heard of Howland she sent her chauffeur to make an investigation. On his report she gave him a handfull of $20 gold certificates for Howland "with Mrs. Sage's compliments." Before leaving for the East she made further inquiry regarding Howland, and promised that on her return home she would establish a fund sufficient to maintain him during the rest of his life, providing that he takes care of the money and uses it only for providing the necessities of life.

MISS MORGAN IS JOLLY.

Miss Anna Morgan, daughter of J. Pairpont Morgan, who is at the Hotel Raymond accompanied by her mother and two young lady friends, yesterday showed her fondness for outdoor life. Promptly at 7:30 a.m. she donned her riding habit, patterned after that of Miss Eleanor Sears, mounted a wiry little buckskin mustang and started down the winding path leading from the hotel, accompanied by a guide from the livery stable, at breakneck speed. She led her guide a merry chase about the foothills surrounding Pasadena for three hours. On returning to the hotel she rushed to her apartments, only to appear in a few moments in street dress ready to join a man from Los Angeles who was waiting in a big red Packard touring car. Miss Morgan took one of her lady traveling companions and went for a long motor ride through the orange groves. The party did not get back to the hotel until after dark.

Mrs. Morgan and the other young lady stayed at the hotel until after luncheon, when they motored to Los Angeles to visit friends on West Adams street.

Before coming to the Raymond the Morgan party wrote and demanded secrecy. They stated they wanted a little outing without publicity. The "help" around the big hotel was cautioned to maintain absolute silence regarding their movements. The Morgans were assigned to the same suite of ten rooms occupied by the Carnegie party, at the rate of $1000 per week.

The secret could not be kept, and before Miss Morgan was in the house twenty-four hours every one knew it. She is full of life and fun, and easy to make friends.

WENTWORTH HOTEL.

A rumor has been in circulation for several days that eastern people have secured a long lease on the Hotel Wentworth and will open it early next fall. Henry S. McKee, the receiver, stated yesterday: "Such a thing is practically impossible because the affairs of the hotel are in such shape that a lease cannot be made until after a decision of the Supreme Court, which will not be handed down until the October term. A decision to get a decision at the spring term, but we could not get it through. Nothing can be done until the validity of some of the claims of creditors have been determined. The decision of the Superior Court was expected to end the matter carried to the highest court, as soon as we know definitely in what shape matters are, then we can go ahead and sell. The property is in excellent condition and possibly able to stand idle better than if it were entirely finished. Last week we had everything taken out and dried and cleaned. This probably started the rumor that new parties have taken hold of the property. The total cost of the building up to the present time is about $1,000,000, and I believe it can be sold for at least $600,000."

The improved car service on the Oak Knoll line, which goes directly in front of the Wentworth, will add to the value of the property. It seems doubtful if the decision of the Supreme Court will be given in time for any one to buy the hotel and open it for next year's winter trade.

FOR HOTEL MEN.

Extensive arrangements are being made for the entertainment of the 450 eastern hotel men who will visit Pasadena Wednesday. The visitors will leave Los Angeles in the morning, stop at the Ostrich Farm, then go to Mt. Lowe and come back to the Raymond for luncheon. After dinner the Board of Trade will give them an automobile ride about Pasadena. Sixty cars will be provided and the ride will consist of a ten-mile trip. After the auto ride the visitors will board an Oak Knoll car and be taken back to Los Angeles via that line, stopping to look over the famous Huntington estate. The Raymond is being especially decorated for the occasion.

POLO GAME.

Final arrangements were completed last night for the polo game at Tournament Park this afternoon. Instead of a contest between Pasadena and the Weiss Southwestern team, it will be Riverside against the Weiss. There will be only one Pasadena player, Dr. A. H. Savage, secretary of the Pasadena Polo Club, who will play with Riverside. The line-up will be: Riverside, Pattee, Lett, McVitty, Savage; Southwestern, Tom, William, George, Reggie Weiss. The course is in excellent condition and the game promises to be interesting.

DUAL MEET.

The annual dual track and field meet between Throop and the Pasadena High School will be held tomorrow afternoon on the race track at Tournament Park. The teams of both records are promised. There are fourteen events and from six to eight entries for each.

BUSCH GYMNASIUM.

Adolphus Busch, the aged millionaire brewer, has decided to give his grandchildren the benefit of an excellent athletic training. To this end he recently had built ap rivate gymnasium on his great estate. The youngsters take daily exercise after their lessons are through. Mr. Busch is enjoying better health this spring than for several years. Every day he takes a walk down to his "club," as he calls it. It is a small building on the edge of the famous sunken gardens. When he feels particularly well he goes down to see the children take a turn at Indian clubs.

BRIDGE PARTY.

One of the delightful society functions of yesterday was the informal bridge party given by Miss Geraldine Barry at her home, No. 229 South Orange Grove avenue, in honor of her house guest, Miss Josephine Sullivan of Grand Rapids, Mich. The home was prettily decorated in roses and ferns. Those present were Misses Elizabeth McAedhen, Margaret Armour, Marguerite Torrey, Ethel Love, Mable Love, Florence Thomson, Gladys Gardner, Laura Shields, Jane Rowland, Louise Hawkins, Bessie Mattison, Helen Rowland, Mamie Nimock, Mildred Robertson of St. Paul and Mary Powell of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Irvin Wilson gave a pleasant luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home, No. 305 North Marengo avenue, in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. L. Cote, of Los Angeles. Covers were also laid for Mmes. J. Tibbetts, C. Wynn, A. Cochran, J. Butler, D. Cochran, W. B. Hill.

Mrs. F. W. Kellogg of Altadena gave an elaborate bridge party at her home yesterday afternoon, which was attended by a large number of society women of both Pasadena and Los Angeles. There were seventy-five guests present during the afternoon.

WED IN FIRE STATION.

Santa Monica Girl Marries Angeleno in the Engine-House—Old Man Recalls Comet.

SANTA MONICA, April 8.—The first nuptial contract ever sealed in the fire engine-house was completed last night when Miss Victoria Wallace of Lodi, Cal., became the bride of John T. Boyd of Los Angeles. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. McIntyre of the First Christian Church, in the presence of forty relatives and friends. The bride is a sister of J. C. Wallace of the fire department, who resides with his family in the quarters on the second floor of the engine-house.

For use in case of emergency at the washbowl automobile track, near Playa del Rey, the Bresse Bros.-Todd ambulance was this afternoon taken to the Motordrome. It will be kept there throughout the meet.

After six years as manager of the Southwest Warehouse Company here, President R. H. Dow of the City Council has resigned his position there and will enter another line of business.

A Santa Monican who is watching with considerable interest for the coming of the Halley comet is Edward W. Dike, former State Treasurer of Minnesota, who is hale and hearty at the age of 90. Three-quarters of a century ago, when the Halley comet paid its last visit, Mr. Dike was living with his parents a few miles back in Vermont. He was then a boy of 15 and has a distinct recollection of the illumination. The comet, as he remembers it, was a little below the "Big Dipper" and just south of the North Star. Mr. Dike remembers a shower of stars, which occurred at about the same time. He says this was a grand sight, reminding him of a snowstorm during a heavy wind, the only difference being that each flake was a ball of fire instead of a feather of congealed water.

SOUTH PASADENA.

SOUTH PASADENA, April 8.—At the High School Auditorium, "Scenes in the Union Depot," will be staged by one of the circles of the Woman's Improvement Association, to raise funds for the clubhouse lot. There are fifty well-known people in the cast.

Annual reports of city officials will be read at the next meeting of the Trustees, the 18th inst. Chairman Boothe will prepare a summary of all, giving an outline of what has been done together with an inventory of the city's property. There will also be a detailed financial statement.

Rev. J. Harvey Deere, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church, will deliver a sermon to the candidates for city offices, Sunday evening, in Herlihy Hall, Mission street. It will not be a political sermon, but will deal with the moral issues involved in the government of a city.

The Brotherhood of St. Paul held a banquet in the basement of the Methodist Church this evening. Prof. T. C. Knowles of U.S.C. delivered an address.

SAWTELLE.

SAWTELLE, April 8.—The patrons of the public schools, acting in cooperation with the teaching corps, have completed the organization of a Parent-Teachers' Association. OFFICER'S WIDOW DIES.

BATTERED MAN COMES ASHORE VOWING VENGEANCE.

Tale of the Deep Seas Brought to Long Beach by Miner Who Says He Was Driven from Island by Men Who Jumped His Mining Claims. P.E.O. Sisters Elect.

LONG BEACH, April 8.—John M. Crenshaw, who says he is a miner, arrived in the city this morning, and left at once for Los Angeles, saying he seeks redress on two brothers named Holloway, who, he asserts, have jumped his mining claims on Lower Coronado Island. Crenshaw arrived during the night in a small rakish-looking schooner, bearing the name Jennie D. Under cover of darkness he sailed into the ocean entrance of the inner harbor and anchored near the foot of Third street. His face is badly battered, with fresh cuts under the eye and across the cheek.

He says he staked out some promising quartz claims near "The Cove," on Lower Coronado Island, and then went to San Diego for supplies. He declares that while absent two brothers named Holloway pre-empted his claim and when he returned, attacked him and his two workmen and drove them off the island. He says he will seek legal assistance and, with reinforcements, try to regain his claims. Crenshaw says the island is a rocky barren spot, marked by precipitous cliffs. He thinks his claims are rich in promise of gold.

ENGINE AND COW KILLED.

An auto in which S. N. Butters, wife and son were returning from Los Angeles late last night, collided with a cow on the Ferris road. The engine of the auto was killed and so was the bovine. The auto skidded toward a ditch and Mrs. Butters was thrown out, while Butters himself landed on top of the mangled cow. Mrs. Butters is suffering from the shock and numerous bruises.

William Penn Watson, known throughout the State for his persistent advocacy of dry farming in which he has achieved wonderful results, is lying at the point of death. All the members of his family, some from the East, have arrived and are at his bedside.

A. D. Myers, a Goldfield mining man, was fined $10 by Justice Underwood for battery on Walter Davis. Myers says that he struck Davis because the latter called him a liar.

GRAND LARCENY CHARGED.

The police last night arrested Wm. Mead of this city and Philip Rosenfelt of Los Angeles, junk men, and George Cotton, Walker Flynn, and Ehrman Burrell, on charges of grand larceny. Warrants were sworn out by Superintendent Markley, of the Western Marine Dredging Company. He charges Burrell, Cotton and Flynn with having stolen 400 pounds of copper wire, valued at $125, cut it into two-foot lengths, and sold it for $12 to William Mead, who knew it was stolen. Mead, in turn, sold it to Rosenfelt, who hid it and denied knowledge to the police until shown where it was. The wire was on poles about the inner harbor and was used in supplying the dredger with electric motive power. Mead, Rosenfelt and Flynn were arraigned and held in bonds to appear next week for preliminary hearing. Burrell and Cotton were certified to the Juvenile Court.

BIG BIPLANE.

Bernard Birnie, a young man from South Pasadena, is just finishing, in a barn, a mile north of the city, an enormous biplane, which he hopes will be a success. Young Birnie came here some weeks ago to elude his friends and escape publicity. The biplane is thirty feet wide, forty-five feet long and will carry a fifty-horse-power, five-cylinder engine. It will cost $2000. Young Birnie is putting in steel ribs pressed, his own idea. Each is punctured with many holes, reducing the weight to a minimum. The engine is a Macomber rotary. The cloth for the plane is to be woven from looms owned by Birnie's father in Philadelphia. He expects to patent both the ribs and the cloth. Birnie was born in Philadelphia and has lived in Pasadena five years.

STRENUOUS TRIP.

Charles Glenn, the Long Beach boy accidentally shot at Santa Monica Tuesday by his brother, while the pair were examining an automatic pistol, was brought home last night in an auto and stood the trip well, considering its strenuousness. The trip consumed twelve hours, during which there were three breakdowns and two blow-outs of tires. The party arrived at midnight. No serious effects were noted today and Glenn will be out in a few days.

Citizens approached today favor the proposition that the city offer as a free site for the proposed new Federal building half of the City Hall block on Second and Pacific. There is no legal obstacle in the way. The city purchased the property, 100x256 feet, from the Crocker estate, in 1898, for $2000. According to surrounding values the property today is worth $125,000.

BANQUET IS SUCCESS.

Pomona Ebell Holds Annual Dinner. Pythian Sisters Entertain for Knights.

POMONA, April 8.—The second annual banquet of the Ebell Club, for the benefit of its house fund, was held at the Tavern last evening, 200 guests being present. The room was attractively decorated and an orchestra furnished music. Mrs. J. T. Brady, president, welcomed the guests, and introduced Rev. Dr. R. P. Shepherd, who presided as toastmaster. A vocal duet was rendered by Messrs. Pemberton and Davis. The toasts were bright and witty. Rev. Dr. A. W. Lamport responded to "Her Majesty, the American Woman;" Rev. Albert P. Davis spoke upon the subject "In the Shadow of San Antonio;" Mrs. M. Conboy of Los Angeles, contributed a reading from Kipling and a Dixie tale; a vocal solo was rendered by Miss Leona Warren; Rev. Dr. W. F. Harper's subject was "Be a Sulphite." An inspiring address was delivered by President Blaisdell of Pomona College. An original club song was then given. The affair was most enjoyable and a financial as well as a social success.

SISTERS HONOR KNIGHTS.

The Pythian Sisters entertained in honor of the Knights of Pythias and visiting families with a rollicking farce, "A Case of Suspension," at Pythian Hall, last evening. The cast of characters included Mrs. Eugene McB. Midgley, Kemp Fritz, C. O. Werner, R. B. Midgley and John H. Lee. After the farce, dancing was enjoyed.

The Mystic Five Hundred Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Michael Baldridge, yesterday afternoon. The members who enjoyed the hospitality were Mmes. P. J. Dreher, W. H. Patterson, J. A. Lovey, Florence House, T. Green, W. S. Newton, Bertram Fich, C. G. George, W. Wilkinson, W. M. Avis, and S. S. Beck.

Officers of the Pomona Lodge of Elks have been installed thus: Frank Wheeler, Exalted Ruler; C. G. George, Esteemed Leading Knight; Wayne Foote, Esteemed Loyal Knight; J. Carson, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; Stephen Webb, Secretary; Anson Thomas, Treasurer; Leslie Osborn, Tyler; Ed S. Fairchild, Trustee.

COMMISSION CONVINCED.

Monrovia People Prove to Highway Body Where the Foothill Boulevard Should Run.

MONROVIA, April 8.—In a conference day before yesterday, W. H. Evans, president of the Board of Trade; L. D. Vollmer, Charles Anderson, Arthur Savage and Dr. C. C. Brown, delegates of the same organization, succeeded in convincing the County Highway Commission that the routing of the Foothill boulevard, as understood by electors at the good roads bond election, was in accordance with maps and descriptions published at the time.

There has been no conflict of opinion as to the route via Pasadena and Monrovia, although the commission has seemed in no haste about its improvement. The matter in debate was whether east from Monrovia to Duarte, the boulevard should traverse Duarte or Fallingleaf avenue.

It was conclusively shown by county maps and road surveys that the middle of section twenty-five east from Monrovia, as specified in the bond election, meant Duarte avenue. This point having been determined no question as to the routing of the boulevard remained.

The proposed change from Duarte to Fallingleaf avenue was opposed by the Board of Trade, the Merchants' Association and also by a 90 per cent. petition of Duarte property owners. While it is admitted that the Fallingleaf-avenue route presents some advantages, it was not the route voted for and the majority of frontage owners along it signed the petition favoring Duarte avenue.

VENICE.

VENICE, April 8.—The merchants of Venice have appointed committees for the purpose of arranging a reception in honor of the 450 members of the California Hotel Men's Association, who are due to spend a part of next Wednesday as the guests of this beach. The committee includes city officials and business men and a number of women who are leaders in society.

BANK SALE.

Neeland, Haskell and Hupp Buy Control of Bank of Southern California.

An event of news interest in banking circles is the purchase of the J. B. Lankershim and J. W. Mitchell interests in the Bank of Southern California by Messrs. J. M. Neeland, F. H. Haskell and A. C. Hupp. The interests involved comprise something over 500 shares, and the price to be paid for the stock is $112 per share. Messrs. Lankershim and Mitchell retire from the bank because their other business prevents active participation in the conduct of the institution.

This deal which culminated within the past few days, is the result of negotiations which have been pending for four months, when Messrs. Haskell and Hupp came to Los Angeles, from Illinois, where they had previously been engaged in the banking business, both being bankers of twenty years' experience. Mr. Haskell assumed the cashiership of the Bank of Southern California shortly after his arrival here in January, and after a careful study of the banking situation in Los Angeles, he, together with Mr. Hupp, determined that the opening offered in the Bank of Southern California was worthy of the investment of their funds and the engaging of their active energies.

Mr. Haskell will assume the presidency, while Mr. Hupp's name will be added to the directory, and the latter will also assume the duties of cashier, vice Mr. Haskell.

Mr. Neeland, who has been the bank's president, will remain as an active director, but in resigning the office of president will find time to devote to his extensive railway and land interests.

The Bank of Southern California, according to its last printed statement, has increased its business 113 per cent. in a little over one year's time—since Mr. Neeland became interested in it in January of last year—and with its splendid location in the heart of the new business center of the city, a continued growth is predicted.

The officers of the bank and its directors will be: F. H. Haskell, president; M. N. Newmark, vice-president; Henry A. Coit, secretary; A. C. Hupp, cashier; J. T. Bunn, assistant cashier and assistant secretary; J. M. Neeland, W. E. Hindry, Frank A. Cattern, Lucien Gray and H. J. Dike.

Col. Lankershim, when interviewed by a reporter with reference to the sale of his interest and his retirement as an officer, said: "Yes, Mr. Mitchell and myself have arranged to dispose of our remaining interest not previously sold to Mr. Neeland, and his associates in the Bank of Southern California. My business, and the law business of Mr. Mitchell take all of our time, and prevent us from actively participating in the business of the bank, and we have therefore arranged to sell our stock to Messrs. Neeland, Haskell and Hupp. Messrs. Haskell and Hupp have recently come to Los Angeles and I believe they are very active, energetic and competent bankers, and that they will build up a sound and conservative institution at Seventh and Broadway. We pioneered it there for a long time, but now the locality is particularly good, and there doubtless will be a large increase in the business of the bank, which I hope will be the case and we shall continue to do business with them and hope our friends will."

SHOOTING CASE IGNORED.

Conflicting Testimony as to Who Was Aggressor Decides Grand Jury to Ignore Matter.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

YUMA (Ariz.) April 7.—The case against Frank Wheeler, former Territorial ranger, who shot Frank Butts in a local saloon last December, as a sequence to a previous quarrel between the two, was ignored by the grand jury, which convened here Monday, this action being considerably of a surprise, owing to the publicity of the shooting, which was preceded by words and blows. Fully thirty men witnessed the affair, but, owing to conflicting testimony as to which was the aggressor, a conviction was deemed improbable. Butts is a resident of Phoenix and was visiting Yuma relatives at the time the fight occurred.

District Court convened here Monday, Judge John H. Campbell presiding. The following citizens constitute the grand jury: Ernest Trautman, foreman; James Fuquay, A. H. Neinstedt, Juan L. Noriega, Wallace Adams, John Newman, F. A. Jordan, Peter Reid, Charles H. Polhamus, Nick Larson, Milo Moser, J. F. Mayer, M. S. Hibbard, J. M. Thacker, James L. Clark, Nels Lind, Charles M. Hindman, W. J. Nichols.

Few cases of civil or criminal importance are on the docket, chief among them being the suit of the town of Yuma against J. M. Molina, to condemn certain property on Jones street for street grading purposes, and the suit of Attorney W. F. Timmons against John Lind for $9875, for fees and compensation in a land contest involving acreage worth about $30,000.

"OPEN SHOP" MINES.

DENVER (Colo.) April 8.—Steps to reopen the coal mines in the Northern Colorado fields were taken today, when armed men were sent to protect the properties at Louisville and La Fayette,, and, at the same time, the operators spread 5000 circulars appealing to their former employés to return. The operators state that the mines will be conducted on the "open shop" plan.

COLTON BELLE IS KIDNAPED.

Infatuated Mexican Thought to Be Culprit.

Girl Exchanges Dishwater for Romance.

Leaves Pan at Back Door and Disappears.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLTON, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Felipe Torres, aged seventeen, belle of the Mexican settlement in South Colton, disappeared last evening from her sister's residence on South Seventh street, where she made her home. The girl stepped out of the rear door to empty a pan of dishwater, but failed to return. Becoming alarmed, the family instituted a search, which was fruitless, as absolutely no clew could be found to work on. The general belief of the Mexicans is that Miss Torres was kidnaped by Pablo Sandoval, who has been infatuated with her for months, to the displeasure of the girl's family. All night in the surrounding vicinity are being thoroughly searched in the attempt to locate the couple.

ONLY THE PROPRIETOR.

Considerable excitement was caused last night, when a burglar alarm was turned in that the Terrace Grocery was being robbed. A prominent citizen informed the police that a suspicious-looking character was moving about inside the store and police and citizens hastened to the building, only to find the proprietor himself.

The Methodist Missionary Society met at the Jewell Memorial Church yesterday. Mrs. Walter Campbell president, acted as hostess. Mrs. James Martin was in charge of the programme. Papers were read by Mmes. Martin, George Phillips, John Abbe, James Stoliker, Jennie Bailiff, M. Hatchett and Miss Emma Wood. Mrs. I. N. Oakes lead in the devotionals.

Mrs. A. J. Higgs entertained the members of the Presbyterian Pastorate yesterday at her terrace home. Officers for the ensuing year were elected thus: Miss Beatrice Gregor, president; Mrs. S. B. Fox, vice-president; Mrs. R. E. Davidson, secretary; Mrs. D. W. Willetts, treasurer. Mrs. Anna Doehl was hostess this week to the members of "The Silver Lights," at her home on Sixth street.

Board Plans to Put Up Sixteen-Thousand-Dollar Building in the West End—North and South Will Be Looked After—Y.M.C.A. Makes Plans for Home.

ONTARIO, April 8.—The public school board is planning the erection of a grammar school, to cost $16,000, and is looking for a suitable two and one-half acre site. Central School building is in the eastern section and it is the desire of the board to locate the new building in the western part, somewhere between A and G streets. The board had favored a site at the corner of Euclid avenue and D street, belonging to the Jones estate, but owing to delays in settling affairs it will not be available. One site on D and San Antonio and the Kennedy and Caldwell tracts also on West D street are offered. The new building has been planned as a four-room structure but only five or six rooms will be put up at present, others to be added as needed. The school buildings are also to be added for on Eight street in the western part of the district, and for the South Side. A temporary frame structure that has been doing service on Eighth street school will probably be replaced with a good three-room building. On the South Side the board has not as yet decided as to the improvements, but if the present building is not added to, it will be torn down and a new one put up. When the improvements are all made the school facilities of this city will be first-class.

LOOKS FOR HOME.

The Y.M.C.A. organization is looking for a home. At a meeting of the executive board a pledge was adopted for raising money from business men and others interested in the movement with the view of obtaining permanent quarters. About $700 must go to the Ontario Y.M.C.A. fund from this city before it will be entitled to any money raised by the subscriptions and pledges now going toward purchasing property for the local organization. Men are to be out on the campaign for funds next week.

Union church services which for many years have been held in this city only a month are to be discontinued. There are nineteen denominations represented here and the custom has been to get together one night a month at the churches in turn and listen to an address from a different pastor each time. At a recent meeting of the ministerial union, Rev. Perry of the Baptist church read a paper pointing out the impossibility of discontinuing the union which seemed to be failing in its purpose. The officials of the Methodist church have taken the initiative, in the form of a resolution passed whereby they must signify their intention to participate.

COLORADO DIVERTED?

SAY SECOND SALTON SEA IS FORMING IN MEXICO.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL CENTRO, April 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A report reaches here that the waters of the Colorado are not flowing into the Gulf of California. It is said they have been diverted, probably by an embankment built up by the river's own silt, so that the waters now flow by way of Salt Slough around the south end of the Cocopah Range and into Laguna Salada, in Mexico, west of these mountains, where they are forming a second Salton Sea in Lower California. It is said that from the top of Signal Mountain the Laguna Salada appears to be almost as large a body of water as the Salton Sea. Men from the California-Mexico Land and Cattle Company's ranch have been sent down to Salt Slough to investigate. If the report is correct a party will go from El Centro and Calexico to make an inspection of this little visited region.

STRUGGLE.

FIERCE FIGHT OVER A BARN.

ONE MAN USES MATTOCK, THE OTHER HAS REVOLVER.

Neither Is Hurt—Victorville Man Jailed at San Bernardino Says He Has Power of Turning Aside Bullets and Challenges Officers to Fire Pointblank at Him.

SAN BERNARDINO, April 8.—Frank West, a miner, was brought in from Victorville yesterday, charged with disturbing the peace. Joseph Scheerer is the complainant. The pair fought a terrific battle over possession of a barn, West using a mattock and Scheerer bringing into play a six-shooter, though neither man was injured.

The prisoner asserts that he possesses the power of turning aside bullets. He challenged the officers to fire point blank at him, promising that he could wet their powder before the hammers of their weapons could reach the caps.

MURDERED PLEADS GUILTY.

Walter Knight, colored, was arraigned before the Superior Court this morning, and entered a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree. He killed his wife at Calzona. Knight, a section laborer, imbibed freely of intoxicants, and imagining his wife was planning to leave, shot her in the head. He will be sentenced Monday by Judge Oster.

PATENTS HELD UP.

Federal Authorities Delay Action in Matter of Granting Indians Land Near Banning.

BANNING, April 8.—Word has been received from Washington of the holding up of the patents on lands which were to have been granted to the Mission Indians of the vicinity of Banning. For some time past those interested in the Indians' side of the question have been trying to get land near here secured to the red men. Whites took up the cudgel in behalf of themselves and the proceedings have been called off pending investigation by an inspector for the government. The lands in question are valuable chiefly for grazing and have been used by the whites for many years.

SCENIC ROAD.

A large force of men is completing the mountain road which will connect Banning and the Idyllwild mountain resort, owned by Dr. Walter Lindley and other prominent Los Angeles men. The forest service is assisting Riverside county in the construction of this scenic thoroughfare. The Southern Pacific Railroad is also aiding financially. The work will be done in time for the traffic this season.

ESTIMATES OF TIMBER.

Forest rangers of the Angelus and Cleveland reserves, on the north and south of Banning, are busy making timber estimates. Several months ago an order was sent out to do this work, but the time was so short that an extension was granted. The government wants to know how much standing timber there is in the country, with a view of determining upon how long it will last at the present rate of consumption, with the possible growth taken into consideration.

The Baptist denomination is to have a new house of worship, and work will be started about May 1. It will cost about $3000.

WOMAN GATHERS COIN.

By Means of Limp and Ready Tongue Persuades Santa Ana Officials to Help Her.

SANTA ANA, April 8.—A woman with a limp and a ready tongue gathered coin at the City Hall and she had no more than left town before the officials who contributed to the fund found they had been duped. In Clerk Tedford's office she would not sit down, so severe was her affliction, she said. In Marshal Edwards's office she sat down with the greatest ease. An exchange of ideas, caused the marshal to look through his records, and he discovered the woman's picture among some sent out by the Chief of Police of Ft. Worth last August. She was shown to be a "fake cripple and beggar," and traveled with her husband, Warren H. Baker, alias Frank Howard, who had served time in Kansas for safe-breaking. The officers here suspect that she travels as a spy for her husband, who was here recently and who is said to have been arrested at San Diego. Baker has burn scars on his right jaw and neck. He is 31, the woman 23.

POMONA COUPLE WEDS.

On March 3, when his daughter, Minerva, aged 16, eloped to Santa Ana with Earl Williams, Louis F. De Moranville, a real estate man of Pomona, was hot on the trail, and grabbed young Williams by the throat just as he was leaving this city with the girl after an unsuccessful attempt to overtake them. Instead of taking the young man to jail, De Moranville decided that Santa Ana was a good place for his daughter to be wedded, it evidently looked good to him for his own wedding, for yesterday he arrived here and was married. The license issued was to L. F. De Moranville, 43, and Minnie H. Pregsley, 42, both of Pomona.

Other marriage licenses: John H. Bachman, 23, of Garden Grove, and Lena S. Lee, 25, of Santa Ana; Janus E. Moxley, 32, and Antoinette Hallstock, 33, both of Los Angeles; John C. Ronwer, 22, and Minnie Gerwig, 20, both of Los Angeles; Von C. Wilson, 25, and Elsie M. Osterling, 21, both of Los Angeles; Archie M. Givens, 23, and Ollie Turner, 20, both of Los Angeles.

REDLANDS, April 8.—More than 100 women from all over Southern California attended the annual conventions of the southern branch of the Women's Board of Missions of the Pacific, a foreign society, and the Women's Home Missionary Union of the Congregational Church. The ladies were entertained in various homes.

At the opening exercises, Mrs. J. H. Williams, wife of the pastor of the local Congregational Church, was presented with a purse of $100 in gold, in recognition of her services to the society, of which she has been president for fifteen years. Among the addresses were those of Dr. Daniel F. Fox of Pasadena, on "Modern Miracles," and Robert Watchorn on "Ellis Island and American Civilization."

SERVED CHURCH LONG.

Pastor Emeritus of All Souls, Riverside, Dies at Advanced Age of Eighty-two.

RIVERSIDE, April 8.—Rev. George Henry Deere, D.D., pastor emeritus of All Souls Universalist church, and for many years its active pastor, died last evening at his home at No. 656 Lemon street, at the advanced age of 82 years. Dr. Deere, who came to Riverside in 1881, was the founder of All Souls church. Under his leadership the handsome brownstone edifice at the corner of Lemon and Seventh streets was built, and he was its pastor until 1897, when failing health compelled him to give up the work.

In addition to his work as pastor, Dr. Deere was actively interested in educational matters. For a long period of years he was president of the Board of Education and of the Library Board. During his administration the Carnegie library was located, built and furnished. He was recognized as one of the leaders of Universalism, and in his active ministry of nearly fifty years he held a number of important charges. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Because of the desertion of her husband, Mrs. Amelia R. Glenn of Corona, daughter of Dr. Huff, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce by Judge Densmore in her suit against Charles H. Glenn. Some time ago the husband left home, giving as his excuse that he could not support a family. The wife was granted the custody of the only child, a boy aged five years.

BACK TO THE RECORDS.

THE DEGROAT LAND CONTEST.

IT WAS ORDERED BROUGHT BY THE GENERAL LAND OFFICE.

Evidence Introduced Showing That Defendant Had Not Lived Up to Regulations—Records Show That Francis Cuttle Did Not Seek to Oust Him—Cuttle's Real Interest.

No decision has been rendered as yet in the case of the United States against Richard Henry DeGroat, a land contest begun some time ago by the Department of the Interior.

DeGroat lives on a little ranch in the Santa Ana Cañon, San Bernardino county. Upon the recommendation of a special government agent, the Commissioner of the General Land Office at Washington ordered a contest. The two grounds upon which this was based were: (1) That the claimant had not established and maintained his residence on the land claimed, and, (2) that the land has not been cultivated as required by law.

Charles Post, clerk of the Superior Court of San Bernardino county, was commissioned to hear the evidence. E. Lyders, chief of the field division of special agents, appeared in behalf of the government, and Henry M. Willis was counsel for the contestee.

The government introduced evidence tending to show that DeGroat had not lived up to the somestead regulations, and that his entry should be canceled.

On the other hand, the contestee introduced several witnesses who declared that the place had been improved and cultivated, and that the homesteader had seldom left the ranch for any length of time.

During the course of DeGroat's direct testimonw he said that "there are parties who want to use this land to sink for water."

"Who wanted it?" inquired Attorney Willis.

"The Tri-Counties Reforestation Committee," was the reply.

The witness further stated that it was represented by Francis Cuttle.

Mr. Cuttle is president of the Riverside Water Company, and is interested in the plan to spread storm waters over a considerable area in the winter and spring for the purpose of conserving the water which otherwise would flow away.

In correspondence appearing in The Times, February 20, under a San Bernardino dateline, it was erroneously represented that the DeGroat contest was instituted by the Riverside Water Company, working through the Tri-Counties Reforestation Committee and the Tri-Counties Conservation Committee. There is nothing in the records to show that these committees had anything to do with the inception of the contest.

Nor is there anything in the records in the Land Office to substantiate the allegation that the water company notified the homesteader it would contest his entry, and suggested that he had better see Cuttle.

As far as the evidence goes, the article in question was incorrect in stating that any corporation was seeking to oust the aged ranchman from his little home.

But numerous letters on file in the office of Register Buren and Receiver Robinson show that Cuttle was much interested in the outcome of the case. As indicated above, he has complained of the publication in this paper of February 20, 1910, which contained an erroneous statement, but which erroneous statement is here corrected by The Times.

ANAHEIM.

ANAHEIM, April 8.—Louis Bushard sold his ten-acre improved place today to a newcomer from San Dimas for $3500.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Elliot, aged 71, a well-known resident of West Anaheim, died last night and her body was cremated today in Los Angeles.

John Talmantes, aged 36 years, died at his home at Los Alamitos yesterday and will be buried here tomorrow.

The Home Investment Company has erected six residences, three in Anaheim and three in Fullerton, and will construct at least ten more this year. This concern has received a cargo of lumber and has established its own private lumber yard, the material to be used only for the erection of its own buildings.

Claude Glass is erecting a $2500 residence on Palm street and O. S. Austin is also building a cottage on East street.

CORONA.

CORONA, April 8.—An instructive lecture was given here recently by Prof. William B. Patty, on wireless telegraphy, liquid air and radium. He had a complete wireless telegraphic apparatus, a supply of liquid air and the largest amount of radium outside of the Currie laboratory.

Mason Terpening has sold his home at Ramona street and Grand boulevard to C. B. McConnell of the Corona National Bank. This is one of the show places of Corona. Mr. Terpening will build a bungalow on his lot in the South Main Street tract.

The Tuesday Musical Club held its weekly meeting at the E. P. Newton home on Kellogg avenue. Guests were Miss Gregg and Mrs. Tucker of Riverside.

P. M. Coburn, candidate for Sheriff of Riverside county, was here day before yesterday.

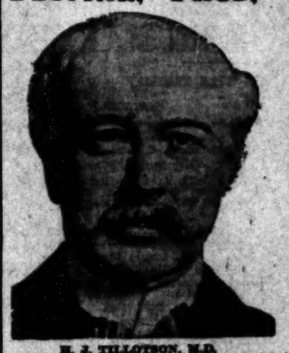
Cured in 5 Days

Hernia, Piles, Varicose Veins



H. J. TILLOTSON, M.D.

MANY CASES PERMANENTLY CURED IN ONE TREATMENT. MOST TIME-SAVING, MOST NATURAL, MOST SAFE. NO DETENTION FROM OCCUPATION, FAMILY OR HOME. A RADICAL AND PERMANENT CURE. I WILL GIVE $500 TO ANY CHARITY AS A GUARANTEE THAT EVERY STATEMENT IN THIS ANNOUNCEMENT IS TRUE.

The most valuable information in the world is to know where to be cured. I am the only Specialist in Los Angeles who does not advertise a fictitious name and photograph. I publish my true photograph, correct name, personally conduct my office. I am the longest established, most successful and reliable, as medical credentials and press records prove. I make this statement so that you will know you consult a celebrated Specialist, who sees and treats patients personally. I possess skill and experience, acquired in such a way that no other can share, and should not be classed with medical companies. Experience is the safe standard by which judgment may be valued, and it is unwise and expensive to embrace the statements of medical companies. It is impossible for a medical company to attend college. Companies have no diploma or license to practice medicine in California or any other State. Medical companies usually are named after a doctor. A portrait whose personality and identity are indefinite, is selected and published as the legitimate specialist of the office. Hired substitutes, ordinary doctors with questionable ability, give consultation, examination and treatment.

A thorough investigation should be made by every ailing man as to the specialist he consults. Duty and destiny to self and those who depend upon you demand the best medical attention. I have the ability and can give you this service. I have always charged a very reasonable fee, so that my services may be obtained by any man who sincerely desires to be cured. I make no misleading statements or unjustifiable promises, neither do I desire to be particularly independent, and I would like to have you for a patient, if you will come to me on a strictly business basis. I offer the inducements that I offer, which are my ability and thirty years' successful experience. Time-Saving Treatment and Guarantee of cure of certain Diseases.

NO MONEY REQUIRED TO COMMENCE TREATMENT. Many patients have no confidence in their doctor, because he demands pay before a cure has been effected, and there are many who have been misinformed about their condition, or through unsuccessful treatment have become skeptical and think there is no cure for them. I want an opportunity to treat such men. It makes no difference about the financial part, as I accept pay for my services as benefits are derived, when I am satisfied the patient is reliable. Health is capital at interest. I will prove my ability to cure you before asking pay for my services.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE.

Dr. Tillotson's Written Guarantee means a cure or no pay for services. I guarantee to cure certain diseases or refund every dollar you have paid me for my services. My services cost you nothing unless I cure your Varicose Veins, Hernia, Piles, Fistula, Ulceration, or any disease I guarantee to cure. My terms are reasonable and no more than you are willing and able to pay. Established 1899

READ MY BOOK—It contains information every young man, husband and father should have regarding himself. Book sent Free to those who, in my opinion, will be benefited by it. Call or write before treating for disease or disorders.

VARICOSE VEINS.

In the cure of Varicose Veins, Rupture and Associate Diseases of the Pelvic Region, I am successful in bringing to bear the curative power of Nature's forces in such a manner as to supplant the old-time, wide-open surgical operations. Once it required several weeks to cure these conditions, and the method which some still use is such to endanger the life of the patient and require a long period of convalescence. Now an absolute cure can be accomplished in a few days and with perfect safety.

TRUSSES SELDOM CURE RUPTURE. Disregard for existing Hernias has cost many lives. The smallest hernias are the most dangerous to life, because of the increased liability to strangulation. I am aware that a great deal of fraud has been practiced on the public in connection with the alleged cure of Rupture, and when I say positively that I cure Rupture, to stay cured, I do not expect any one to accept my statement without investigation of my professional work. My claim to your confidence is based on absolute facts; accomplished results. At a personal consultation I will make a free examination and can explain every detail of your Hernia and demonstrate to you the curative value of the method I have discovered. I invite the careful investigation of any person who sincerely desires to be cured. I cure Rupture, in selected cases, with perfect safety and entail no suffering, and do not detain you from occupation under Written Guarantee. Many cases cured to stay cured by one treatment.

PILES, FISTULA, RECTAL DISEASES. These diseases are very common; most frequently found in persons of middle or advanced age; are exceedingly annoying, often very painful, and sometimes very dangerous, and frequently unfit one for pleasure or occupation. My treatment and success are the result of years of experience; my treatment is chiefly applied. I cure Piles without cutting. Some cases are cured by one or more treatments. If I do not cure your Piles, Fistula and other Rectal Diseases, my treatment does not cost you anything. Gentleness in treatment comes from treating many cases, as I guarantee a cure of Piles, Fistula, Fissures, Ulcers and all curable Rectal Diseases.

LIFE'S BLOOD STREAM. The great clearinghouse of a man's body is the blood stream. Your blood cells are your bank account. Your only defense against disease is by and through blood corpuscles. My blood-making, blood-purifying remedies have been tried and proved. My blood-cell remedies nourish strengthen and increase the blood cells and nourish the nerve centers. I want to prove to you at my expense that my blood-making, blood-purifying remedies give power to weak brains and life to nerve centers.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES. With these diseases you may have more complications than are presented by any other diseased organs. By my searching illumination of the bladder I determine accurately the disease and by microscopical examination and urinalysis I make sure the condition of the kidneys, thus laying foundations for scientific treatment.—[Announcement Copyrighted.]

Are Microbes In Your Scalp?

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabourand, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebur, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being revived.

Dandruff is a contagious disease, which is largely due to a destructive microbe, which when left to pursue its course causes itching scalp, falling hair and baldness. Dandruff is caused by the microbe affecting the glands which produce the sebaceous matter, which latter then unnaturally dries up and scales off.

We have a remedy which will, we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, tighten and revitalize the hair roots and overcome baldness, so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexal "93" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease; yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by making every hair root, follicle and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely free from grease or sediment, is exceedingly pleasant to use and will not gum the hair or permanently soil the clothing or pillows.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give it a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it in Los Angeles only at our stores—The Rexall Stores. The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Cal., and Seattle, Wash., Portland, Oregon.

THE MARKETS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

There is again a movement on foot among a number of the members of the Produce Exchange to get all prices established on a jobbing basis—the prices which actually exist each day and not questioned when the stand from week to week as a guide for retail buyers, who must pay the price asked by the wholesaler at any time. The jobbing stand from week to week as a guide for retail buyers, who must pay the price asked by the wholesaler at any time. The jobbing stand would stand for what a commodity is actually selling for, a current quotation by which all prices can readily be fixed. Potatoes will illustrate the point in discussion at the present time. Nominally potatoes as an example are quoted at 1.25 per hundred. Nothing is actually bringing no more than it if they bring that much among the jobbers. They are wholesaled at any time. Just which the dealer can get over these figures.

This same condition is existent in the quotations on eggs at the present time. Extra firsts are quoted at 20 cents. There are not five dealers in town today who can show that they received 20 cents for a case of the best eggs they have in stock or can get out and get from their producers and then get through the regular channels of trade. The best price obtainable is the one quoted on candled eggs. There is a season of the year when an extra selection of a case is but a trifle over the quotations but this is only in the fall and winter months. There were no changes to note in the market this morning. It was firm all through the list. Receipts were 421 cases.

Butter continued very firm, jobbing at 27 cents, wholesaling from ½ to 1¼ cents higher per pound to the retail dealers, according to the quantity which they purchase. Receipts were not as large as usual, only 18,118 pounds.

Dairy and twins, eastern cheese, were not in oversupply since good prices were offered and the stock slow in making an appearance. Eastern longhorn and imported Swiss were both good sellers. Prices were steady and receipts 1134 pounds.

Potato arrivals were 1301 pounds. Oregon Burbanks were the best sellers on the street. New spuds were offered as low as 1.50 per 100 lbs. and the demand for them was good.

Bermuda onions advanced to 2.50 per crate. They sold well at the higher figure. Receipts of onions were 450 sacks. Bean arrivals totaled 666 sacks and the market was steady on all varieties.

The price of Jonathan apples declined to 2.75 per box. This drop has come with the realization that there are more apples still on hand than can be moved unless the demand at present increases. Belleflower apples are selling well and are the exception to the downward rule. They brought 1.75 on best stock.

STATE OF TRADE.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

The business situation continues to display sharp contrasts. Dullness in the financial markets contrasts with an active industrial output. The week's reports are very irregular and make it difficult to sum up the situation in any one phrase sufficiently broad to define adequately the state of trade in the nation as a whole. Some irregularity is apparent in finished materials of iron and steel because of the increasing capacity of the mills, yet it is significant that structural steel bookings for the first quarter exceed all previous records for that period, with two exceptions. It is in pig iron that the least satisfactory conditions exist as purchasers pursue a waiting attitude and prices show some further weakness. Exports of cotton goods show a decided gain in the Philippine trade since the enactment of the new tariff regulations, 30,000,000 yards having been shipped during the 8 months ending February, against 6,000,000 yards in the two previous years. Curtailment on cotton mills is becoming widespread and demand for worsted in men's wear is so light that many looms are idle.

Trade in footwear improves gradually and is much better than six weeks ago, the question of values is less of a disturbing element.

Bradstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Bradstreets' tomorrow will say:

Trade and crop reports still betray irregularity. In the northwest, on the Pacific Coast and in Texas, where needed rains have fallen, trade and crop reports are alike good. In the southwest, the central west, parts of the south and on the upper Atlantic coast, there is conservatism in buying verging upon caution and there is more evidence of depression exercised upon trade movements by crop uncertainty or because of the high level of prices discouraging buying, except for absolute current needs.

Jobbing and wholesale trade, except in the conditions favorably situated mentioned above, has been rather quieter and there is a disposition to regard spring trade, except for reorders later, as being over. In the industries reports vary. Iron and steel, except structural material are rather quieter, production is not so heavy and resales of earlier purchases cause some weakness in prices of crudes forms.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending April 7 was 240 against 229 last week, 227 in the like week of 1909, 268 in 1908, 194 in 1907 and 141 in 1906.

Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada, week ending April

New York Cotton Market.

[Special Service to The Times by E. F. Hutton & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, 111 West Third street.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—The market was under the influence of scattered investment buying in late trading, inspired by bullish weekend figures and improved trade demand. Short covering was also indulged in to a moderate degree. It was said that a leading line had to sell a little cotton in order to keep the market from advancing too rapidly.

Logan & Bryan's letter says: "The Liverpool market exhibited a rather indifferent tone at our opening this morning and our own market started a bit sluggish. After the first round and preliminary sparring match, the market got a whiff of ammonia and especially in the near-by option and a sharply

New York Curb Stocks.

[Special Service to The Times by E. F. Hutton & Co., Members New York Stock Exchange, No. 111 West Third street, Los Angeles.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—The curb stocks were weak, shaded off considerably in the afternoon trading. The copper producers report which was issued at noon showed an increase of over 15,000,000 pounds for the month of March and this, coupled with the weak and dull condition of the Boston market, was too much to cause any buoyant feeling in this market. It would seem as if about all the bad news is now out and on any further declines stocks should be a purchase.

CROP REPORT STARTS ACTION.

OFFICIAL STATISTICS MAKES MARKET LIVELY.

Dull Session Revived by Government's Publication of Condition of Fall-Sown Grain—Wide Fluctuations in Corn Trading—Oats Close Steady—Provisions Weak.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, April 8.—Wheat was dull prior to the publication of the official statistics relating to the condition of the fall-sown crop. Following the issuance of the report, however, trading became decidedly active. According to the official report the condition of winter wheat in the United States, on April 1 was 90.9 of a normal crop, which would include a total yield of 472,000,000 bushels. Aside from the crop report the news of the day was bearish. During the day July ranged between 1.04¾ and 1.04¾ and September sold between 1.01¾ and 1.01¾. Prices closed more than one cent above the low mark, although the new crop months were still a trifle below yesterday. July closed at 1.03¾, and September at 1.01¾@1.01¾. Wide fluctuations

Weather Conditions.—The pressure has increased somewhat over the South Pacific slope since Thursday, while in the Northwest and over the northern slope of the Rocky Mountains it has risen. The storm off the British Columbia coast is moving inland over British Columbia. It has caused heavy rains in Western Oregon and along the Washington coast, over an inch being reported at Portland and at North Head respectively. Morning cloudiness (high fog) prevails in the coast sections of Southern California and along the northern coast. No precipitation of consequence is reported east of the Rocky Mountains, the center of disturbance in that section being generally fair. The pressure distribution over the Pacific Slope is such as to cause generally fair weather in the Los Angeles and vicinity, for the next thirty-six hours, with clouds or fog night and morning.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Cloudy to partly cloudy weather tonight and Saturday; light, variable winds.

San Joaquin, Riverside, Redlands and San Bernardino: Cloudy to partly cloudy weather tonight and Saturday.

SHARES AND MONEY.

BIG OFFERINGS, BUT FEW TAKERS.

MANY THINGS COMBINE TO DEPRESS STOCKS.

Easing Money Rates and Pending Bond Exports Influence Adversely.

Iron and Copper Reports Add to Dullness—Erie's Reduction of Dividend Forces Affects Railways.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—There was a considerable increase in the offerings of stocks for sale today. There was, however, a distinct lessening in the difficulty with which they were marketed. The absence of bids at current quotations made itself obvious at the outset and prices declined. The bids at successive stages of the decline was readily filled, without further concessions by the sellers, some to place their stocks. Declines of 1 to 2 points were general at the end of the day. The rising money rates were a most effective influence. Coupled with the belief that gold exports would further decrease bank reserve next week the money market offered little incentive to buy stocks. The general setting of the currency movement of the week indicates excess of receipts over the interior to the extent of several millions of dollars. The subtreasury operations were nearly balanced. The $5,000,000 of bonds which figure in the banking statement will be partly offset, therefore. The bank statement report published at noon brought no relief to the stock market depression. Such comfort as could be found was in the belief that conditions have improved since the date of the report. The decline of $20,000,000 in the circulation from December 31 to March 1, however, shows the glaring contrast with expectations of the crop writers at the end of winter killing. The cessation of the Copper producers' reduction was another depressing factor. The loss of 200,000 pounds in the stocks of copper in the month comes in spite of a decrease in the daily rate of production in the deliveries into consumption having been 50 per cent. in excess of the output for any month since 1907, with the single exception of the month of last year. Political discussion of the day's stock market. There was the continuation of the Republican Supreme Court decision in the American Tobacco case, the action of the Erie Railroad directors in the matter of reducing the dividend and laying off 1,000 employes, and the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission in declining to suspend the proposed advance in freight rates, per value, $1,000,000 United States bonds were unchanged on call.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say: The business situation continues to display sharp contrasts. Dullness in the financial markets contrasts with an active industrial output. The week's reports are very irregular and make it difficult to sum up the situation in any one phrase sufficiently broad to define adequately the state of trade in the nation as a whole. Some irregularity is apparent in finished materials of iron and steel because of the increasing capacity of the mills; yet it is significant that structural steel bookings for the first quarter exceed all previous records for that period, with two exceptions. It is in pig iron that the least satisfactory conditions exist as purchasers pursue a waiting attitude and prices show some further weakness. Exports of cotton goods show a decided gain in the Philippine trade since the enactment of the new tariff regulations, 26,000,000 yards having been shipped during the 8 months ending February, against 6,500,000 yards in the two previous years. Curtailment on cotton mills is becoming widespread and demand for worsted in men's wear is so light that many looms are idle.

Bradstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Bradstreets' tomorrow will say:

Trade and crop reports still betray irregularity. In the northwest, on the Pacific Coast and in Texas, where needed rains have fallen, trade and crop reports are alike good. In the southwest, in the central west, parts of the south and on the upper Atlantic coast, there is conservatism in buying verging upon caution and there is more evidence of the repression exercised upon trade movements by crop uncertainty or because of the high level of prices discouraging buying, except for absolute current needs.

Jobbing and wholesale trade, except in the sections favorably situated mentioned above, has been rather quieter and there is a disposition to regard spring trade, except for reorders later, as being over. In the industries reports vary. Iron and steel, except structural material are rather quieter, production is not so heavy and remains of earlier purchases cause some weakness in prices of cruder forms.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending April 7 was 240 against 229 last week, 237 in the like week of 1909; 324 in 1908, 234 in 1907 and 161 in 1906.

Wheat, including flour exports from the United States and Canada, week ending April 7, 2,777,600 bushels, against 2,156,125,000 last week and 2,661,345 this week last year. For the forty weeks ending April 7, exports are 117,046,000 bushels against 146,676,488 in the corresponding period last year.

Corn exports for the week are 635,624 bushels against 1,095,351 last week and 938,888 in 1909. For the 36 weeks ending April 7, corn exports are 23,370,473 bushels against 35,748,962 last year.

New York Curb Stocks.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The curb stocks were weak, shaded off considerably in the afternoon trading. The copper producers report which was issued at noon showed an increase of over 18,000,000 pounds for the month of March and this, coupled with the weak and dull condition of the Boston market, was too much to cause any buoyant feeling in this market. It would seem as if about all the bad news is now out and on any further decline stocks should be a purchase.

GENERAL EASTERN.

OFFICIAL STATISTICS MAKES MARKET LIVELY.

Dull Session Revived by Government's Publication of Condition of Fall-Sown Grain—Wide Fluctuations in Corn Trading—Oats Close Steady—Provisions Weak.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, April 8.—Wheat was dull prior to the publication of the official statistics relating to the condition of the fall-sown crop. Following the issuance of the report, however, trading became decidedly active. According to the official report the condition of winter wheat in the United States on April 1 was 80.8 of a normal crop, which would include a total yield of 673,000,000 bushels. Aside from the crop report the news of the day was bearish. During the day, July ranged between 1.04¾ and 1.05¾, and September sold between 1.01⅝ and 1.03¼. Prices closed more than one cent above the low mark, although the new crop months were still a trifle below yesterday. July closed at 1.05⅛, and September at 1.03¼@¾. Wide fluctuations marked trading in corn, the volume of business being large. In the final half of the day the market was inclined to follow wheat. The cash grain was in fair demand at steady prices and sales were limited at about 130,000 bushels. No. 3, yellow sold at 55½@56¾. The May delivery sold between 52@53¾. The market for options closed easy with prices ¼ to ⅝ lower. May being at 53¾. Oats were governed to an extent by the course of corn. The market closed steady with prices a shade lower to a shade higher. Provisions closed weak at about the low point. Final quotations on the May delivery: Pork, 24.85@24.87½; lard, 12.47½, 13¼ lower; ribs, 13.27½, 13½@13⅝ lower.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Cash quotations were as follows: Flour steady; No. 2 red, 78@80½; feed or mixing barley, 42@45; fair to choice malting, 57@66; flax seed, No. 1 southwestern, 2.25; No. 1 northwestern, 2.33; timothy seed, 4.60; clover, 12.50; mess pork, per bbl., 24.12½@25.00; lard, per 100 lbs., 12.37½; short ribs sides (loose,) 13.00@13.37½; short clear sides (boxed,) 14.00@14.25.

Grain Statistics.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Total clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 720,000 bushels. Exports for the week, as shown by Bradstreet's, were equal to 1,777,600 bushels. Primary receipts were 455,000 bushels. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 12 cars; corn, 125 cars; oats, 13 cars; hogs, 7000 head.

New York Cotton Market.

[Special Service to The Times by E. F. Hutton & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, 111 West Third street.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—The market was under the influence of scattered investment buying in late trading, inspired by bullish weather figures and improved trade demand, short covering was also indulged in to a moderate degree. It was said that a leading line had to sell a little cotton in order to keep the market from advancing too rapidly.

Logan & Bryan's letter says: "The Liverpool market exhibited a rather indifferent tone at our opening this morning and our own market started a bit sluggish. After the first round and preliminary sparring for a match, the market got a whiff of ammonia and especially in the near-by option and a sharply change of financial conditions. Those who have seen fit to sell the near positions are still in the rather equivocal position of having still to dig up the actual cotton in addition to the fact that their sally at the market has proved unremunerative. The selling of last week and into this week has been at lower levels than now exist on the summer months. The fall positions don't show the same response today that was seen in May and July, the reason being that there was desire on the part of the scalpers to take the 10 or 15 points profit which was offered them, and the almost unanimous opinion that they might be able to again buy these remote positions on a small recession. There is a suggestion of cloudy weather again in the Southwest. Added rains would be of vast benefit. The amount brought into sight during the week was 111,000 bales, against 120,000 last year and 125,000 in 1908, and the weekly takings to be made up later in the day will probably make a bullish showing because of the fact that by comparison with last year when it was Easter week, it will be relatively a full one. The market is in no condition to be sold until this crop gets out of the ground and shows good stands throughout the entire cotton belt and until some evidence is had of there being a sustaining amount of moisture in the subsoil. We think that cotton bought on soft spots and especially the new crop months offers a good opportunity of profit with the minimum risk."

RECOLLECTIONS.

TALK ABOUT EMPIRE STATE.

New York Society Members at Social Affair.

Say Home Place Is Great, But California Best.

Organizations Help Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the New York Society were entertained at the Chamber of Commerce, last night, by the Federation of State Societies. The reception was one of a series of similar functions that have been given in honor of other local State organizations.

While the speakers all admitted the greatness of the Empire State, they declared that Southern California is the best place in which to live.

"I am astonished at the amount of work that is being accomplished by the various State societies," said President Scott of the Chamber of Commerce. "Much of the work is in direct line with the work we are trying to do in the chamber, and we welcome your loyal aid. I have heard some persons argue that it would be well to forget old associations and ties, inasmuch as this is our permanent home. But I do not agree with this idea. The pleasant remembrances we have of our former hiding places do not detract from our present loyalty to Los Angeles and Southern California.

"I feel an especial pleasure in greeting you tonight, for I used to live in the Empire State. I can remember how the chilly blasts used to sweep in from Lake Erie; and the discomfort of New York City on a hot July day is still vivid in my memory. [Laughter.]

IS A GREAT STATE.

"But we must all recognize that New York is a great State and that New York City is the greatest financial center of the country. It has many problems to work out. One of the greatest is the healthy absorption of the throng of immigrants that each year enters the great gateway of the United States.

"I think much praise should be accorded the men 'up-State.' The farmers have wrestled with unfavorable conditions of soil and climate. They are sturdy sons of the soil. And I do not expect contradiction when I assert that the women are incomparable." [Applause from the ladies.]

Francis G. Haley, president of the society, said that while New York could well be termed the Empire State of the Atlantic Coast, that California is equally entitled to the designation of the "Empire State of the Pacific." He said it would be well if the members of the local society would write to their friends in the East, advising them to come out here to live.

"We are glad to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce in every way," said he. "We recognize it as a live, progressive organization that is working unselfishly for the upbuilding of this section. It always does things well, whether the undertaking be the Owens River project or merely the entertainment of a number of State societies. I assure the members of the chamber present that we do appreciate what you are doing for the State organization." [Applause.]

TELLS OF STATE.

James A. Foshay, a native of New York, gave an interesting talk about the State. He said to do the subject justice would require several evenings, and that he could only hope to refer to some of the things for which New York State is famous.

"One of my early recollections was of the magnificent Hudson River," said he. "I have skated over its icy surface in winter and swam in her clear waters in the summer. Though we have nearly everything we want out here, I am afraid that the Los Angeles River can hardly be compared to the mighty Hudson."

He briefly sketched the early history of the State, and showed how the city of New York has become the second city in the world in point of population. He said it was a hard task to care for so many persons. The surface cars are always full, the elevated trains are crowded, and now the city is planning extensions of her subway system.

He mentioned the bridges that span the North and East rivers and said that he rejoiced that there is plenty of elbow room here. In enumerating some of the great men of that State, the names of Gov. Hughes, Theodore Roosevelt and the late ex-President Cleveland were greeted with applause.

Music and readings concluded the programme. Light refreshments were served under the supervision of Secretary Wiggins.

Preparations for Conflict With Ecuador Are Still Being Made in Peru, Say Reports.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Warlike preparations against Ecuador are still going on in Peru, according to a dispatch received today at the State Department from the United States legation at Lima. MEDIATION IN SIGHT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

LONDON, April 8.—Henry Williams, confidential agent of the government of Ecuador, who is now in London, received today the following cablegram from President Alfaro of Ecuador:

"The turbulent manifestations at Quito and Lima in no manner interpret the sentiment of the majority in the two countries, nor the pacific intentions of the respective governments. The differences have been submitted for diplomatic action, which is directed to avoid war. Negotiations have been initiated for a direct settlement through mediation by the United States government. The commissioners will meet in Washington.

Dulaney insisted that "nobody was buying votes," and told of visits of Bilbo to his room to "take a few drinks." He said that he told Bilbo he would "appreciate anything he would do for Percy," and that this was all he had to do with him.

Officers Are Searching for Former Broker, Who Is Charged With Using Record of Check Deposits to Assist in Passing Bad Paper for Valuables.

Posing as a man of wealth, with heavy realty holdings and a large bank account, J. A. Woodbury, a former broker of Los Angeles, is alleged to have worked one of the smoothest swindles of the year on the Whitley Jewelry Company.

A complaint has been sworn to for the arrest of Woodbury, and the warrant is issued, but he cannot be found. Private detectives and members of the police force, as well as officers of almost every county in the Southwest, are searching for him. He is believed to be en route to Chicago.

Yesterday he was supposed to have passed through El Paso. Officers watching there wired Los Angeles that they barely missed a man answering his description.

The complaint against Woodbury is sworn to by C. T. Dunsmoor, secretary of the jewelry company. He alleges that Woodbury entered the store on the 2nd inst. and asked to see some diamond rings. To Deputy District Attorney Alexander Dunsmoor declared that Woodbury presented a fine appearance and seemed to be a man of middle age of apparently good standing. He was well dressed and looked prosperous. He examined the diamonds with the air of an expert, and after careful inspection selected one that suited his fancy. He next made a trip to the watch department, where he took much longer to select a handsome gold timepiece.

After making these selections, he remarked that he would give a check for the amount, $392. Dunsmoor said he was called at this point, and Woodbury produced a bank book showing a deposit by check several hundred dollars in excess of the amount of the purchase.

Upon this evidence, Dunsmoor permitted the purchase to go out of the establishment. Woodbury, it seems, immediately left Los Angeles. When the check was returned as worthless, a watch was put on his home, but he did not appear. Then he was trailed about Southern California, but the officers could not catch him.

An investigation of the bank books showed what the officers allege to be an entirely new form of swindle. They assert Woodbury went to Hollywood, interested himself in an option on a realty deal, and deposited two checks with a bank there, having the checks entered in his bank books. That at the time of making these deposits the clerks of the bank warned him not to draw against the checks, which they declared were questionable.

His deposit book, however, showed the amount of cash on hand, and was accepted by the jewelry company at its face value.

NOTHING MARS WOMEN'S MEET.

BUSY, PLEASANT DAY SPENT AT SANTA BARBARA.

Convention of Federated Clubs Has Every Appearance of Being Peaceful Affair—Democratic Strife Is Due to Independence League—Delegation Is Unpledged.

SANTA BARBARA, April 8.—It was a busy, harmonious, pleasant day for those attending the annual convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which began its sessions at the Potter hotel today. The events came to a close with an address this evening on "The Prince of Peace," by Rev. Charles R. Brown of Oakland, who hoped the "United States would be the Messiah among nations" in leading the way to universal peace.

So far the convention has every appearance of being a peaceful affair. There seems no doubt of the election of Mrs. Russel J. Waters of Los Angeles, as president. Only a split in the Los Angeles delegation could cause a contest. More interest is being taken in the election of thirteen delegates to the national convention. The northern delegates expect the election, without contest of Mrs. Jos. E. Cowles of Los Angeles, as vice-president of the general federation board.

The women this afternoon visited the old De la Guerra mansion, a famous landmark.

Perhaps the most interest this afternoon was taken in the speech of Mrs. J. W. Orr of San Francisco, on "Seven Deadly Sins," a reply to Editor Bok, of the Ladies' Home Journal. She spoke in defense of club women against ridicule and the criticism of those who believe women should confine their activities to the home.

Gov. Gillett is expected tomorrow to address the federation. Among the many social features will be a garden party tomorrow afternoon at the home of Admiral and Mrs. Bowman H. McCalla.

DEMOCRATIC SPLIT.

Echos of the Democratic State campaign of four years ago are finding their way into the local Democratic camp, which is threatened with a split. By naming Attorney C. A. Storke as an alternate to the State convention at Los Angeles, instead of giving him full-fledged powers as representative, Dr. J. C. Bainbridge, chairman of the County Central Committee, has called down on himself and his associates in the party, the disfavor of this old war horse of Democracy.

"But you see," said one of the newer leaders of the party, "Storke went over to the Independence League four years ago and traveled over the county speaking for the Hearst candidates and Bainbridge told him that he wanted

RAPS AT COMMERCIAL FRAUDS.

Corruption of Business Men Responsible for Graft Among Politicians, Says a New Yorker.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 8.—A fund of $100,000 for "the purifying of business commercial fraud," will be raised here if a proposal submitted to the National Association of Credit Men is approved.

According to William Jay Schieffelin, president of the New York Citizens' Union, and other prominent civic and business bodies, corruption among business men is primarily responsible for graft and corruption in politics, and sary as reform in legislative bodies.

"Stories of graft and corruption in three States—Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York—occupy columns in my morning paper," said Mr. Schieffelin. "All these stories of legislative corruption concern business matters. We are fond of blaming legislators for graft, but first and foremost, the blame is on
